HANRAHAN A FAVORITE

Grand Forks Boy Is Making a Good Record in Baseball at San Diego.

From San Diego, Cal., comes the news that Billy Hanrahan, formerly with the Grand Forks team of the Northern league, is making quite a record on a San Diego team. He is playing Sunday ball with the team there and looking after his electric wiring business during the week. The following item is from a San Diego newspaper:

"Hanrahan, the other new man, also put up a good game. He managed to get one safe hit, a pretty liner to left field. He had four fielding chances during the game and accepted them all. He is showing himself to be the most brilliant second baseman that has appeared on the local diamond this season and is already a hot favorite with the crowds.

DODGING BILL SQUIRES.

Burns and O'Brien Not Anxious to Meet Australian.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 7.—After signifying his willingness to meet Bill Squires, the Australian champion, before Jimmy Coffroth's Colma club, on May 30, Tommy Burns has refused to post a $1,000 forfeit to bind the papers which he signed. He announced today that he had decided not to fight Squires on the percentage basis offered by Coffroth, which he did not believe would warrant his making another hard fight after the O'Brien battle.

When Coffroth went out to Arcadia to talk matters over with O'Brien, he met with a flat refusal from Jack. "This Squires is a dead tough fellow," said O'Brien, "and I have one tough contract on my hands already. This battle is for the world's light heavyweight championship, and I do not intend to take part in another championship battle inside of three weeks. I have made up my mind that win, lose or draw, I will take a longer rest after meeting Burns—perhaps for a year. I may retire from the ring after this battle."

Coffroth says that both men are afraid of the tough Australian and intends to secure Mike Schreck as the trial horse to go on with Bill Squires on May 30.

Hope for Americans in Newcastle.
London, May 8.—There is considerable hope for the American ladies, the Misses Curtis, who are entered in the golf races at Newcastle, Ireland. Neither Miss Robertson nor Mrs. Robinson, the competitors, has been prominent in a championship competition, and it is considered not at all unlikely that one or both of the sisters Curtis will at least get into the concluding rounds. Among other entrants are Lady Cowley, who has been drawn against Mrs. Maddison of Wakefield, and the Marchioness of Headfort, nee Miss Rosie Boot, a gaily actress. The Marchioness of Headfort has been drawn against Miss K. Gillies of the Northwood. The matches began yesterday and will continue until and including May 10.

ROBIN HOOD A TOPER.

Famous Race Horse Cannot Get Along Without His Beer.

New York, May 8.—If Robin Hood, the 6-year-old race horse, could talk he could say he is fond of beer. He gave every evidence that he relished it yesterday at the Jamaica track. After he had won the second race he drank a drink of the foaming fluid without taking a long breath.

Robin Hood "cools off" after a race on beer. While other horses more temperate in their habits, quaff large quantities of water, he indulges in his hops and no pan-handler on Park Row will plead harder for a drink of the amber fluid that cheers than will this thoroughbred son of Kingston—Beale of Maywood. He will rub his attendant's shoulder, decline all water and do everything but ask for his customary "growler." When it is forthcoming he shows his delight by snorting and tossing his head vigorously.

The son of the once mighty Kingston is quite an old toper. He has become so addicted to the beer habit that he now has a paunch such as a policeman would regard with pride. He is fat and thrives under this peculiar method of training, yet he races with a clear head and with speed that might indicate his anticipation of what awaits him after the contest is over.

Robin Hood's victory of yesterday was his fourth consecutive purse of the Jamaica meeting. He must have been anxious to earn his reward as he made all the running and got home two lengths in front of his field.

After the race, and while Robin Hood had his muzzle poked deep within the pall which held his beer, J. P. Mayberry, his owner, told how his horse quit the ranks of the "Young Thoroughbreds' Temperance association." It occurred this way, according to Mayberry:

Robin Hood's rubber was drinking a bottle of beer one day while passing the horse's stall door and the old fellow poked his nose out and fairly pleaded for a swallow. In a spirit of fun the "swipe" placed the bottle to Robin

Hood's mouth and he drank every mouthful of the beer. Another bottle went the same way. Thereafter the horse showed that he was fond of it and as a reward he was handed a bucket of beer every time he won a race.

WIDOW IS PAID $5,000

Great Northern Settles With Mrs. Arne Rossland of Grand Forks for Death of Husband.

Tuesday afternoon the Great Northern claim agents reached a settlement with Mrs. Arne Rossland of Grand Forks whose husband perished in the wreck of the Oriental limited near Bartlett several weeks ago. Mrs. Rossland gets $5,000 by the agreement, and the money has been paid over to her. Though there were no means of positive identification owing to the horrible mutilation of the body, it is practically certain that Rossland was one of the victims as a watch belonging to the dead man was found near the partially consumed body.

COLLECT THE FARES NOW

No More Will Milady Ride to Fargo—"Five Cents, Please," Says the "Con."

"Railroad rate legislation is mean; so there," pertly declared the miss as she forked over her nickel to the conductor for her ride from wet to dry. And maybe it is. Anyhow the officials have given orders that all transients who cross the river on the trains must pay up. A number of young ladies have formed the habit of riding over but it will cost them one fifty for every thirty days if they want their beauty to adorn the Pullmans of the local railroads.

The railroads have done this in order to cut down this free ride habit and in the meanwhile make up for the cent a mile they lose.
