Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berg and son, Walter, jr., will leave tomorrow evening for Tripoli, Ia., and other points to spend the summer with Mr. Berg's relatives. They anticipate a very delightful trip.

Her friends will be pleased to know that Miss Lillian Topping, superintend-ent of the Florence Crittenton home has returned from the hospital at Rochester, where she has been confined for a number of weeks. She has again assumed her duties as far as possible, although she must still use crutches. Miss Topping returned to Fargo Saturday and is recovering as well as can be expected.

A pleasing feature of the nurses' A pleasing feature of the nurses' convention yesterday was the reception for the visiting nurses at the Florence Crittenton home. At 4 o'clock the commercial club furnished automobiles for a ride about the city and at 5 o'clock the nurses were taken to the Crittenton home where they were received by Miss Topping and taken about the new hospital and home. Miss Topping gave a short talk telling of the work of the home and other details interesting the visitors. Tea and wafers were served at the close of a very pleasant hour.
