Last evening the Bachelor and Benedict Dancing club gave one of the prettiest New Year balls of the season at the Knights of Columbus hall, which was beautifully decorated with flags and in the diningroom a color scheme of red was carried out. Fifty couples danced through a splendid programme of figures, led by A. B. Snell. Hostesses of the evening were Mrs. A. B. Snell and Mrs. Frederick H. Bailey, and at the favor tables were Misses Harriet Snell and Elizabeth Bailey and Van Tuyl Smith and Jack Farrand. At 12 o'clock a beautifully appointed dinner was served and the guests celebrated the coming of the new year.

Among the out-of-town guests were Lieutenant and Mrs. Harriet Bismarck, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hughes of Bismarck, Mr. and Mrs. Parker of Lisbon, E. Y. Saries of Hillsboro and Harry Weiser of Hunter.

Farewell entertaining for Gov. and Mrs. John Burke and their families who leave shortly after the new year for a southern trip, has begun in the capital city, and among the first to be honored is the eldest daughter, Miss Elizabeth. A breakfast given for her is chronicled as follows in The Bismarck Tribune: In honor of Miss Elizabeth Burke this morning at a Dutch breakfast. From 10 to 1 a dainty four-course breakfast was served, during which time Mrs. F. B. Leue rendered a couple of German vocal numbers accompanied by being rendered by Miss Carstens. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Cecil Spalding, of Bismarck. After the breakfast had been served whist tables were brought out and that pastime indulged in until 1 o'clock, when the guests departed for their homes. The honors were awarded to Miss Burke.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bland were host and hostess at a party in honor of Mrs. Bland's sister, Mrs. A. Gillman of Sioux Falls, S. D., who has spent the past five weeks at her home. Twenty guests made up the party and a happy time was spent playing cards until midnight, when the old year was ushered out and the new year welcomed. A delicious buffet lunch was served at a convenient time and the Bland home was pretty with holiday decorations. Mrs. Gillman leaves next week for her home in Sioux Falls.

Today is one which will be remembered by the young people of the younger society and college sets as the most enjoyable of the holiday season. Not for a long time has so much interest been taken in any social event and the committee of young women and young men who are in charge are most successful in their efforts to make this the most brilliant of any of the annual holiday functions yet given by the Annus club. A large number of out-of-town guests will be included in the list and although the fact that several of the members of the club are being detained from participating in the annual celebration is most regretted, still those who are here are trying to make up for their absence. The largest number of the guests will arrive this morning and as they can be ascertained the list will be about as follows: From Grand Forks will be the Misses Madeline and Echo Turner, Martha Barnes and Margaret Murphy, who will be chaperoned by Mrs. Frank S. Talcott of Buffalo, N. D. Mrs. Edward Conny who was formerly one of the popular young ladies of the Grand Forks set, has offered her pretty flat on North Broadway for Mrs. Talcott and her bevy of young ladies, as Mrs. Conny is spending the holidays with her parents in that city. The young men from Grand Forks who will be the house guests of Lynn Stambaugh, will be Howard and Wallace Mahan, Philip Bangs, George McCollum, Louis Murphy and Clarence Elkins. The Misses Vaughn and Lorraine Miller and Grace Porter of LaMoore will be the guests of Miss Ina Lowery of Fourth avenue south. Fred Hagen will entertain Jerome Jones of Lisbon, N. D.; Miss Claire Elliott has as her guest, Miss Eva Shea of Wahpeton; Miss Helen Vetter of Moorhead will entertain Miss Frances Leuder of Wahpeton and among the other guests who will be here are Miss Perkins of Wahpeton, Mr. Eldred of Park River, N. D., Miss Helen Barnes of Glen Ulen, and Miss Clara Burman of Casselton; Paul Goodman and Hale Nelson of Grand Forks. The committee in charge of the event are the Misses Margaret Holsted, Mildred and Lucile Bristol, Katherine Wheelock, Zella Jacobson and Alice Lewis, and Homer Disbrow, Melvin Lawrence, Hal Pollock, Jack Farrand and Krohn Herbst. The chaperones will be Mrs. H. E. Magill, Mrs. M. A. Hildreth, Mrs. H. H. Wheelock and Mrs. P. A. Bristol. This afternoon as a preliminary to the ball this evening, Mrs. W. S. Stambaugh will hold open house for her son's house guests and for all of the young people who are here for the event as a sort of get acquainted gathering. The Stambaugh home will be in gala attire for the event and a happy informal afternoon will be enjoyed. The programme for this evening will include a circus cotillion, which Howard Montgomery will lead. This is a new departure from the regular cotillion figures and is anticipated as a fine success in the hands of Mr. Montgomery, who is a most clever leader. The best orchestra in the city has been secured and without a doubt this will be one of the most delightful events given for several years by the members of the Annus club.

MR. AND MRS. WEBSTER

Manager of the Grand and Bride returned yesterday from their honeymoon trip.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Webster returned home yesterday afternoon from their wedding trip. Mr. Webster and Miss Jenny St. George were united in marriage at the home of the bride's brother at Aurora, Ill., Christmas day, and in the presence of members of the families of the high contracting parties, Mr. Webster being attended by his brother Frederick of Chicago. The bride and groom spent a few days in the city of Chicago and then went on to Minneapolis, where they visited friends. On account of Mr. Webster's large theatrical interests in this and other cities, the honeymoon trip had to be cut short. They will make their home at the Gardner for a short time, or until they can secure rooms for housekeeping. Mr. Webster and bride were given a hearty reception by the many friends of the bridegroom upon their arrival here yesterday, and many were the congratulations that were showered on them.

They were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable wedding presents, among which was a beautiful remembrance from the Fargo lodge of Elks, of which Mr. Webster is a member.
