SCHOOL DAY WELL ATTENDED

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS LECTURE BY MRS. BODENSTAB IN THE AFTERNOON.

J. M. Hannaford, Second Vice President of Northern Pacific, Was Guest of Superintendent Glibreath Friday. Dickinson Delegation Will Arrive Tomorrow.

Attendance of school children at Industrial Exposition today:
Bismarck ..... 875
Mandan ..... 465
Indian School ..... 65
Country schools ..... 100
Total ..... 1,505

"I did not know there were so many children in the world," exclaimed Col. W. P. Tuttle of Dawson, as he viewed the march of little folks into the exposition building this afternoon.

The number of school children passing through the gate at 2:30 this afternoon had reached about 1,500, and they were still coming.

The public schools of Bismarck marched down like soldiers, ordered by their teachers. They were three squares in length. Next came the parochial schools, followed by the Indian schools. They had hardly got into the building when the train from Mandan arrived with nearly 500 more. And the country schools contributed quite a number. The little people fairly swarmed the big building, filling every nook and corner. After seeing the exhibits they crowded into the auditorium to see the vaudeville. Of course there were lectures preceding the show, but what interested the children was the theatricals. It was a great afternoon for the little people of Bismarck and the surrounding counties, and Superintendent Glibreath was voted the best man on earth. The gentleman is thoughtful for the pleasure of others.

School day at the Industrial Exposition. Superintendent Glibreath, ever ready to accommodate, to educate and to promote the welfare and best interests of the schools and the school officers and teachers set apart Friday afternoon for the entertainment of the educational institutions of Bismarck and the surrounding counties.

This afternoon the teachers came with their classes, looked over the exhibits, listened to a talk from Mrs. Bodenstab of the anti-tuberculosis society, and heard a masterly address by President Frank L. McVey of the State university.

The teachers led their pupils around the big building, explained the exhibits and finally conducted them to the theater.

There is little in lectures to interest the smaller pupils. They did not come to listen to speech-making. What they came for was to see the sights and enjoy the vaudeville, and that was the portion that proved the chief attraction.

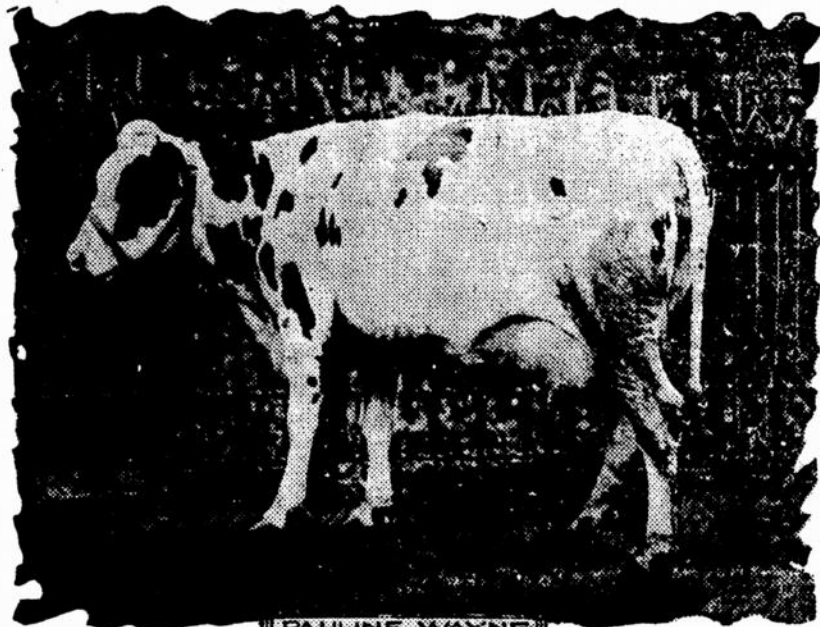

The doors of the exposition were thrown open to the schools of Mandan, Bismarck and the Indian schools. It was a great occasion for the pupils and an enjoyable time for the teachers. The latter seemed to partake of the youthful enthusiasm.

