November Truly Month of Thanksgiving in State. Says A. C. President

STUDENTS TO WRITE

Themes in Support of Greater North Dakota Movement To Be Undertaken

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 4.—November is to be "Thanksgiving month" in reality for North Dakota this year. Why the true spirit of Thanksgiving should prevail in North Dakota, and especially why students in the state college should be thankful this November 27 is the theme of a letter to be written by the students at the North Dakota Agricultural college in a contest inaugurated by Dr. John Lee Coulter, president of the institution.

The best letter is to be published in the Spectrum, college paper, and sent to all the universities and colleges of the country with the Thanksgiving greetings of the students of the North Dakota college. The author of the prize-winning letter will receive an award of $10. For second place $7.50 is to be given, for third place, $5 and for fourth place $2.50. All letters are to be judged by a committee of three, consisting of two faculty members and one student. Letters must not exceed 500 words and will contain a Thanksgiving greeting to all other schools of higher learning in the United States and must also state briefly some of the reasons why North Dakota residents can be thankful in 1924.

Supporting Movement

"The college students and faculty members want to do their part in supporting the movement for a Greater North Dakota, in letting other states and colleges know some of the many good things that we have in this state," said Dr. Coulter in his message to the students. "There are many real reasons why we at the college should be thankful this year and this month is the logical time to express that thankfulness."

"Just as the Eagle is recognized as the great symbol of American liberty in July so the turkey is recognized as the great symbol of American prosperity and thanksgiving in November. We like to live in peace under the wings of the one, but we also like to get a piece from under the wings of the other."

"Let's truly recognize November as 'Thanksgiving month' for North Dakota this year. While we must not boast or brag about ourselves, our state, our institution, yet we may not in a perfectly proper, modest way send Thanksgiving greetings to the students of all of the other colleges of America."

Thousands of students in colleges presently will graduate; they will be looking for the greatest opportunity to carry on their life's work. While they may not have large wealth they will have training and education and possibly they may be able to secure the financial support of parents or friends.

"In sending these greetings from North Dakota might we not tell something of the reasons why we in North Dakota are thankful, not only for the bountiful harvest and very satisfactory crops of everything which we have to sell, but for the wonderful soil and coal and clay, for the other natural resources, for the sunshine and rainfall and temperate climate, which is so wonderfully health giving and invigorating?"

"May we not also tell something of our college and of the opportunities for education which North Dakota affords, as well as other blessings which are ours?"

Tell of Opportunities

"The business men of North Dakota during November will be telling the business men of other states about our opportunities; professional men will be telling those of other states; our farmers will be telling the farmers elsewhere about the remarkable agricultural resources; and our various commercial organizations will be telling of the wonders of great deposits of clay and coal."

"They will be pointing to the day when this state will see tremendous power plants at the entrance to our coal mines, producing power for industry and sending heat, light and power to every corner of the state in the form of electric energy."

"Our student body will wish to participate in this movement and as a body tell the students of all parts of the United States of the great opportunities in North Dakota at the same time that we send Thanksgiving greetings."

"It is with this in mind that I propose that we recognize November as 'Thanksgiving month' in North Dakota which has in mind to tell the truth about our state."

Many Veterans Rehabilitated At State A. C.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 4.—But 12 wounded veterans of the World War, out of a total of 294 who have been enrolled since the program started in 1914, are now enrolled at the North Dakota Agricultural college under the Rehabilitation Training plan fostered by the government and directed by the Veterans Bureau, records at the registrar's office show.

"Three or four years ago this group was an influential one on campus, taking part in all school activities and with an independent organization of its own," the registrar, A. H. Parrott, says.

Freeman, education senior; Ralph Hanson, architecture senior; Roy W. Harding, agricultural sophomore; Rae Knoeshaw, architecture sophomore; Theo. Martell, agriculture junior; Thomas J. ## MORE VICTIMS OF WRECK GO FROM HOSPITAL

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 4.—Six more persons who were injured in the wreck of Great Northern train No. 4 when six coaches were derailed near Gardiner Saturday afternoon and who were taken to St. John's hospital in Fargo for treatment, were discharged from the hospital yesterday afternoon. Of the 42 persons who were treated Saturday night, only 12 remain in the hospital.

Of the 12 in the hospital Mrs. Harry Leake of Emerson, N. D., and Chris Nelson of St. Paul are the more seriously injured. Mrs. Leake had several ribs broken and Mr. Nelson is suffering from contusions of the brain.

