

DELEGATES REPORT ON LIONS MEETING

Bismarck Representatives Tell of District Meeting of Clubs at Huron, S. D.

Reports on the recent fifth district convention held at Huron, S. D., were made by delegates from the Bismarck club at the luncheon meeting of Lions Monday.

Speakers included Overt Olson, Dr. C. D. Durema, J. F. Spies, W. E. Powell and President D. E. Shipley. All said the meeting had proved an inspiration to them and was clear proof of the vitality and progressive spirit of Lions club in this area, which comprises the Dakotas, Minnesota, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Particular attention was given to the efforts of the Bismarck delegates to have North Dakota declared a separate district and confidence was expressed that it is only a matter of time until this will be accomplished since the need of the organization is for a closer relationship and coordination of the clubs in each state.

J. S. Fevold, president of the new Cosmopolitan club, extended greetings from his organization and said the Cosmopolitans hope to take their places, shoulder to shoulder, with the older clubs which already are active here.

Linton Auxiliary Is Sponsoring Picnic

Linton, N. D., June 15.—Members of the Linton American Legion Auxiliary unit are sponsoring a community picnic to be held here June 23. An Old-Time Fiddlers' contest and sample sale will be features of the event.

Manufacturers and jobbers have been asked to donate samples of their wares which will be sold at the picnic. In return, the women propose to advertise the article by distributing literature and by means of the sale.

Restaurant Men Prove Gullible

Local restaurant men have been forced to admit that Abbot Foster, 22-year-old Philadelphia youth, certainly is not deaf and most assuredly not dumb.

By dint of convincing pantomime and a thorough knowledge of the manual sign language, Foster convinced several restaurant proprietors that he was a penniless deaf mute. Thoroughly taken in by the deception, and moved by a sense of charity, they have been providing the alleged unfortunate with meals for the last three or four days.

Imagine their chagrin when Foster was hailed into police court where he pleaded guilty to fraud in a clear ringing voice.

The gullible ones were inclined to be philosophical about the affair.

"Oh well, we live and learn," one of them said.

Registration of delegates occupied Monday morning's session. An election of officers will be held Tuesday afternoon following reports by the officers and an address by Mr. Keller and others.

Lake Metigoshe and the Turtle mountains will provide much of the entertainment for the convention. O. R. Finstad, Bottineau county register of deeds, has arranged for a fishing trip for the members.

Montana Resident Criticizes North Dakota's Road Marking

Donald Kopriva, a storekeeper of Hardin, Mont., doesn't think much of the way in which North Dakota marks its roads.

He was heading eastward early Monday morning when his car went into the ditch at a turn just east of Sterling and burned up. He managed to extricate his wife and four children from the car before any of them were injured but said it was a close call.

Kopriva contends that poor road marking caused his accident. Route No. 10 makes a sharp turn to the left just east of Sterling, he said, whereas another road continues straight east. The only marker is a small sign reading "No. 10, L," he said, and contended that it isn't large enough or conspicuous enough to catch the eye of a driver. He also expressed the view that the sign is too close to the turn and that it should be in yellow, the standard warning color. His observations, he told The Tribune, were made in charge of arrangements and Mr. Victor Boe, Finley, of registrations.

Government Issues Census of Drainage

North Dakota has 1,058,123 acres of land involved in drainage enterprises, according to data compiled during the 1930 census. Only 13 other states have more than a million acres listed in this classification, Minnesota leading the list with 11,357,893 acres. Capital invested in North Dakota drainage projects is $3,148,819 while Minnesota has $63,517,687 invested.

Most of the North Dakota drainage projects are shown to be in the Red River Valley.

FIRST OF CAPONE MEN SURRENDERS

John Heinan Posts Bail; 'Big Boy' to Plead Not Guilty, Attorney Says

Chicago, June 15.—(P)—The first of Al Capone's henchmen indicted with him on a federal charge of liquor conspiracy surrendered to the government Monday while the gang leader himself was reported to be undecided as to the plea he will make when arraigned Tuesday.

John Heinan, one of 68 Capone followers named with the "Big Boy" in a huge liquor conspiracy indictment, appeared at the federal building, had his fingerprints recorded, and then posted five $1,000 bills to insure his appearance later.

Attorney William F. Waugh, who presented the gang chief in his contempt of court hearings last February, said Monday afternoon, "Up to the present time my information is that Capone will plead not guilty to both charges."

MOSQUITOES BOTHER

Havana, June 15.—(P)—Dr. Rodriguez Barahona, secretary of sanitation, has a problem. He received a letter signed "a desperate woman who cannot sleep." In an accompanying package were hundreds of dead mosquitoes. The woman described them as "approximately one-third of those I have killed in my house."

Claims Record With His 20-Hour Sermon

Los Angeles, June 15.—(P)—Dr. A. F. Futterer, 60, president of the Hollywood Bible Knowledge society, brought a 20-hour sermon to a close at 2 a. m. Monday and claimed a world record.

The tall, gray-haired leader Sunday evening passed the 12-hour mark set recently by Rev. C. Z. Brown, negro minister of Washington, D. C. His talk was illustrated by slides and motion pictures.

"I took no food and no liquids except lemon juice," he said.

Says Relief Problem Rests With States

Minneapolis, June 15.—(P)—Frank Bane, Richmond, Virginia state public welfare director, and former member of President Hoover's emergency committee for employment, declared Monday primary responsibility for relief whether required by unemployment or otherwise must rest with local and state governments.

In an address at the national conference of social work he predicted relief needs next winter will be greater than the last one irrespective of the movement of business.
