ENTERTAIN VETERANS.

Co. B Gave Delightful Affair to G. A. R. and W. R. C. Organizations.

Members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. were entertained in a delightful manner last evening by Co. B at the Royal Knights' hall. Boughton's quartette sang several numbers and Miss Nellie Morris gave two beautiful piano solos. Lieut. Robert A. Thomson told in an interesting way of a narrow escape which he had during the Philippine war and then the guests took their turn at entertaining.

Interesting and amusing incidents of the life of a soldier during the Civil war were related by Comrades Geary and Johnson and Post Commander Townsend of the John F. Reynolds post, and Mrs. E. C. Geary, et., described some most interesting adventures in camps and on the ships during the Civil war.

The Co. B boys turned waiters and served a lap luncheon while John Hall rendered several vocal selections. The whole affair proved thoroughly enjoyable and much credit is due Capt. C. C. Grafton who was chairman of the entertainment committee.

THE THEATRE

May 3—The Free Lance.

May 4—Mrs. Warren's Profession.

Joseph Cawthorne's great success in Sousa's comic opera, "The Free Lance," has decided the comedian to appear in no other capacity than that of genuine comic opera. Klaw & Erlanger have entered into a contract with John Philip Sousa and Harry B. Smith to furnish a new one for next season which will be presented with Cawthorne as the star after the return of the Free Lance from its London engagement next summer.

A dramatic event of more than usual interest and importance will be the presentation at the Fargo opera house Saturday evening of George Bernard Shaw's brilliant play, "Mrs. Warren's Profession," which has excited so much comment everywhere. It is said to be the great English satirist's best effort in the matter of epigrammatic writing. As for the story—well, although it has been much discussed, it is one that will bear further discussion, and Mr. Shaw has handled the theme like the master he is. Rose Coghlan, one of America's greatest actresses, will be seen in the title role, and she will have the support of capable actors and actresses.

At the Bijou.

At the Bijou this week Douglas & Douglas are extremely popular and the dog Bluch, is not far behind. They are funmakers of high order and keep the audience amused and interested by their clever work. Sammy Salling has a pleasing illustrated song this week and is at his best. The moving pictures are humorous and of interest and the little playhouse maintains its popularity among the amusement places of the city.

At the Ideal.

Bobby Carroll in his black face comedy is a leading attraction in the vaudeville features at the Ideal this week. He does a monologue, songs and then a clever juggling stunt with a silk hat. Billy Graham is popular with his clever dancing and Mackie, Murphy and Mack in their playlet are better liked than when they first appeared here in other stunts. The animated pictures are exciting and humorous. The crowds continue larger than ever.

favorites at the Grand this week. Their harmonizing, singing and comedy work catch the audience and applause is frequent and liberal. At the last performance last night the trio had to respond to at least a half dozen encores and their songs are tuneful and popular. The member of the trio, who makes up as a Semitic gentleman, is busy and funny from his first appearance to his last bow. The rest of the bill is pleasing and this week's entertainment is well balanced. It is drawing the crowds and you are not in the fun unless you take in the Grand this week.

BUILD $50,000 CHURCH.

Methodists at Aberdeen, S. D., to Erect a Handsome Edifice.

Aberdeen, S. D., May 1—Plans for a new $50,000 church have been accepted by the M. E. congregation of this city and work will begin on the new structure May 15. A site in the residence portion of the city on the corner of Fifth avenue and Lincoln street, has been purchased. The ground dimensions will be 90 by 110 feet, and from the ground to the dome there will be an elevation of 100 feet. The plans were drawn by a Cincinnati firm of architects. They provide for a seating capacity of 1,200, a basement in which a gymnasium will be installed, including a plunge spray and shower baths. The building will be constructed of stone and brick and modeled after the style of the Spanish mission churches of the old California days.

DO IT NOW.

