Extravagance in Dress.
Washington Herald: Very few persons outside of the glittering circle of our enormously rich families, who constitute what is referred to as "the best society," can understand how any young woman in this or any other country can spend upon her wardrobe such vast amounts of money as are expended by the daughters of some of these families. The history of the world does not show such reckless extravagance in the way of dress.
Nor, for the matter of that, does the history of the world show so riotous a use of money as that practiced by our very rich in their strictly social divertissements. Happy is the lot of the man or woman who is not tempted to such foolish indulgences, which take the edge from life's real joy!

The forestry service of the department of agriculture at Washington has issued a bulletin by R. S. Kellogg, once forest inspector, on the timber supply of the United States. In a condensed form the bulletin contains much interesting information.

The American Railway association is after the manufacturers of steel rails, claiming that the present output is of poor quality, likely to break under the weight of heavy passenger engines traveling at a high rate of speed, endangering life and property. The reports of defective rails as the cause of wrecks are remarkably frequent. The manufacturers are rushing their work too rapidly and are not exercising the necessary care in regard to the quality of the material they sell.

North Dakotans should insist on the new lignite coal rate law being enforced when it becomes effective July 1. It affords an opportunity for those sections of the state distinct from the mines to get lignite coal at a reasonable rate. The experiences on the fuel proposition last winter have aroused the people and they are determined to look more closely into the matter this year. If the railroads will have their schedules ready so lignite can be shipped under the new rate law after July 1 it will enable the miners to get large quantities of the fuel into the hands of dealers and consumers before the rush on the railroads this fall in moving stock and grain. The railroads can help in this matter and they undoubtedly will, despite the fact they would prefer the low haul from eastern coal fields.

A recent article in The Forum concerning the methods of large eastern wholesale houses in shipping cars of goods here, rebelling and transferring to other roads for small towns in the state, shows the importance of more wholesale houses in Fargo. One Chicago house wants to ship 300 carloads of goods to Fargo, in carload lots, to be reshipped over the state and to parts of Montana. Why could not Fargo have a wholesale house to supply this trade? There are many wholesale establishments here. They have demonstrated there is a place for them by the large trade they have acquired and the success they have attained. There are many branches of the mercantile business unrepresented.
This should not be. Fargo offers great opportunities for wholesalers.
The railroad facilities are unequalled west of the twin cities and the conditions are most favorable to the establishment of many new houses. Just now a wholesale notion house, a wholesale dry goods house, a wholesale shoe house, a wholesale clothing house could secure a nice business with a minimum effort on the part of the promoters. If capitalists would come here, look over the field, and see the success of the wholesale houses already here, they would quickly be convinced of the grand opportunities offered.

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called dyspepsia and catarrh of the stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that I had 'em'—yes—a wigwag, quitting my job, I took my doctor's surprise when I showed him thirty feet, and in another day the remainder about the same length of a tape-worm that had been annoying my vitality for years.
I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust this testimonial will appeal to other sufferers."

CHANCE FOR YOUNG MEN

Male Stenographers Are in Great Demand in Country Banks Throughout the State.

Good male stenographers, or even fairly good ones, are much wanted by the country at present, and no young man who has a working knowledge of the science of shorthand need have any fear about securing a position.
L. B. Hanna, who is in communication with many country banks, being interested in several, said today that he had received numerous queries of late from country financial institutions, asking him to help them to secure stenographers.

"It is male stenographers who are wanted by the banks," said Mr.
Hanna. "They want men because they can send them out in the country to make collections and do other work which a young woman could not well do."

"These positions offer excellent openings for young men who want to learn the banking business, for he has an opportunity to work right into it from his stenographic work. The country bank is the best place for a young man who wishes to learn banking. Going into a city bank he is placed in one department, and very likely remains in that department, knowing little about any other part of banking. But in a country bank he has the opportunity to work in all the departments and learn the business from one end to the other."

States. If anyone has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only refer to Mr. Alvin H.
Stimpson, of Willimantic, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute kidney trouble. H. H.

Relief From Rheumatic Pains.

Among the troubles that beset mankind rheumatism is one of the most aggravating. "I suffered with it for over two years," said Mr. Holland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I was incapacitated for duty.
One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by all dealers.

several years, and fair dealing has increased the business yearly.

Cashier Lowry left for Fargo on Friday evening to submit his final report as guardian of the estate of J. H. Verstal, who has been an inmate of the asylum at Jamestown for more than two years, but was discharged from there about two weeks ago. Mr.
Verstal intends going to the Pacific coast. He will be remembered as a barber in our town before he was sent to the asylum.

DR. JONES' BEAVER OIL THE GREATEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA AND LUMBAGO

The best way to treat these ailments is by external application. Internal medicines go to the stomach, and in many cases the digestive organs are impaired before they reach the disease for which these medicines are taken.

Dr. Jones' Beaver Oil applied to the affected parts goes in through the pores of the skin, and affords quick relief. It requires but little rubbing. It will be found very beneficial to apply a soft cloth moistened with Beaver Oil at bed time.

Beaver Oil is also excellent for Tonsillitis, sore throat and cold in chest.
