Mrs. Kasper Heads Presidents' Parley

The Past Presidents' Parley of the Mandan American Legion Auxiliary elected officers Thursday evening at a meeting of the organization at the home of Mrs. H. M. Leonard, 719 Mandan street, Bismarck.

Mrs. J. A. Kasper was named president and Mrs. H. K. Jensen, secretary-treasurer.

The meeting was preceded by a housewarming party for Mrs. Leonard, who recently moved from Mandan to her new home here, and the affair was arranged as a surprise. A part of the evening was spent at cards.

The Parley is composed of past presidents of the Mandan Auxiliary unit.

Committees Named For Junior Prom

Six young people from the Slope territory will serve on committees in preparation for the annual Junior prom at the University of North Dakota, February 26, according to Lafe Ludwig, Grand Forks, prom manager, who has just named his committees. They are John Birdzell, son of Justice and Mrs. L. E. Birdzell, Bismarck; Amy Brooks, Hazen; Lina Hutton, Bismarck; Barbara Peterson, Bismarck; Francis Walsh and Dwight Cheatham, Makoti.

Hamilton Simons has been named floor manager. Heading the decorations committee are Lois Kelleys, Bismarck; Ernest Peterson, Bismarck; Minn.; and Marian Severson, Grand Forks. Assisting them will be Misses Brooks, Hutton and Beuchler and Mr. Cheatham, Donald Simons, and Floyd Bergquist, Grand Forks; and George Antmon, Valley City.

In charge of ticket sales are Duane Traynor, Devils Lake, and Manuel Weiler, Waterton, S. D. Raymond Herriges, Grand Forks, and Donald McCarthy, Minneapolis, are handling publicity, while invitations will be in charge of Hannah Eielson, Hatton; Lillian Christianson, Rolette; and Ethel Schlasinger, Streeter.

Glenns Everson, Grafton, and John Birdzell are in charge of publicity, with Sylvia Steele, East Grand Forks, Minn., and Harry Wisheart, Fargo, preparing features.

Warren Westberg, St. Paul, Minn., Francis Walsh, Makoti, and Allen Eynon, Gardner, will arrange lighting effects. Laura Christianson, Benson, Minn., and Everett Palmer, Grand Forks, head the refreshment committee.

Mrs. Karl Kostitzky, 723 Eleventh street, entertained Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the first of a series of bridge dinners she will give. Sixteen guests were bidden for each party. Appointments were in blue and white, with ivory tapers in blue holders centering the table. Honors in the card games Wednesday evening were held by Mrs. F. E. McCurdy and Mrs. W. S. Rohrer while Thursday evening Mrs. E. A. Kaiser and Mrs. Hilda Joslin were high score winners.

Continuing their studies of subjects related to the same, members of the Sakakawea Junior Girls club listened to three instructive papers at their meeting Thursday evening in the Indian school auditorium. Papers on how the world is clothed, how it is housed and how fed were read by Marian Slater, Cecelia Warren and Louise Goudreau, respectively. The club, which now numbers 37 active and two associate members, has the largest membership of any club in the state.

Leaders of Bismarck Girl Scout troops held a buffet supper party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. A. M. Christianson, 1005 Fifth street. Serving was in charge of a group of troop lieutenants, including Misses Alden Paris, Ruth Wetmore, Ila Bigler and Mary Cave. A part of the evening was spent in discussing Scout activities and later Charles Leissman, deputy secretary of state, conducted a study of stars in various constellations.

Twelve tables were in play at the card party held Thursday evening at the Odd Fellows hall under the auspices of the local Yeomen lodge. Score honors for the evening were held by Mrs. Charles Johnson, Grant Marsh and Mrs. John Erickson. The committee in charge included Mrs. J. B. Belk, Mrs. L. F. Bechtold, Miss Catherine McDonald, Mrs. H. H. Pilmor and Mrs. Ed Schleicher.

Mrs. James W. Guthrie, 902 Fourth street, entertained members of St. Anthony's Missionary group Thursday evening at a card party at her home. There were guests for five tables of bridge, and later Charles McLaughlin and Mrs. J. E. Lacey held honors in the games.

O. W. Roberts, head of the Bismarck weather bureau, will leave Friday evening for Los Angeles, Calif., to spend about three weeks. He will join Mrs. Roberts who has been in California since early fall and will visit their sons, Warder and Franklin Roberts.

Mrs. Walter Renden was hostess at an informal afternoon bridge party Thursday at her home, 504 Avenue E. Guests for two tables of bridge were invited and honors in the games were awarded Mrs. G. A. Renden, Mandan.

First Lutheran Church Holds Annual Election

Officers of the First Lutheran church for the year were named at the annual congregational meeting held this week at the church.

H. A. Magnuson was elected secretary; H. A. Swenson, assistant; Harry Malm, deacon; Edward Nelson, trustee, and C. O. Larson superintendent of the Sunday school.

Organists named were Misses Lucile Malmquist and Odessa Nelson and ushers were Raymond Barth and Harold Carlson, both re-elected. J. J. Barth and H. A. Swenson were elected as delegates to the Minnesota conference and will also act as delegates to the annual Bismarck district convention to be held here Jan. 23 and 24. Members of the committee of introduction were Mrs. John Olson, Mrs. C. W. Porter, J. J. Barth and A. S. Sjoberg.

Thirty-six new members were taken into church membership and the Luther League added the names of 25 new members. Reports presented by various church officers indicated a prosperous year for the church and the church treasurer reported a reduction of $1,000 on the church debt of $2,000. All conference and synodical dues were paid, he reported.

The meeting closed with a brief talk by Rev. Emil Benson, pastor, who expressed his appreciation to church organizations and members for their splendid work and cooperation throughout the year.

