FARGO TO SEND MANY DELEGATES

GOOD REPRESENTATION WILL GO FROM THE LOCAL COUNCIL TO THE CONVENTION IN MANKATO ON JUNE 11. BASE BALL TEAM TO GO.

The program of the big annual convention in Mankato was published in the Forum yesterday. Mankato is doing everything possible in the way of preparation for the large horde of visitors who will be there for the three big days, and the program contains features novel and interesting. Fargo will send about twenty men, there being about a dozen on Fortin's baseball squad, besides six delegates, and the two grand council officers, W. L. Grasse and B. F. Ashelman. In addition to these twenty or more men, there will be at least as many more who will work their territory so as to be as close to Mankato as possible on the opening day, and they will come in to swell the crowd and add to the fun. And every last man from Fargo council will be boosting twenty-four hours a day for Fargo. The "biggest little city in the world" will get its full share of advertising from the loyal knights who will journey Mankatoward on June 11, 12 and 13.

SONG CAUGHT ON THE WING

The "Everglades" of Florida, fitly named because they are always lush and verdant when the frozen north is silent under a shroud of snow, harbor thousands of feathered songsters. Shut your eyes and you can see the tall, thick-stemmed grasses, the close ranks of rushes, the dense tropical growths. The air is gay with bright-winged insect life and drowsy with the moist heat of the morass. Into the heart of this Florida swamp the wizard, Thomas Edison, has penetrated with his phonograph. Blank records have been concealed there, set to running by a man who, miles away, presses a push button and presto! the marvelous machine has captured the bird songs of the Everglades. When these records are released these bird choirs will be added to the world's store of melody. The camera "stalks" the lion in his jungle and now modern invention brings to us songs caught on the wing.—Exchange.

Resort Season Opens June 10

The people of Detroit want you to spend your summer vacation at their city—the playground of the Minnesota Lake Park region.

AT DETROIT!

In the summer time of life I spent my outing with my wife At Detroit.

Finest lakes and gamey fish. All the sport that one could wish. At Detroit.

And the farmer, he's a dream. Daily brings us eggs and cream At Detroit.

For real life and recreation I will spend my brief vacation At Detroit.

So next June we're going to him. All the children, wife and I. To Detroit.

The progressive business men and others of the beautiful little city of Detroit, Minn., are making preparations for one of the best years in the summer resort business history, the coming season. Last year all enjoyed a prosperous season and 1914 is starting with even greater possibilities. A great white way has been finished lately and with other civic improvements, the city is rightly called the center of the Minnesota lake park region.

Detroit, as nearly as possible is about the center of the continent of North America, and at an elevation of about 1,800 feet above the level of the sea. Becker county is called, Les Hauteurs des Terres, which means the Height of Land, and it is in the Height of Land lake in Becker county that the Red river, one of the few rivers that flow north instead of south, finds its source.

The Park Region of Minnesota sends forth an alluring call for you to spend your summer there with these facts—the finest lakes, parks, drives, hotels and accommodations anywhere to be found.

The official lake season at Detroit will open about June 10. Make arrangements now to visit and stay in the beautiful city to your summer trip. (Editor's note)—This Detroit page will appear three more times. Watch for it, as it will contain useful information.