The weather for School day was not propitious. The heavy rain last night made the streets muddy and the weather was threatening, but the turmoil was quite large.

Mr. Hannaford, here. Superintendent Glibreath had for his guest today J. M. Hannaford, second vice president of the Northern Pacific railway. The gentleman arrived at 10:45 this morning and while here met many of the leading citizens. Mr. Hannaford is popular in North Dakota and it was through him that freight concessions were made in transporting exhibits to the exposition. He was very favorably impressed with what he found and declared himself in favor of having the exposition more to improve farming methods and develop the state than anything which could be desired.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Pauline Wayne, the so-called "White House cow," which has been supplying the family of the president with milk, is to emulate the example of the chief executive—that is to say she is going on a tour of the country, not however, to make speeches, but to exhibit herself at state and county fairs. Preparatory to the trip Pauline has been removed to the farm of United States Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, where she is fattening herself for her journey.

GREAT INTEREST TAKEN IN ORDINARY DRY PROCEEDING OF COURT

McNamara Case Is Reopened and Mary Essential Issues May Be Advanced Before Opening Arguments of Legal Battle Are Heard. Great Crowd Is Gathered to Watch Trial.

(By Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 13.—The examination of talesmen was the proceeding scheduled for today before Judge Walter Bortwell in the Superior court in the murder trial of James B. McNamara.

The questioning of talesmen frequently regarded as a dismal proceeding, furnished in this case interest to the spectators and partisans because it was expected to define, in advance of the opening arguments, some of the essential issues of the trial, which is designed to show whether the defendant is responsible for the death of Charles J. Haggerty, who, with twenty others, was killed in the Los Angeles explosion over a year ago.

For these deaths James McNamara is held on indictment, but the state has elected to go on trial on Haggerty's case.

YOUNG TO SERVE FIFTEEN YEARS

FARGO, Oct. 13.—John Young will serve fifteen years in the North Dakota penitentiary for having been implicated in the hold-up of the North Coast limited a few miles out of Fargo the night of July 19.

Yesterday morning Young appeared before Judge Pollock in the district court and State's Attorney Fowler moved that he be arraigned. The court then inquired of Young if he knew of any legal reason why he should not be sentenced. However, Young failed to understand the meaning of the court's term and upon request of the court, Attorney W. W. Murphy, his counsel, explained to him the proceeding. Young stated that he knew of no reason why the sentence should not be passed at that time and the court sentenced him for 15 years in the state prison.

In passing the sentence upon Young the court gave a short talk in which he commended Young for the manner in which he had acted since his arrest. Furthermore the court stated that in passing the sentence that it would bear in mind that the prisoner had caused the state very little trouble or expense.

Sensational Amateur Auto Driver Who Defeated Professionals in Philadelphia Contest

(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—Averaging more than sixty miles an hour for the entire distance, Erwin Bergdoll, a young Philadelphia amateur automobile driver, risked his life and won fame by capturing the fourth annual 202½ mile road race over the Fairmount Park course in a ninety-horse power car. The daring Bergdoll not only lowered the record for the lap, but also reduced by about eleven minutes the Fairmount Park record for the distance of the race. His time was three hours and eight minutes and 41.35 seconds. He reduced the lap from 7 minutes 38 seconds to 7 minutes 28 seconds for the 8.1 miles. The professional drivers in the contest were deeply chagrined at the victory of the amateur.

DEATH STALKS THROUGH CHINESE EMPIRE WITH REVOLUTION RAGING

FATE OF DYNASTY HANGS IN BALANCE

GARRISON AT PEKIN IS HONEY COMBED WITH REVOLUTIONARY SENTIMENT.

City of Hankow Presents Appalling Scenes of Desolation—Many Island Towns Have Fallen Into Hands of Rebels—Revolution Spreads Over Entire Empire.

REPUBLIC DECLARED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Advices were received here today by Chung Sai Yat Po, the Chinese daily world, that the revolutionists in a have declared a republic, electing Li Yang Hung, now lieutenant commander of the imperial army, president.

