Mexican Petro- All grains 380; on track 379. leum opened at 210, up 4 points and jumped to 214, a new high record, on the next three sales. The Pan American issues also established new peak prices at gains of 2 to 4 points, buyprices at gains of 2 to 4 points, buying being based on reports of a possible increase in the cash dividend and declaration of a stock dividend followed by an offer of exchange for Mexican Petroleum, approximately 75 percent of the stock of which is owned by the Pan-American company. Renewed buying power appeared in the rail group, Louis ville & Nashville establishing a new high on a gain of 1% points. Coppers were unusually active and strong, apparently in response to the favorable semi-annual earnings statement of the American Smelting company. A broader inquiry also was noted for food, public utility and tobacco issues. Railroad shares quieted down for a time but started upward agair in response to a brisk demand for New York Central, which touched 100%, a new high for the year, buy-ing of this stock being attributed to reports of additional financing through a new seven percent issue of preferred stock. Speculative buyers continued to favor the Mexican oils, Mexican Petroleum advancing to 2151/2. National Biscuit and Post-um Cereal were the favorite specialties, establishing a new top price. Call money opened at 5 percent. 1 p. m.: Call money opened at 5 percent.

AT THE MOVIES

"Fools First" the feature at the Eltinge for Wednesday and Thursday is a Marshall Neilan picture. It is based on a Saturday Evening Post story by Hugh McNair Kahler with Richard Dix and Clare Windsor having prominent parts. There is a novelty about Marshall Neilan pictures which lends greatly to their entertainment value. "River's End," "Go and Get It," "Dinty" and "Bob Hampton" remembered as the best in entertainment are Neilan pictures. "Fools First" belongs in the same class of screen drama.

CAPITOL.

Loverts of fast-moving, actionful drama have a real thrill coming to them for the Capitol theater has announced that Wednesday it will show Back to Yellow Jacket,' the newest adaption of a Peter B. Kyne story to reach the screen. In this case the story apeared in the Cosmopolitan Magazine, and its countless thousands of readers are eagerly waiting its coming in every section of the United States.

This is all the more true because the two leading roles are filled by Roy Stewart and Kathleen Kirkham, ing sows up most; range $7.25 @ who have lately been seen in many splendid Arrow releases and whose popularity is firmly distablished. Stories of the type of "Back to Yellow Jacket,"—a story of the great outdoors, wherein is combined a poignant heart-interest as well,-are assuredly coming into their own. And rightly so, for they are infinitely to be desired to the spectacular, sensational and over-sexed dramas which have inundated the screen of Guard work, has been promoted to late.
