SIMPLE ASSAULT CHARGED.

Weiss and Seabury of Lakota Given Heavy Fine for Striking Conductor. Grand Forks, N. D., July 22.—F. W. Seabury and F. F. Weiss of Lakota were brought before Judge Purcell this morning charged with assault on Conductor Barnard. Seabury, it was alleged, struck Barnard with a stone because Barnard had put him off the train near Lakota. The defendants, who are mere youths, and who have heretofore borne a good reputation, were let off easily and the charge against them was changed from assault with a dangerous weapon to simple assault. They agreed to plead guilty and will be fined heavily and assessed the costs which are quite an amount.

Summer School at Wahpeton.

Wahpeton, N. D., July 22.—The fifth session of the combined summer term of the State School of Science and the Teachers' Training school for Richland county, is holding its rank with the successful sessions of preceding years. On July 14 the Rev. Wm. Edwards of Christine addressed the school. His theme was "The Philosophy of Life; Its Relation to Literature." He illustrated the proper attitude of a teacher to her pupils by the Scotch poem, "Fairies Coodle Doodle," as typifying the spirit of the true teacher is drawing about her the affections and sympathies of her pupils. He quoted or read several poems to illustrate the proper attitude toward life and its interpretation, in this way making his address appeal closely and directly to his audience. His excellent gift of language, his wide acquaintance with literature, and his high appreciation of scholarship and the scholar make him an exceptionally strong lecturer upon such a theme and for such an occasion. He has addressed the school each year and this year he ably sustained his excellent record of previous years.

RUST SCARE IS IN THE AIR AGAIN

FARMERS ARE GROWING UNEASY AS THE MUGGY WEATHER CONTINUES—PLENTY OF RAIN.

Deville Lake, N. D., July 22.—The great fear which hangs over the farmers of the northern North Dakota just now is rust. This week the weather has been rust-breeding weather. Once it makes its appearance what is now considered to be one of the finest crop prospects the state has ever had would be greatly damaged in a short time. So far no reports of rust have been received which would create much alarm, but at wet, muggy weather continues the danger increases, and for this reason the farmers are very uneasy just now.

MET A SHOCKING DEATH

Minnesota Resident Killed By Being Run Over By a Team Near Antler.

Antler, Minn., July 22.—A shocking death last night while returning home from this city to the John Nelson farm about ten miles southwest. Mr. Sandstrom is an uncle of Mrs. Nelson and had been spending the summer visiting at the farm. He came to town yesterday afternoon after a load of cement leaving about 8:30 on his return home. He was within two miles of his destination when the accident occurred. The wagon struck a rock lying in the road and in trying to catch a box of groceries that threatened to roll off he lost his balance and fell in front of the wagon alighting on his head, the wheels passing across his chest. Dr. Perrin was immediately called but when he arrived found the man to be beyond all human aid having suffered a concussion of the brain as well as a broken neck and other injuries. The deceased leaves a family in Minnesota who were notified this morning.

INDIAN WEDDING AT BISMARCK.

Graduates of Eastern Schools Are Joined For Life. Bismarck, N. D., July 22.—Married, at the Baptist parsonage, at 8 o'clock last evening, by the Rev. Geo. B. Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. F. Heber to Miss Philomena Badger. Both are Sioux Indians from the Standing Rock reservation, he having graduated from the Carlisle Indian school some time ago, and she just graduating, joined the groom in Bismarck last evening.

RALPH GIBEAU PASSES AWAY.

Well Known Ward County Young Man Succumbs to White Plague. Minot, N. D., July 22.—Ralph Gibeau, well known in Minot and vicinity, died yesterday afternoon at Mohall, where he has made his residence for the past few months, of tuberculosis of the bone. The young man was 26 years of age and had made his home in North Dakota for the past nineteen years, living for some time in Minot where he was widely known for his many good qualities. He was buried at Mohall tomorrow and the services will be largely attended by many of the young man's friends from this locality. The young man resided for some time, while in this city at the Rayne home.

