ROBBERTSON.

Special Correspondence.

Robberson, I. T., Dec. 16.—W. F. Robberson has tendered his resignation as postmaster at this place, recommending Rad Perkins as his successor. Mr. Robberson has held the office for nearly twelve years.

Dr. Wilson of Wynnewood, accompanied by his brother, who is also a physician, of Dye Mound, Tex., was in Robberson the first of the week. The Texas doctor was looking for a location.

Miss Rhoda Hayman was quite seriously burned at her home, two miles west of here, Sunday morning. Several small children were playing with fire, when Miss Hayman's clothing caught. A young man by the name of Martin, who was spending the day with the Haymans, got his hands very badly burned in endeavoring to extinguish the flames, which was done with difficulty.

Miss Eads' school now numbers about thirty-five pupils.

Eight wagons, which were assisting in moving Mr. Trimmer from his old home in Montague county to his place north of Robberson, came in through the mud and ice, Friday morning.

The farmers around Robberson are having numerous disagreements over stock pasture.

Ice and bad colds are the order of the day with us. Stock water is scarce and feed still scarcer.

Wanted, by the town of Robberson, a good gin, or a man to buy a good gin, and a good ginner, a good doctor, and two or three good general merchants. We will do the rest. We have the people, the country surrounding, and the prettiest place in the Chickasaw Nation in which to build a town. If you are thinking of going in business off the railroad come and see us.

FOUND FROZEN.

Editor of Newspaper at St. Louis Succumbs.

St. Louis, Dec. 16.—Joseph J. Novak, living at Ingleside Station, in St. Louis county, editor of the Bohemian

Hlas (Voice) is a victim of the present cold snap. His frozen body was found in a vacant lot near the Wash tracks in Baden.

Mr. Novak had been a sufferer from asthma for several years and it is supposed he became suddenly ill while on his way to the Baden station to catch a train for home. His friends think he was too exhausted to proceed further and sat down, thinking he would revive and be able to continue his journey to the railway station.

Christmas presents are now in order. Why not send the Daily or Weekly Ardmoreite to your friend back in the old states? You know it would be appreciated for YOU never write a word.

DARK SECRET LOST.

Capt. Andrews and His Dory Gone to the Bottom.

New York, Dec. 16.—A special from Atlantic City, N. J., says:

Capt. Wm. M. Andrews and his bride sailed from Young's Pier Sunday, September 28 in their 13-foot dory, The Dark Secret. They expected to touch at the Azores for fresh supplies of food and water and to land at some port in Spain or Portugal in from six to eight weeks' time. On his former voyages across the Atlantic Captain Andrews frequently spoke passing vessels and he was reported by them on their arrival at port, but as the "lone mariner" and his bride have been gone now nearly three months, and as their landing has not been reported anywhere, it is the opinion here that they have been drowned.