Those discharged from the hospital yesterday were: Robert Bartlett, Medford, Wis.; Oscar Donaldson, 1179 West Fourteenth St., Des Moines; James O'Keefe, 1278 Lincoln St., St. Paul; Harold Lowe, 704 Alpha Ave., Grand Forks; Toni Smith, Solway, Minn.; W. F. Warren, Excelsior, Minn.

Miss Daisy Baker of Williston, Minn., who was en route to Rochester, Minn., to undergo an operation, was taken to Rochester last evening. Miss Baker suffered a severe leg injury in the wreck.

The wreckage was cleared away early Sunday and trains that day were run over the repaired tracks. No official report has as yet been issued by the road relative to the cause of the accident.

PROF. SHEPPERD WILL TRAVEL IN EUROPE

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 4.—Professor J. H. Shepperd, chairman of the animal husbandry department of the North Dakota Agricultural college, began Saturday his first leave of absence from the college in an educational career that has been continuous at the one institution for more than 30 years. Prof. Shepperd has been granted a year's leave of absence commencing November 1, 1924 and continuing until November 1, 1925. During this year of absence

There are a lot of Germans who are sick of war. Just look at this picture. It shows a peace conference in session in Berlin. The meeting was called the 23d World Peace Congress. Representatives from several European nations were present. Senator Ferdinand Buisson of France is seen here addressing the delegates. Other speakers the same day were Professor Quiddo, German pacifist; Senator Henry La Fontaine, France, and Fridtjof Nansen, Norwegian polar explorer, educator and diplomat.

CAPITAL MAY BECOME CITY OF TENTS IN RENT WAR

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

Washington, Nov. 4.—Washington, "The City Beautiful," may once again become a tented city unless a truce is reached between the capital's landlords and tenants.

More than 2000 notices of eviction, effective Nov. 1, have been served by landlords on tenants who have refused to meet rent increases which went into effect Oct. 1. This threatened wholesale eviction is the culmination of a warfare between renters and rentees that began with our entry into the World War. Congress, however, put the brakes on sky-rocketing rentals at that time by declaring a housing emergency and providing a rent commission for the District of Columbia with power to regulate rentals.

This commission, under fire by District landlords, has been continued from year to year by Congress. But recent court decisions adverse to the local rent act and the powers of the commission have given the property owners courage and the flood of dispossession notices is their declaration of war.

That it may be an intense and dramatic battle is indicated by the rallying of threatened renters into a "Tenants' League" sworn to resist the demands of their landlords to the limit.

Preparatory to the "zero hour" for battle this organization has applied for permission to erect tents in the eclipse, a large open park space immediately south of the White House, for the housing of members who suddenly find themselves and their possessions in the streets.

These grounds were thrown open, a year ago, for tents to house thousands of visiting Shriners during the national Shrine convention. Secretary of War Weeks, however, says permission for such use by Shriners was specifically granted by Congress, and that lacking congressional ment and history of that breed on the government farms.

Mr. Shepperd has been appointed collaborator for the U. S. department of agriculture to spend a month or so in Denmark studying the breeding and management of the special type of bacon hog from which that country supplies a superior quality of bacon for the London market.

The Shepperds will spend the first part of their trip on a Mediterranean cruise visiting Gibraltar, Tripoli, Egypt, Greece and Italy.

"We will leave the company at Naples," said Mr. Shepperd, "and visit Venice, Rome and other interesting places, including perhaps a trip up to Switzerland, returning to Naples about the middle of February."

GOLD IS WHERE YOU FIND IT

Christchurch, New Zealand, Nov. 4.—A large gold bearing reef at the foot of Mount Tarawera was discovered in a peculiar manner. It seems some hunters shot a wild pig whose body, in falling, dislodged a piece of stone at the edge of a river. Thus was revealed the glitter of gold, and the hunters rapidly uncovered a deposit. Further investigation disclosed the reef.