WHAT N. D. CAN GROW

Wonderful Growth Where Grains and Grasses Get the Right Kind of Treatment. Barlow Enterprise: D. C. and J. J. Geizer have been making a collection of grains and grasses in this locality and they have some very fine specimens. Even a resident here would be surprised at the astonishing growth that has been attained where a crop has received the care that should be given it, especially in the preparation of the soil. One field of broom grass which was visited showed grass five feet in height; a specimen of red clover measures two and a half feet, timothy three feet, while the samples of alfalfa and alsike are wonderfully tall and the crop prolific. In the matter of grains, there are fine samples of Blue Stem and Marquand wheat, oats, barley, rye and flax. North Dakota is not second in the production of any of these cereals, and to the prospective settler it offers inducements that cannot be surpassed or even duplicated. Indeed, everything that is grown in the Northern states, including all of the small fruits, or that contributes to the necessity or comfort of mankind, is produced here, and its quality is at the near future, North Dakota will also be a great stock and dairy region; and those who are fortunate enough to establish homes here now shall reap the rich reward which others will wish to be their own possession. It is Dr. C. Geizer's intention when he has his line of samples complete to exhibit them to the people of Indiana and Illinois who are casting wistful glances toward this golden northwest, and to those who decide to come to North Dakota at this time it will prove to be, in fact, the land of opportunity.

BAR COMMITTEE PLANS MEETING

PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY OF STATE ASSOCIATION CONFERS WITH LAWYERS OF MAGIC CITY.

Minot, N. D., July 22.—President F. H. Register of Bismarck and W. H. Thomas of Leeds are in the city today conferring with the local attorneys, regarding the plans for the State Bar association meeting which is to be held in this city on Aug. 11-12-13. The local committee in charge are Attorneys Bosard, Bradford, Paids, Lewis and Greene. According to the present plans the executive session of the bar will meet on Aug. 11 and the regular sessions will be held on the other two days. W. T. Hughes of Chicago will deliver the principle address and there will be discussions on various subjects of interest to the attorneys of the state. A suitable programme of entertainment will be prepared by the local men for their guests.

The McKenzie Creamery.

Bismarck, N. D., July 21.—Billy Watson was in from McKenzie to take the family to the circus. He reports the McKenzie creamery making 6,000 pounds of butter a week. A Jamestown company takes all the product and ships it all over the country. The carload recently shipped from Jamestown to the west was Burlington county butter, though it was advertised as Stutsman county butter because it was billed from Jamestown. The farmers about McKenzie are growing into cows as fast as possible. The Driscoll creamery is now turning out a good quantity every week.

GOOD ROADS AT GLEN ULLIN.

Village Board Will Take Up the Matter. Glen Ullin, N. D., July 22.—Pursuant to resolution of the village board a meeting was held here to discuss the subject of improving the public highways tributary to Glen Ullin, and take such action in the matter as is deemed advisable by those present. This is a subject in which every citizen and especially every business man should be interested. It is a well known fact that the public roads in this vicinity have been woefully neglected while the roads leading into nearby towns have been graded up and put into first class shape. We are losing trade every day on account of the existing road conditions and it is not likely that there will be any improvement until the taxpayers get busy demanding their portion of the road taxes and see to it that the work on the roads is done where it rightfully belongs.

WILLISTON HAS A BAD "DROUGHT"

ALL DRUGGISTS PERMITS HAVE BEEN WITHDRAWN—NO NEW ONES TILL SEPTEMBER.

Williston, N. D., July 22.—Last night was the beginning of a "dry" time in this old town. Every druggist's permit was revoked upon order of Judge Goss, who notified Clerk of Court Brown to state to each druggist in the county that application for new permits under the new law will be heard on Sept. 9. Clerk of Court Brown, in his notification, stated that no druggist should sell liquors for any purpose pending the consideration of the new application for permits. The last legislature passed a new law and provided for a new method of granting druggist's permits to sell intoxicants for medicinal, sacramental and mechanical purposes. The judge of the district court is the one who issues the permit under the new law. All of the druggists here held permits which would not have expired under the old law until next spring, and it was the general view that Judge Goss would take the matter up without delay, but his absence made it necessary to postpone the matter. There was no objection, whatever, to the manner employed by the druggists here in observing the law. The order is general for the county and the entire district will go without intoxicants until a later time.

Erie Correspondence.

Erie, N. D., July 19.—To The Forum: Frank Reiss is building quite a good sized addition to his house. The M. E. Ladies Aid society have had their church repainted and it looks fine. The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church met at Mrs. Louis Schroeders Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Mollins and Mrs. Phil were Fargo visitors the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hill are spending the week in Fargo with Mrs. Hill having her throat treated. Mr. Goodall is having a large silo erected on his farm west of town, which is being watched with much interest by the farmers around here and if it proves to be a success others are contemplating building them too. Mosher & Nutting have been having their farm house painted and other improvements made out there the past week. Robert Grant and sister, Miss Rose attended the ball game between Hatton and Page at Page Wednesday afternoon. Painters are busy this week painting the granary and barn on the F. L. Williams place in town. Tuesday afternoon the stockholders in the farmers elevator had another meeting. Mrs. Ferguson's mother from Chicago is visiting her at present.

