SUMMER SPORTS

FLYNN TOO BIG FOR BILLY PAPKE

Los Angeles, Cal., July 15.—In ten rounds of vicious fighting, Jim Flynn of Pueblo, Colo., bested Billy Papke of Spring Valley, Ill., before the Pacific Athletic club tonight.
Of the ten rounds Flynn had a decided lead in four and four rounds were even. In the other two Papke had the better of it. Flynn had a slight advantage in weight and made good use of it. He rushed Papke throughout the fight and had the Illinois man holding on repeatedly. Flynn's face showed the effects of the contest, his mouth, nose and left eye being badly swollen.
Papke started the fight in whirlwind fashion, having a decided lead in the opening round. In the following rounds Flynn fought back to an even standing and in the closing rounds won a fair advantage.

Hot Games.
Dasey, N. D., July 15.—Dasey outplayed Binford in every department of the game and won by a score of 5 to 2. Dasey and Binford have each lost two games in the branch league, but Dasey having played one more game and have a safe lead for first place. Batteries, Dasey, Fmegan and Lynch; Binford, Sivert and Ringie.

WOULD BE GREAT SCRAP.

Jeff and Johnson Only Pugs for a Big Scrap.
New York, July 14.—The greatest fight in the world today between pugilists of note would be an affair between Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson. Press agents or other people interested in the welfare of the Los Angeles cafe owner sent out stories from Canada to the effect that Jeffries would not enter the ring again. Yesterday, another report, supposed to be from Jeffries, said that he had not made such remarks, and to prove it would post a forfeit to box Johnson as soon as he arrived in New York. This is very sportmanlike on the part of the big fellow and shows at last that he means business.

The fight lovers want to see Jeff against Johnson. No other man in the world is an even money bet against the big black. Ketchel is too small; his fight against Papke sent him away down in the batting average. Al Kaufman, although as big and heavy as Johnson, is not so classy. Outside of Jeffries Kaufman is the next man, but Jeffries is the man we want to see.
It is several months now since Jeffries started to find out how his condition is. He has been working daily since. He should know by this time whether he is able to box or not. No one blames him for refusing to box if he knows that he cannot do justice to himself, but all the time he is on the stage drawing a big salary and the people who pay to see him are expecting him to box Johnson.
If Jeff posts a substantial forfeit and Johnson covers it, then and only then, will we know that the fight is assured. It will be a great fight. Jeff might win in a round as a bunch of people think, and he might go down as Sullivan did before Corbett. The interest in the fight would be intense and the money taken at the gate beyond estimate.
After the fight—let the world turn around again. Come on Jeff, let us know you are here, or are you not?

JOHNSON POSTS MONEY.

Two Heavyweights Will Both Be in Chicago This Week.

Chicago, July 15.—James Jeffries will be here by the end of this week. As Jack Johnson, present heavyweight champion, will be in Chicago at the same time, it is barely possible that a final quietus to the conflicting stories of their prospective—always prospective—fight will be given.
Johnson declared that Jeffries would never fight him, but that as an inducement he would be willing to give the retired champion $2,500 to secure his consent to a meeting.
While this enticing offer had no influence on Jeff, he retracted his own statement that he would never fight Johnson, said it is not true that he is unable to get into condition and that just as soon as his theatrical engagements ended, he would post a forfeit for a bout with the negro.
Just why two weeks of theatrical engagements should make it impossible for Jeff to post a forfeit right away is not clear, but at any rate, he is going to wait until the two weeks are up before he does so.

James O'Leary, owner of Luna Park, announced that Jeffries had consented to appear at his park next week. In a sparring exhibition with his partner, Sam Berger.
Mr. O'Leary declared this afternoon that he had secured Johnson's promise to appear at Luna Park when Jeffries did and that he had received a check for $10,000 from the black man covering a fight between him and the retired champion.

CANTILLON WILL QUIT.

Washington Manager Said to Have Handed in His Resignation.
Cleveland, O., July 15.—The tip came out today that Joe Cantillon will resign his job as manager of the Washington club on Aug. 1. In fact, it is alleged that Tom Noyes, the president of the Washington club, now has Cantillon's resignation in his possession.
It is reported that Cantillon has already recommended "Jiggs" Donahue as his successor. The fact that Cantillon did not get out on the coaching lines the last two games of the Cleveland series, bears out the statement made yesterday by one on the outside that he was practically through now with his management of the senators. The information is that he will nominally act as manager until the club returns home.
Donahue has the ability to make a good manager. He is a star player, popular with the players and full of ginger.

FIGHT FANS ARE SORE.

'Frisco Sporting Public Wan'ed to See Kaufmann-Johnson Bout.
San Francisco, July 15.—Local fight fans who read of Jack Johnson's acceptance of the match, with Al Kaufman, were disgusted when they learned that Billy Delaney had refused to accept the match.
Delaney's ground is that he is tied up with Brady and cannot match Kaufman until he hears from Brady. He thinks Brady has planned for a fight between Tommy Burns and Kaufman in Australia should Burns whip Langford. Delaney said there would be no fight between Kaufman and Johnson in August or September, as this would not give Kaufman time to train.
Manager Hester of the Mission Athletic club says Delaney six weeks ago was eager to match Kaufman and the negro. He said Kaufman would get about $9,000 out of the match, as Delaney had promised him 35 per cent of the gross.