Proclamation

GOLDEN RULE SUNDAY

WHEREAS, Sunday, December the seventh, 1924, has been designated as the date for an international relief effort, to be known as Golden Rule Sunday, by the representatives of twenty nations, including the United States, who recently met in Geneva, Switzerland, in an international conference to determine the best manner in which the people of the different countries represented could assist in alleviating the distress and suffering of the tens of thousands of practically denationalized orphans of the Near East—victims of the late World War and who are, in a peculiar sense, international wards, and WHEREAS, out of their deliberations of the above subject matter and relief plans in connection therewith, there evolved an additional and EVEN MORE important objective, the development of Golden Rule principles in both the personal and national life of the co-operating countries, as a contribution toward international good will, co-operation and permanent world peace, and WHEREAS, President Coolidge, Chief Executive of the United States, has commended this great humanitarian effort in the following language:

"I believe that the international observance of this day may not only save lives of thousands of destitute, but may possibly have an even greater benefit in the way of reflex influence upon those who thus observe the Golden Rule and help to establish it as a reality in daily living."

The international observance of this day might well contribute materially to the betterment of international relations and abiding world peace."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, R. A. Nestos Governor of the state of North Dakota, believing that the people of this state are in sympathy with these high ideals, most sincerely request that

SUNDAY, December 7, 1924 be observed throughout the state as GOLDEN RULE SUNDAY and in addition that the week period preceding or succeeding this date be utilized, if it be found convenient, as our opportunity for personal stocktaking; that we may thus determine whether or not we are adhering to the universally accepted and age-old standard of life, "WHATSOEVER YE WOULD THAT OTHERS SHOULD DO UNTO YOU, DO YE EVEN SO UNTO THEM;" upon which great principle our nation and state were originally built and transmitted to us by our forefathers, and

FURTHER, to the end that the whole purpose of this Golden Rule Day arrangement may be carried to every citizen of the state, that all may be advised of the date agreed upon, and opportunity provided for every citizen to engage in its observance, I respectfully designate, and at the same time charge, the state officers of the Near East Relief organization, together with the co-operating members of the Golden Rule Day State Committee whom I will later name, with the responsibility of perfecting a plan and an organization in each county of the state that will enable each individual citizen and religious, educational, social, civic, or fraternal group who desire to participate, an opportunity to do so.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of North Dakota. Done at Bismarck.

R. A. NESTOS, Governor.

MRS. LUCY WELLS ONLY SHERIFF IN ENGLAND

Canterbury, England, Nov. 4.—This ancient cathedral city has just received a custom of medieval times by conferring the office of sheriff upon a woman. Incidentally the recipient of the honor, Mrs. Lucy Green Wells, the wife of a local tailor, has the distinction of being the only woman in England to hold such an office.

"Nowadays the under-sheriff is responsible for most of the actual work in connection with the office, but there are still certain functions I perform. If a Canterbury man had to be hanged, for instance, I believe I should have to sign the document certifying that the execution had been properly carried out."

There were women sheriffs aplenty in the middle ages, and in those days they had to shoulder heavy fiscal, military and administrative burdens. One of the first notable women of the middle ages to hold the office was Ellen, Countess of Salisbury, who was sheriff of Wiltshire until she embraced religion and retired to the Abbey of Lacock.

ISLANDERS ARE HAPPY

London, Nov. 4.—Hayling Island is about the only place in England where there is no unemployment.

The island, in the Southampton area, has a prosperous population of about 3,000 and at present no one there is receiving a penny from the national unemployment fund. The men and women of the island are all busy in the fields, in the fishing grounds and the shops.

The mackerel season, which is just over, has been the best in years and the harvest, unlike the rest of England, is bountiful. There are plenty of visitors on the island and the inhabitants are in a state of financial exuberance.

The islanders also differ from their mainland compatriots in that they would rather live in the country than in the town. Last year the population of one of the two towns on the island dropped from 800 to 500 because the price of farm products went up.

ARGENTINE BREEDING POLO PONIES

Buenos Aires, Nov. 4.—The Argentine polo ponies which contributed so much to the victory of the Argentine four in the Olympic polo championship, are the product of four or five generations of crossing "criollo," or native, ponies with small sized English thoroughbreds. They are considered to combine the qualities of endurance and cleverness of the native horse with the speed of the English product.

Since the tour of Argentine polo players to England and the United States in 1923, when the players sold the mounts at a very large profit, the breeding of polo ponies has almost become an industry in Argentina. For a number of years polo ponies have been produced here on four or five ranches, and have had a sale in Europe, mostly in England. The King of Spain has been one good buyer of them.

Now, with the additional prestige gained by the Argentine product at the Olympics, other ranches are devoting themselves to breeding. Sires and mothers accustomed to the large rodeos of the Argentine pampas are selected, for they are not afraid of being ridden down, especially if they have been used in parting cattle.