Now is the time to take something to clean and build up the blood, ridding the system of the poisonous waste matter and acids which cause Rheumatism, Blood disorders, Nervous Debility, Backache and other miserable weaknesses.

Here is one of the simplest, though safest and most certain mixtures, which can readily be prepared at home at nominal cost:

Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Get these ingredients from any reliable pharmacy and mix by shaking them well in a bottle. The dose is one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. Also drink plenty of water.

This home-made mixture, writes a noted authority, will overcome most forms of Kidney and Bladder troubles and at the same time force the Kidneys to filter and strain all impurities and acids from the blood, restoring the full blood count of 25 per cent red blood corpuscles, which means good, sound health and vigorous vitality, to say nothing of the clear, rosy skin and complexion which must result.

FARGOAN'S VIEW OF SUNNY ITALYC. A. WHELOCK RETURNS FROM LAND OF THE WINE AND RE-LATES SIGNIFICANT IDEAS OF
HIS TOUR—EMANUEL'S SUB-JECTS EDUCATED IN AMERICA.

C. A. Wheelock, who has just returned from Italy where he has been spending part of the winter was pined for some observations of his trip, but he begged to be excused for the reason that he was mostly in quest of a good rest and change of air and the making of observations on anything particular only as they passed before him was his last concern.

One thing he did notice, which was refreshing, in Europe was the general exercise of politeness and courtesy and the entire absence of it, in quarters where it should be looked for and by rights should exist in this country, appealed to him more after his return from this trip to the European continent than ever. In this country it seems to be coming more chronic, the absence of common politeness in officialdom of every kind—it is absolutely impossible to say the right thing to some officials, you get your head snapped off anyhow, they are getting more and more adept at rubbing the hair the wrong way, and the public pays good big money for having it done.

Mr. Wheelock did recall one matter to which his attention was called while away and that was the reflex action in rural Italy which has arisen through the influence of men and women who return to that sunny clime after a residence in this country.

Those men and women after more or less years living on American soil become imbued with customs and practices prevalent in the United States, they learn to know the value of owning a home and a farm. They become impregnated with all sorts of practical ideas and they teach them to the folks at home and stimulate them to buy small holdings, which a number have done and to their great advantage and profit. It has become contagious and every year there are more people there making enquiries for land. On the other hand there are people who return to Italy with families born in this country, who cannot possibly settle down in the fatherland and eventually have to return to the United States. Especially is this the case where some of the children have had a taste of American freedom and the advantage of the American school system. A longing to return to the "states" comes over the young people and rather than have them discontented the parents return to this country.

Mr. Wheelock met one such family who had lived in Rochester, N. Y. The children had gone to school there and had become so imbued with life and living here that they found it absolutely impossible to make themselves at home in the fatherland of their parents, so back they came.

Mr. Wheelock declared that it was nice to see lands and places of historic interest in the old world, to see other types of beautiful scenery, but after all it was nice to get back to the home in dear old America once again. He says another thing he found out was that the people of Europe think a lot of President Roosevelt, that there is no man in the world like Teddy.

Card of Thanks.

The kindness extended to us in our sorrow has been a help and a comfort to us all. Those organizations in which Mrs. Duerner rejoiced to work in her lifetime, the Women's Christian Temperance union and the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church, have stood close by us in our bereavement, and our friends and neighbors have been more than kind. For these things we hold it fitting not only to treasure a wordless gratitude, but to openly voice our thanks.

"THE PERMANENT PURITAN."

Subject of Rev. Batten's Address To-morrow Night.

The Red River Valley Congregational club will hold its seventh annual and seventeenth meeting in Pirle's hall next Thursday evening. Rev. J. H. Batten of Valley City will be the speaker of the evening and he has chosen for his subject, The Permanent Puritan. The subject is one which holds much of promise in the way of interest and as Mr. Batten is well and favorably known as a brilliant, forceful and eloquent speaker both on the lecture platform and from the pulpit the members and friends of the club are anticipating a treat in hearing him.
