St. Paul, Oct. 15.-(P)-Opium valued by federal narcotic agents at $5,600 was seized in a raid on a Chinese grocery store yesterday. Harry Wong, proprietor of the Wong Yuen Lee Kee company, general Chinese groceries, was arrested and six Chinese found in bunks in a room fitted up as an opium smoking den, were dispersed but not arrested. Lamps, pipes, and other paraphernalia were confiscated. The opium, was shipped here from the west coast, secreted in Brussels Sprouts, and traced to Wong's place. He was released by United States Commissioner W. T. Goddard on $5,000 bail and a preliminary hearing was set for Oct. 28. Wong was charged with violating the Miller-Jones act which prohibits comm in contraband merchandise.

Prohibitionists to Ask Newspaper Men Where They Stand on Liquor Question

Washington, Oct. 15 .- (A)-Whether the newspapers of the country as a whole are predominantly wet, dry or neutral on the subject of national prohibition, is to be learned by the prohibition bureau.

Three thousand newspapers have een sent questionnaires prepared by the division of research and public information of the bureau. Along with the forms went a letter informing the show managers in Bismarck not later editors the prohibition bureau withed than October 21.

later in the form of a monograph analyzing the replies received. This publication is planned as one of a series, for the issuance of which the bureau will draw upon a $50,000 appropriation which congress made for conducting an educational campaign in favor of the dry laws. Some other educational campaign plans, proposed before the transfer of the prohobi tion unit from the treasury to the On St. Paul Chinese department of justice, met with opposition and did not get far. Tanlac Relieved Her Then and Has Kept Her Well Ever Since

What she said in 1923 What she said in 1923
On December 5, 1923, Mrs. Margaret Wolfrum, respected druggist's widow, of 285 Pleasant Avenue, St.
Paul, Minn., wrote us:
For 10 years severe stomach trouble had me
in a condition bordering on the desperate.
The gases and dizzy spells were almost unbearable. Violent headaches kept meawake nights.
In my husband's pharmacy were all kinds of medicines but none helped. Finally he brought home Tanlac and for the first time I got relief.
Now I est everything, my awful feedaches have gone and I sleep and I'll ever be gusteful to Tanlac.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 15 .- (A)-Questions inspired by a remark of his the studio part of sight broadcasting granddaughter, police said today, had brought confession from Mike Abena, special studio where artists can go before the television camera and his son-in-law, Frank Domino. The killing was discovered last Thursday. Neighbors said Mrs. Domino and her two children, a babe in arms and five-year-old Maric, had the granting of a license by the radio fled. The woman surrendered the next day and said she had shot her husband to death because he had left her for another woman. Abena verified his daughter's statements but at the funeral of Domino, Marie was said to have remarked, that she "saw mother give grandpa the gun." Police today were seeking the gun used in the killing.
