SMALLPOX AT ABERDEEN.

There Are Four Cases Reported in One Family.

Aberdeen, S. D., May 1.-There are four cases of smallpox in Aberdeen, three in one family and the other in the pesthouse. Several persons have been exposed to the disease, and the authorities are engaged in a vigorous battle to prevent its spread. To add to the troubles of the health officials, eighty "sick" men are reported to be on their way to Aberdeen from Mobridge, where they were at work on the Milwaukee extension. In addition to the cases in this city, there are four in Gem township, the patients being One other case is reported at Rudolph. south of here.