Complimentary to Mrs. R. G. Wilde, 322 Hanafin street, who is leaving with Mr. Wilde and their family to make their home in Grand Forks, members of the Entre Nous club entertained Thursday evening at a dinner at the Patterson hotel Terrace Garden. Tea roses and yellow tapers in black holders were used in the table decorations and other appointments carried out the black and yellow motif. Following the dinner the guests went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Orchard, 720 Third street, for bridge. Honors in the games were held by Mrs. Maude Wilkinson, Mandan.

Roses in a green crystal bowl and pink tapers in green holders were used in the table decorations for the dinner party given Thursday evening by Mrs. Philip Blank, New Salem, in the Patterson hotel Terrace Garden. Guests were a group of 12 Bismarck girls who are members of Mrs. Blank's bridge club. Appointments carried out a pink and green color note and favors were rosebuds. Bridge was played after dinner and honors were held by Mrs. Blank and Miss Gladys Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bryant left Friday for their home at Napoleon after a brief visit here with Mr. Bryant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Bryant, 305 E. 10th street. Mr. Bryant has been visiting relatives at Hancock, Minn., for the last month and Mr. Bryant joined her in Fargo.

J. P. McDonald and John P. Jordan, both connected with the Interstate Bank of Billings county at Sentinel Butte, were visitors of Joseph A. Kitchen, secretary of agriculture and labor, Thursday.

PARAMOUNT THEATRE
James Oliver Curwood, whose novel "River's End" has been adapted to the talking screen by Warner Bros., is the feature attraction which will open tomorrow at the Paramount theatre.

Curwood was long acknowledged as the most brilliant chronicler of life in the Canadian northwest. He knew and loved the people and institutions of this raw young country as few others did, and since his death no other author has been able to recreate so vividly the spirit of the icy frontier.

"River's End" is generally considered Curwood's most dramatic story. Into it he has woven a golden romance and there is a stirring plot of danger, daring and suspense against a background of natural beauty which cannot be surpassed in any other part of the world.

Charles Bickford, noted portrayer of men, plays a dual role. Evelyn Knapp, J. Farrell MacDonald, David Torrence, Junior Coghlan, Zasu Pitts, Walter McGrath and Tom Santschi are members of the impressive cast.

The story of the man who could not prove himself a gentleman without proving himself a murderer, and who could only clear himself of murder by letting the world think him a cad, makes an extremely powerful screen play. Charles Kenyon did the scenario. Michael Curtiz directed.

55 to Join Elks at Friday Night Meeting

Approximately 55 candidates will be initiated into the Elks lodge at a meeting tonight, A. W. Mellen, exalted ruler, said Friday. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock.

Three boxing bouts of three rounds each will follow the initiation. The rounds will last three minutes each. This entertainment will be followed by a luncheon. Visiting Elks are invited.

Members of the lodge, their wives and sweethearts, will hold a dance at the lodge hall Saturday night. Visiting Elks are invited to attend this event also. There will be no charge for the dance, Mellen said.

Pair Charged With Driving While Drunk

James Davis and D. M. Neal, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, were released on their own recognizance after they had promised Police Magistrate E. S. Allen that they would appear for trial Monday afternoon.

Both are farmers, Davis living six miles east of Bismarck and Neal north of Mandan.

The men were arrested in an alleged intoxicated condition Thursday night according to local police, and lodged in the county jail.

Both men signified their intention of retaining an attorney.

PIONEER WOMAN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. John Runge, Resident of Bismarck for 48 Years, Dies as a Result of Injuries

Mrs. John Runge, a resident of Bismarck since 1883, died here early Friday morning from complications resulting from injuries sustained in a fall at her home last May.

Born at Bird Island, Minn., she came to Bismarck as a girl with her mother, Johanna Brady, and has lived here continuously since that time. In her early days she was associated with her mother in the millinery business.

In 1927 she was married to John Runge, Bismarck baker, and took up her residence with him at 211 Second St.

Mrs. Runge leaves her husband and one sister, Mrs. Nellie Parker, of Grand Forks.

The body will lie in state at the Runge home on Second St. Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

Funeral services will be conducted from St. Mary's pro-cathedral, Monday at 8 a. m., Rev. Father John Sig officiating.

Former Bismarck Man Dies at Casselton

Word of the death of Charles H. White, a resident of Bismarck for many years, was received Friday by Robert White, a son of the deceased. The body is being sent to Bismarck for burial.

Mr. White died at Casselton Wednesday night but no details could be obtained Friday.

White has a number of relatives residing in Bismarck, where he formerly was engaged in the livery stable business.

Minneapolis Woman Speaks at Meeting

Lack of character training during the formative years of a child's life was offered as the reason why so many young people are failures in the business world and the home, in an address given here Friday-afternoon by Mrs. Agnes Boyesen, principal of the Lyndale school, Minneapolis.

Mrs. Boyesen spoke at the closing session of the mid-winter meeting of county superintendents, and the audience also included Bismarck teachers and club women as well as others interested in educational work.

A new Recipe

Creamette Noodles With Frankfurters

1 pkg. Creamette Egg Noodles
5 frankfurters
4 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups canned tomatoes
1 cup prepared mustard
2 slices minced parsley

1/2 teaspoon salt
1 medium onion (sliced)
1 stalk celery (chopped)

Boil the Creamette Egg Noodles according to directions on the package. Drain the frankfurters, then cook, stirring constantly until the onion and frankfurters are browned. Remove the frankfurters. Discard the browned onion and add to the shortening. Melt the shortening and add the tomatoes, celery, salt, pepper and mustard. Cook 10 minutes. Arrange the noodles on a hot platter and pour the sauce over them. In the center place frankfurters, garnished with parsley. Clip this advertisement and paste in your cook book.