MANDAN WGT. CHAMPIONSHIP.

Team From the Slope Carried Off the Gun Tournament Honors. Mandan Pioneer: A message from Jamestown states that the Mandan team won the state championship at the gun club meet of the North Dakota Sportsman's association this week. They captured the prize from Bismark, Fargo, Jamestown and all other teams.

BIRD RESERVE IS NAMED.

Chase Lake in Stutsman County Is Made Bird Reserve. Medina, N. D., July 22.—The Medina Citizen has received a copy of the executive order of President Roosevelt, setting aside Chase Lake, in western Stutsman, as a bird reserve. The order was dated Aug. 28, 1908, and it prohibits the taking or destroying of birds' nests and eggs and killing of any species of native bird for any purpose on the reserve. Secretary Wilson also forwarded the copy of the law protecting birds on game reserves for breeding grounds. The meander lines of Chase Lake in township 141, range 68, show a lake of considerable extent, which has lately been the favorite hunting resort, but with the cultivation of the neighboring soil and from other causes the water has about disappeared.

REMINISCENCES OF EARLY DAYS IN N. D.

O. G. WALL TELLS OF CONDITIONS AS THEY EXISTED IN THE '70'S.

Bismarck, N. D., July 22.—O. G. Wall of Friday Harbor, Wash., formerly a resident of Minnesota and a member of the Fifth Minnesota regiment, is the author of "Recollections of the Sioux Massacre," being a portrayal of the Minnesota massacre of 1862, and the defense of Fort Ridgely. Mr. Wall, in a recent letter to the Tribune, states that he came near being one of the founders of this paper, and has the following interesting reminiscence of early days: "I narrowly escaped being one of the fathers of The Tribune a quarter of a century ago. My old friend, Colonel Lounsbury, was determined I should join him in founding The Tribune, and General Manager Meade of the N. P., at that time, telegraphed me from Brainerd he would be aboard the train on which materials were being transported and on which Colonel Lounsbury was a passenger, and I was urged to join them with my family if possible, and personally if I could not arrange to all go at once—we to join them at Audubon. Colonel Lounsbury also sent a long message, full of all sorts of inducements and pressure; but Bismarck was so lively one of the very hard new towns at that time—a town ruled largely by sports and hard citizens generally, I being the son of the line. My wife, always willing to do anything for the best, urged the sacrifice any woman must make to take up her home amid such conditions, and in deference to her feelings in the matter I met Meade and Lounsbury at the train and tendered them my thanks, with a negative to their kindly solicitations which had been earnestly pressed. A letter before leaving St. Paul, in which he detailed the Tribune outfit to me. "By the way, I rode over the site where Bismarck now stands before the town or the N. P. had been dreamed of. We camped near the mouth of Apple creek (Crazy, Slightly) about Aug. 1, 1863, and scouted up and down the river on the east side for many miles."

How Kennedy Stands

Hillsboro Paper Makes Statement Showing What Towns of State Think of Him. Hillsboro Blade: James Kennedy of Fargo, the present republican committeeman, has been maligned on all sides as a political boss and dictator. As a matter of fact he is one of Fargo's leading citizens, and is probably the largest contractor in the state. He displays the same sterling qualities of successful management in politics that have brought him to the front in a business way. If there is one thing that he takes more pride in than anything else, it is in keeping the letter and spirit of his promises. And—that is more than can be said of some of his critics. Ryder. Ryder, N. D., July 18.—To The Forum: The crops never did look any better in the northwest part of the state than at the present time. There has been all kinds of moisture here. At the present writing labor is getting to be awful scarce, as the Ryder country handles 1,000 men, and if they are not secured the farmers will be stuck handling the crop. There are plenty of machines to handle the crop, so make a holler in the east, as this is as good a country town as they can come to, as the writer traveled over a big part of Canada and North Dakota has them beat on crops, so come to Ryder. Ward county, North Dakota, is laboring men and you will be treated right. Cor. B.

Brunsvold, the assistant cashier in the Christine State bank, visited in this vicinity Sunday. W. Narveson and H. Grinaker came down from Kiros Sunday to take in the ball game and call on friends.