NINE BROTHERS.

Sandusky, O., July 15.—A baseball team quite out of the ordinary in that it is composed of the nine sons of Gustav David, of 118 Sycamore Line, this city, will make its first appearance against the Bogarts team at Bogarts tomorrow afternoon. The players range in age from 16 to 34 years. B. David, the pitcher, until recently did the twirling for the Sandusky team. All of the boys have been identified with various local organizations for several seasons. The father of the boys will accompany the team to Bogarts as mascot.

Unusual Decision.

Baseball players and experts on the technicalities of the national game agree that a decision of Umpire Clarence Owens at Louisville, Ky., Saturday, which gave Louisville the winning run, is unique. Pettis was at bat for Louisville with two on bases and McSurdy, pitcher for Toledo, after a conference with Catcher Land, decided to give Pettis his base. Three wild ones were tossed to Pettis and before the fourth was pitched, Land deliberately stepped "out of line" and received an exceptionally wide throw. Owens promptly called it a balk and signaled Sullivan on third to come in with what proved to be Louisville's winning run. The rule on which Owens based his decision was passed several years ago and is said never to have been called into force before.

Cubs Won in Ninth.

Boston, July 15.—The game was hotly contested up to the ninth inning when Chicago scored five runs, winning easily 8 to 2. Tuckey was given poor support. Score:
R. H. E.
Boston ..... 2 7 6
Chicago ..... 8 10 1
Batteries—More and Graham; Brown and Archer.

Cardinals Grabbed Both.

Philadelphia, July 15.—St. Louis won both games of a double-header from Philadelphia, the first game requiring eleven innings of play and the second being called at the end of the eighth on account of darkness. Scores:
R. H. E.
Philadelphia ..... 4 9 3
St. Louis ..... 6 9 1
Batteries—Covaleski and Doolin; Harmon and Phelps.

Second Game.

Philadelphia ..... 2 9 4
St. Louis ..... 11 10 4
Batteries—Sparks, Foxen, Van Dyke, Brown and Martel; Lush and Bresnahan.

Phillippi's Good Work.

Brooklyn, July 15.—Pittsburgh made it two straight, beating Brooklyn easily. Phillippi did not issue a pass and received perfect support. The fielding behind Rucker was wobbly and his passes were costly. Score:
R. H. E.
Brooklyn ..... 2 9 3
Pittsburgh ..... 7 7 0
Batteries—Rucker, Bergen and Marshall; Phillippi and Gibson.

Giants in the Tenth.

New York, July 15.—New York defeated Cincinnati 5 to 4 in a ten inning game, the locals having to catch up to win. By the sixth inning, owing to the wildness of Spade and timely hitting by Devlin and Bridwell, New York was on even terms with Cincinnati. The visitors broke the tie in the tenth on Downey's triple and Boescher's single and New York won in its half on McCormick's triple and singles by Murray and Devlin, Murray having stolen second before Devlin hit safely. Score:
R. H. E.
New York ..... 5 10 1
Cincinnati ..... 4 7 2

Dick Hyland Is Bill Uren.

Fighter Gets Nom de Plume in Odd Way.
Most of the fight fans know that the real name of Fighting Dick Hyland is William Uren, but likely there are few of them who know just how he came by that name. Fewer still, probably, know that there is a chap in San Francisco about the same age as the boxer whose real name is Dick Hyland.
It came about in the good old days when the boys were fighting in the so-called amateur ranks. In those days the real Dick Hyland and young Willie Uren were chums, having good times around the city when they were not compelled to go to school. Dick Hyland, the chap who owned the name, was the first inducted into the fighting bug. As was required of him Hyland the First took out his amateur card with the Athletic association.
But one fight sufficed for him. The punches that he stopped with his face took all of the ambition away from him. He decided to abandon the ring, but being of an economical mind, carefully tucked his registration card away in a bureau drawer.
And not long after it happened that Willie Uren decided he would make a good fighter. He was shy on cash and good clothes. He was a good boxer and asked his friend, Dick Hyland, for the loan of his amateur card. Dick didn't object in the least.
Uren went to the club that was holding fights and asked for a chance to show what he could do.
"Where's your registration card?" was demanded of him.
He produced the necessary ticket bearing the name of one Dick Hyland,

TURPENTINE ON RISE

Short Production and Prosperity Combine to Make a High Price—Going Higher.

Now that wheat, corn, cotton and potatoes have had their fling and the price of eggs has been up and down the line, there is a bull market in turpentine. That fragrant product of the North Carolina and Louisiana forests, of which Fargo uses hundreds of gallons a month was worth 45 cents a gallon a short time ago and today it is quoted at 58 to 60 for wholesale lots. Nobody has cornered turpentine. The "tar heels" of the south have produced about 25,000 casks less, the local handlers say, than last year, and there is a better demand as prosperity spreads over the country.

Turpentine once sold as high as 85 cents, but that was years ago when the country was booming, every farmer was rich and was painting his house and barn, and there was a great demand for paint.

These are the conditions that are coming again, the turpentine dealers say. The relation between wheat and turpentine is not so hard to figure out. If the crops that are so promising come out all right and the high prices remain, the farmers of Minnesota, and North and South Dakota, and Iowa will make money. They will begin to paint up around the farm. That will mean more paint, and more turpentine, and one Fargo who is a bull on turpentine says that it will go up just like wheat went up.
