PRODUCE THE GOODS!

Henry Ford is 55 years old.

Last year he built and equipped a factory to build 1000 of a new type of war-boat of his own design for the government at $250,000 each.

He has turned over a $25,000,000 automobile factory to his son so he can devote himself to developing a new factory for the manufacture of farm tractors. He expects to make it a greater thing than his automobile business.

The auto factory will run for years on expansion plans prepared by Henry himself.

To fill in his spare time he is founding a weekly newspaper.

"On the side" he is developing a great country estate just outside the village of Dearborn.

Luther Burbank is 69 years old.

What he has done in developing new fruits and flowers and food products is history.

He has just announced development of a new walnut tree which in 22 years will grow 96 feet high with a spread of branches of 64 feet and a girth of 9 feet at 6 feet above the ground, and bear nearly 18,000 nuts a year.

Thomas Alva Edison is 71 years old.

What he has done in a generation is the record of electrical science.

During the war his counsel and inventions helped defeat Germany.

He is still working on great inventions.

There is no age-line of usefulness for real men.

They keep their grip on things. They keep step with Progress.

Years need not be the measure of any man's value, if the man will keep on producing what the world wants and needs.

Never mind how old you are. Remember Edison, Burbank and Ford. Keep on hustling!

THE NEXT GREAT WAR—IT MUST BE AGAINST THE PNEUMONIC PLAGUE

Pneumonic plague, imported from China as a consequence of the world war!

That's the substance of the "Spanish influenza" explanation offered in a New York medical journal by Dr. James J. King of the United States Army Medical Corps.

Three hundred and fifty thousand lives have thus far been lost in the United States since the epidemic reached "an Atlantic Port" in the summer of 1918.

Other explanations than that offered by Dr. King fail to take into account all the facts. The disease is independent of climatic conditions. It has raged in damp Boston, in moist Cleveland and Detroit, in windy Chicago, in dry Arizona, in balmy Los Angeles, in frozen Alaska and in warm Porto Rico with equal fury.

It took the open-air sleeper and the man who seals his windows and covers his head at night.

It hit the riders in crowded street cars and the lonely rider in the luxurious limousine.

Preachers and bartenders fell victims alike.

"There is no known preventive," says Dr. Rupert Blue of the United States public health service.

Dr. King tells us that pneumonic plague first appeared in 1910 in Harbin, Manchuria. It swept North China. It is yet prevalent. "The mortality," he says, "has been fearfully high."

"In 1917," adds Dr. King, "about 200,000 Chinese coolies, collected from the northern part of China, where pneumonic plague has raged at intervals since 1910, were sent to France as laborers."

In March, 1918, some of these Chinese were captured by the Germans. "Spanish influenza" soon appeared in the German army and spread to Spain.

It has gone around the world in less than a year.

Dr. King believes pneumonia and bubonic plague germs mingled in the blood of some obscure Chinese coolie in Harbin and produced a new disease terror.

All great wars of history have been followed by disease epidemics.

The next war must be against this plague!

WHY SHOP EARLY?

Only 12 more days to do your Christmas shopping!

Shop early! But why?

Because of the annoying consequences of late shopping.

Take the matter of sending gifts to friends out of town by mail or parcel post for example:

Late shopping means late mailing. Late mailing means a jam in the postoffice, a congestion in the mail car and in the delivery wagons. Packages bought late and mailed late may arrive days, even weeks after Christmas.

Ask your postmaster what he thinks about this point. He can tell you a lot of illuminating things about the results of late shopping and late mailing of gifts.

Take the matter of gift-selection. Shop late and your choice is always limited by a depleted, pawed-over assortment of gift goods. It is hampered by the weariness of the clerks, by the rush of last-minute buyers and by your own necessity for haste.

Ask any merchant, any clerk for a few remarks on these points. They'll unanimously tell you to shop early, to shop early in the day, and to shop today and get it over and done with.

And that's our best advice to you even if you're thinking of sending us a red necktie!

Shop early! Today!

There is peace on earth and good will to men, but not to Huns.

Every boche leader now admits that all Germans—except his particular faction—were guilty of bringing on the war.

If Munich runs Germany, instead of Berlin, shall we forgive and forget. Ask the Britishers who fought in the trenches. They'll tell you they've reason to hate the Bavarians full as much as the Prussians.

DENMARK'S POSITION

Denmark appears to be a philosopher among nations. She is willing to leave to the vote of the inhabitants of Schleswig the question whether they want to return to the mother country or become a part of the uncertain future Germany. In these days of strident national claims, we can hardly understand the sweet reasonableness of the Danes. Doubtless, they would protest if the Allies were to try to foist Prussian Holstein upon them. They might as well offer Denmark a Central American republic afflicted with a revolutionary colic. But why should they hesitate to claim all of Schleswig down to the Eider-Keil line, all Danish soil since long before Prussia or any other German state existed? The answer is supplied by Mr. Valdemar Galster, of Copenhagen. The Danes have no intention of becoming a party to any policy which might sow the seeds for future wars. They want a plebiscite to keep the record straight. The Danes have never abandoned their peaceful fight for Danish Schleswig. They have built up their best rural schools to the north of the German-Danish boundary line and the students have been principally Schleswigers. Of late years, the rural high school of Askov, just north of the line, has gained an international reputation as a model. Besides proving what everybody knows, that the Danes of Schleswig want to be repatriated, the proposed plebiscite might furnish some interesting data for students of the history of the late German empire. A popular vote would show how far Germany has managed to colonize her stolen province, how loyal these colonists are to Germany, and to what extent they really have been conquered by the subject Danes.—New York Post.

