

STEELE ON STATEHOOD

Thinks the Piecemeal Project an Outrage Upon Americans.

To the Ardmoreite.
 Ardmore, Ind. Jan. 16.—That something along the line of statehood for the Territory seems evident, if one listens to the reports from Washington to the papers of the country, I remember being sharply criticized for taking the grounds that to ask for the "Moon bill" or some form of Territorial government in the convention held at Ardmore Nov. 10, 1902, was all we should ask for believing it to be all we could get, and looked to the case of the man, who reaching out to catch the whole world, let it all slip from under his arm.

All that has been accomplished in the line of statehood has amounted to nothing so far as getting any relief for the Indian Territory.

It is gratifying to think whether it be a fact or otherwise, that we of the Indian Territory through our efforts kept Oklahoma from getting the omnibus bill passed, admitting treatment taking us in, after they had everything fixed to suit them; all the state institutions established, laws made to suit them, the state officers all filled by Oklahomans and everything arranged, we not having any say in the matter. When all this was accomplished, we could come in piecemeal, as it suited them to have it so.

Think you we are in any better humor to accept such terms that we were then? Does any one suppose we will tamely submit to such treatment now any better than we did then? We have no fight against statehood with Oklahoma. It is what we have wanted all the time, I believe, were it left to the people of the two territories, ninety per cent of the people would vote for a joint state. Politicians care nothing about how much of a hardship it would be to the people, if they get what they want, no matter how burdensome it may be to the common people. Why, if they want but one state out of the two, ultimately, say they just as well take in all of the Indian Territory, leaving it to time to bring about conditions such as will be desirable to admit it as well as to cut it up piecemeal and admit it that way?

Can't you remember that the fight against the omnibus bill last winter was fought on these same lines? The main reason for their present position, that of taking in a part of the Indian Territory, is the fear that if they get statehood for Oklahoma now that ultimately the Indian Territory will be made an independent state and that would spoil their game altogether. Any one who has been over the two territories and understands the conditions knows that Indian Territory has every requirement necessary to make a great state, while Oklahoma lacks many essential requirements. Oklahoma is made up mostly of agricultural and grazing land, using the timber, coal, oil, gas, asphalt and many other prominent features which the Indian Territory is so plentifully supplied, making it at once one of the most favored parts of the civilized world. Here we have everything that at once marks us as having advantages offered by no other part of the entire country. Climate, soil and other things above named, places the Indian Territory in the very foreground as having better inducements to offer the agriculturist, the manufacturer, the laborer, the inventor, the speculator and all classes of men necessary to build up an industrial community. As to the citizenship of the Indian Territory, any one who has spent any time among our people knows they are the very best blood of the country, and instead of being as some of our enemies would like to make it appear, a community of law breakers, we are a moral, civil and a religious people in a very marked degree. True, we have a lawless element, and why? The very fact of the loose way in which laws are administered, the methods used to screen criminals, the lack of proper court facilities to punish crime—made so from the lack of proper means to mete out justice to the violators of law—one of the strongest arguments that we need a change that can be offered—the speedy punishment accorded criminals when the machinery of justice is properly handled points to the future as an argument of our desire for law and order, shows to the world that if we were properly sustained and that law by which we could say to the criminal, "You must behave yourself, or take the consequences." It is because of these loose methods that there are so many bad men here. If the Mecca for violators of law. Give us the power, either under statehood or a territorial government, and we will show you how quick we will be in the Territory of criminals. Some of our great conservators of the peace(?) will chase a nigger from Jericho to Texas, if he thinks he has been playing craps, will follow a bootlegger all over two territories, spend thousands of dollars of Uncle Sam's money to run him down and take a jug of whisky from him, and, after drinking the whisky, put the poor devil in jail. I was in a court room not long ago when the federal court was in session. The learned judge in calling the docket read, "U. S. vs. John Doe, larceny. Mr. District Attorney, what is to be done with this case?" The attorney answered: "That case, your honor, is to be dismissed." And so on for several cases. Where, I ask, was this case tried? It was tried in the back room of some law office, and the evidence(?) upon which it was dismissed was money. At the same session of this same court an Oklahoma attorney, who was there helping to prosecute the liquor cases, wanting a drink, went out after dark and giving a certain signal a "bootlegger" came to him and handed the attorney—and his friend—drinks from the same canteen," paid the bootlegger for it and he went his way.

One man, arrested for stealing cattle, it was charged that he stole cattle on a certain day in a certain part of the Territory. When the hearing came a man came into court and swears that on the very same date and the very same hour that this man was accused of stealing cattle he was with him—the witness—at a point ten miles from where the cattle were stolen. Yet a man by my side said he knew and could prove it that the witness who was testifying was at the time he was testifying to, as having been with accused, several hundred miles in another direction. I only repeat this to show how much we need relief from conditions now prevailing and that if we had statehood or territorial government—had any chance in the world to overcome these conditions we would be a commonwealth that would do credit to the nation. We are not asking special favors. Give us statehood, a territorial government or a delegate in congress—give us some show—and we will be content, but to make us a "tail for Oklahoma's kite" is in my judgment very "surrey treatment" to give Americans.

That May Throw an Important Light on a Damage Suit.

A stranger lipped into a saloon yesterday. Under one arm was a crutch and he walked aided by a stick. Advancing to the counter, he laid the crutch and stick against it and called for a glass of beer. He took another and then paid his account. Then he held up the crutch and stick and said:

"Say, pard, do yer want these?"

"No," answered the saloon man. "I've no use for them and you need them."

"No, I don't," continued the stranger; "you keep them and give them to any poor devil who wants 'em. It's this way: 'I got hurt and there was a damage suit. The lawyer worked 'em slick and all right, but it was precious little I got out of it.'"

The man took another beer and walked out minus the crutch and stick, and walked as well and erect as any man could, much to the astonishment of the saloon man. The saloon man has the crutch and stick as a memento of the visit.—San Antonio Light.

A Prisoner in Her Own House.

Mrs. W. H. Laska of 1901 Agnes Ave., Kansas City Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "I would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could breathe a decided change to the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by F. J. Ramsey, Ardmore Drug Co., W. B. Frame.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire if often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles 25c; 50c. At all druggists.

Their Loss the Country's Gain.

An exchange tells the following: "The government of the United States realized almost $21,000,000 last year from money taken from 'dead letters,' for which no owner could be found, and from the sale at auction of unclaimed articles accumulated in this way. Nothing was taken or sold until extraordinary efforts had been made to find the owner. Only 3,515 pieces of the enormous aggregate of registered mail handled during the year, went astray. Recoveries were effected in all but 659 cases, of which 270 were official matters of practically no pecuniary value. On the 389 cases of actual loss sustained by the public this government paid as indemnity something in excess of $3,000. Very little mail matter of any sort comparatively goes astray, and in the registered mail service, the percentage of loss is so small as to be practically a negligible factor.

"SCIENCE" FOR A COW.

Faith Fails to Cure a Broken Hip and Humane Society Steps In.

Denver, Jan. 15.—A Jersey cow that was suffering from a broken hip has been undergoing Christian science treatment in Denver. The experiment of trying to cure the animal by faith was deemed a failure by the Humane Society and the cow was shot this morning by Agent Toliver Tuft in order to end its misery. Mrs. Anna Tweedy, the owner of the cow, and the person who subjected it to Christian science, is indignant because the humane officers interfered.