PEKIN, China, Oct. 13.—China today faces an unprecedented crisis. With the spread of revolutionary activity the opinion is gaining ground that the fate of the ruling dynasty hangs in the balance. The revolution is no longer confined to the central provinces, a thousand miles away from the capital. Peking itself is threatened. Members of the cabinet admitted today that the garrison here is known to be honeycombed with revolutionary sentiment. The same condition exists in the two great military posts which guard Pao Ting Fu and Tien Tsin.

Many Towns Captured. There are official attempts to minimize the gravity of the situation, but reports reaching the capital give little basis for hope. Today's news included reports that Chang King was in danger, that Wu Chang had been taken, Yu Chow had fallen, and that communication between Hankow and Chang Sha, the capital of Hunan province, was interrupted.

Scores of Dead. HANKOW, China, Oct. 13.—Following a night of terror with death stalking through the streets and lurking in every shadow, this city today presented a scene of desolation. All night long incendiary fires burned throughout the native quarters with no effort made to stay the leaping flames which would lick up everything with which they came in contact. Another massacre of Manchu families left scores of dead, and to the horrors of the night all prisons were opened

TRAVELING MEN WILL BE HERE IN LARGE NUMBERS

CLOSING DAY WILL ROUND OUT MAMMOTH SHOW IN FITTING MANNER.

MANY AMUSEMENTS PLANNED

KANGAROO COURT WILL STERNLY ADMINISTER INJUSTICE TO OFFENDERS

Bismarck Drummers Have Been Busy Making Arrangements for Big Time, and Commercial Club and Business Men Plan a Number of Counter Surprises.

ALL TRAVELERS REPORT.

All commercial travelers are requested to report at Traveling men's headquarters, Hotel McKenzie, at 10 a. m. tomorrow, promptly on time.

Tomorrow will mark the close of North Dakota's first big Industrial Exposition and from present indications it will round out in a manner befitting the complete success which has attended from the first day.

Superintendent Glibreath, who with his able assistants, has worked almost day and night for the past four months to win for the big undertaking a favorable name, has succeeded beyond all expectations and he is highly gratified in consequence.

Saturday, the 14th, is Traveling Men's day. This date was set apart for the commercial gentlemen two weeks ago and the Bismarck drummers have been busy.

Every bagman of any note in the state will be here by noon tomorrow to participate in the festivities. The boys will own the big building tomorrow. They will also foreclose their lien on Bismarck and there is going to be something of a lively and entertaining nature all day.

There may not be any published program. The traveling men move by no fixed rules. They reserve the right to revise their schedules to suit their convenience and the exigencies of the occasion. But there is a sort of general understanding, unwritten guide, which will govern the day's proceedings.

The traveling men of Bismarck have something up their sleeve, so to speak. They decline to show their hand for reasons best known to themselves. But anyone who expects to spend a dull day must not expect it in Bismarck. It won't be here.

The local traveling men held their final meeting this forenoon to "perfect plans and check up privileges." The meeting was interesting and promises good results. Two weeks have been consumed in brain-racking study. The traveling man has a fertile brain and an active mind. These elements are necessary to his success in business. And he is a genius. His inventions are valuable as business getters and mirth-provokers, and when it is said that Saturday, October 14, will be a busy day in Bismarck, the terms are well chosen. And he will be here in large numbers. The available rooms in the hotels are all engaged. The traveling man knows how to take care of himself. He reserves his room in a hotel as the first act. Other needs are incidental. At noon today the reservations exhausted the rooms in the hotels, but all who come will be provided for. Traveling salesmen are resourceful. One hundred of them live in Bismarck. Each has an extra room or two, so when the hotel supply runs out there will still be plenty of openings.

There have been whispers of strange doings on the streets tomorrow. It has leaked out that several patrol wagons have been improvised and numerous husky gentlemen will appear on the streets in police uniforms and stern-faced kangaroos will administer injustice from the bench. Of course this is but the first degree and involves but the milder test. There will be others of a very taking nature.

Superintendent Glibreath will arrange some special features for the exposition theater. He is better than a green hand when it comes to putting up a line of catch entertainment. Those who participate in tomorrow's festivities will know they have been somewhere.

Then there will be a parade. The
