GRAIN MARKET DISTURBED BY THE HOLIDAYS

Cash Wheat Continued at Premiums Over December Future—Corn Declined

(By the Associated Press) Minneapolis, Nov. 11.—The grain markets Monday the past week were disturbed by the holiday in Winnipeg Monday and in the American market election and Armistice day, resulting in a lack of interest at the end of the week, according to the weekly review of the United States department of agriculture.

IRREGULARITY PREVAILS ON STOCK CURB

New York, Nov. 11.—Professional speculators were in complete control of this week's stock market, prices in which seasawed up and down with the traders selling stocks on the rallies and repurchasing them on the reactions, awaiting indications of a definite market trend.

NEWS OF WALL STREET (By the Associated Press) New York, Nov. 11.—Resumption of yesterday's heavy selling movement took place at the opening of today's stock market, prices in all sections of the list being depressed 1 to nearly 3 points. The selling was influenced by overnight Washington dispatches indicating the pressing of tax revision proposals in the new congress which would involve an impact on the undisturbed surplus of corporations and would also affect stock dividends. Equipment steel, copper and chemical shares were the hardest hit, Dupont broke 5/8. There were a few exceptions to the downward trend, notably May Department Stores and Remington Typewriter, each of which improved a point.
