

Mrs. James, Millinery

CHILDHOOD'S CHARMS

Are enhanced by pretty millinery. Our line is of greater variety than usual, and we are now showing an assortment of that is very attractive. The design and finish show as much skill and care as those for older people. The material is excellent and most happily chosen. To pay more than our price is extravagance. To pay less will not secure value.

CLOSING OUT SALE

I am closing out everything in my millinery at cost. Will save you money. Don't forget the place, at R. W. Randol's dry goods store, 23-43rd St. MRS. LILA H. BOMAR.

If you want something that is fine in the candy line go to Speigle's for it. He has the finest line of candies that ever came to Ardmore. 15-1m.

You are just the person we want to talk to if you need a heating stove. We bought so that we can sell cheap. WILLIAMS, CORNHILL.

Leave bus and carriage calls at City Livery Stable, Phone 27. 11-1m T. B. CATHEY.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Monday at 3 p. m. with Mrs. S. S. Carr. HATTIE NOBLE, Sec.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to thank the kind people of Ardmore for their especial attention to our family during the recent fatal sickness of our wife and mother. J. C. MARTIN and CHILDREN.

To Jim Havens, who, with other sportsmen made a raid on the waters of the bayou, the Ardmoreite extends thanks for the nice bunch of green heads brought in. We are sorry we cannot accompany Mr. Havens in his shooting deals simply to keep ourselves in trotting trim. We extend thanks, gentlemen, and will say if there is anything on earth we like better than duck it is another duck.

Foley's Honey and Tar for children, safe, sure. No opiates.

THE ELKS OPENING BALL

ONE HUNDRED COUPLES TAKE PART IN THE GRAND MARCH.

Most Brilliant Social Function in the History of the City—More Than 400 Guests in Attendance—Music by Ardmore Orchestra.

Ardmore's social life is jeweled with another social function in the Elks opening ball and reception at their club rooms Friday night. The ball, in the number of beautiful women, handsome gowns, flowers and diamonds surpasses any other social function ever given in the city.

There were present during the evening about 400 guests.

Elaborate preparations had been made and in elegance and splendor the ball surpassed the expectations of the committees.

Ardmore Orchestra, seated beneath a canopy made of a large and handsome United States flag, furnished the music.

The ball room was decorated in red, white and blue; the reception hall with palms, potted plants and cut flowers.

Under a canopy of red and white in one corner of the reception room punch was served.

The dining room's decorations consisted of pure white, interspersed with purple. The dining table was set off by lovely bouquets of American Beauty roses.

Much credit for the success of the ball belongs to the management committee composed of Roy G. Bradford, chairman, Joe Berkshire and R. A. Jones. C. D. Wortham, Dr. J. G. Abernethy and Mitch Bonner made up the floor committee.

The grand march, taken part in by fully 100 couples, was led by Mr. Roy G. Bradford and Miss Mayme Stuart. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. F. P. von Keller, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Torbett, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Foster, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Pennell, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Laughlin of Pauls Valley, Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wall, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Abernethy, Mr. and Mrs. M. Munzshelmer, Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell H. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Max Westheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Moran Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Guillot, Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