RIGHT HAS TRIUMPHED

Right has triumphed. Autocracy has been slain. Mankind enters a new era, an era in which justice, not force, will reign. We are witnessing the rebirth of freedom for all races.

The overthrow of imperial tyrants must not, however, be followed by efforts to enthrone another type of tyrants heretofore at the other end of the social scale. The world must be on guard against the spirit of Bolshevism. Even in the United States there have been unpleasant symptoms. Certain labor leaders have attempted to gain arbitrary power and to exercise them without due regard for the general weal. The balance must be held even.

Democracy is about to be put on trial. Shall we measure up to our glorious opportunities and our grave responsibilities?

On the United States of America rests a special responsibility. To us the whole new-world-in-the-making looks for leadership, for example, for assistance, for fatherliness, even.

We have become the Big Brother of democracy. We are rich and powerful beyond any other nation on earth. We alone of great nations have the foodstuffs, the implements, the machinery, the merchandise, the money necessary for the rehabilitation of the war-stricken lands and races.

Shall we show unselfishness, magnanimity, brotherliness as well as statesmanship?

Shall our hearts and heads earn lastingly the esteem, the affection in which we are now held?

The task will not be easy. It will call for all our prudence, all our wisdom, all our self-restraint, not less than our generosity.

We must not disappoint the orderly, law-abiding people and nations who compose the backbone of mankind and civilization.—Forbes Magazine.

IT HAPPENED IN BISMARCK

And is happening to Bismarck People Every Week.

Mrs. James Alsbury 911 Sweet St. Bismarck, says: My back bothered me for several years. At times I was so lame and sore, I could hardly bend and when I straightened, sharp pains darted through my kidneys. I often cried out, because of the pain. At night my limbs ached so severely, I couldn't sleep well and I was tired when I got up in the morning. My kidneys didn't act as they should, either. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and got a supply at the Lenhart Drug Co. One box did me more good than anything I had previously taken and four boxes entirely rid me of kidney complaint and restored me to good health.

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Alsbury had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Stanley; Representatives, Frank J. Haines, White Earth; Walter J. Maddock, Plaza.

45.—Part of McHenry: Senator, Ole Ettestad, Balfour; Representative, E. E. Bryans, Volstead.

46.—McLean: Senator, R. L. Fraser, Garrison; Representatives, A. L. Maxwell, Turtle Lake; George M. Robinson, Colchabor; George A. Malone, Wilton.

47.—Gant: Senator, J. I. Cahill, Leith; Representatives, William Kamrath, Leith; J. Ivers, Elgin.

48.—Mercer, Oliver and Dunn: Senator, A. A. Lieberbach, Kittery; Representatives, J. A. Harris, Stanton; E. W. Herbert, Dunn Center; R. H. Waker, Yucca.

49.—Adams, Hettinger and Sloux: Senator, H. P. Jacobson, Mott; Representatives, O. H. Opland, Mott; W. L. Caddell, Solon; H. O. Bratsberg, Reeder.

All legislators not otherwise designated are republicans. The senators in the even-numbered districts are newly elected; those in the odd are hold-overs.

LETTERS FROM "SOMEWHERE" IN FRANCE

FROM PRIVATE G. GULLICKSON.

October 30, 1918.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Frankie.

Dear Friends:
Rec'd your always welcome letter some time ago and was glad to hear that you were all well and liked your new location. I should have written before but we have been so busy lately that I haven't had time for anything, and I guess, Fritz has been still busier. We have got him on the run now and we are going to keep him so until he is all tired out, and can't run any more and I have an idea that time is not so very far away or at least I hope not. It is commencing to look brighter towards going home every day. I am in the hospital again now; have been since the 30th of Sept. old Fritz got me again only he got me with gas this time. My eyes were badly burnt and also a few body burns. I was blind for about eight days, but I am up and around and feeling pretty good again now. I see in the paper they have had another big draft over there, they are sure getting a bunch of them; I guess you had to register this last time too, didn't you? I have been hoping I would run across some of my old Minnesota pals over here, but I haven't seen several of them here but I haven't been lucky enough to meet any of them, the only one I met that I know is Gilbert Remme and I haven't seen him for about two months, but I hope he is alright. We have had real nasty weather over here lately, it has been raining and cold nearly every day, guess the old winter will soon be here again, but I hope I won't have to spend it in the trenches again. Is there any soldiers stationed out at the fort in Bismarck now? Have you been at Kintyre lately? Guess it is pretty dead there now. Well news is mighty scarce so will quit for this time, with my best regards to you all.
With love from
Gus.
