A number of prospectors were in the city this morning looking over the town. After spending several hours here the party went north.

One of the prominent visitors to the city today was N F Frazier, a busi-ness man of El Dorado, Kan., who was here the guest of his friend, C. P. VairDenberg. Seven years ago. Mr. Frazier visited Ardmore and the progress since that time made a great impression with him. He said that Ardmore was destined to be a city that it was a fine fown and a splen-did business point. "There are few, if any vacant houses in the town." said Mr. Frazier. He departed for El Dorado after spending the day

The city council will meet in regu good deal of business to dispose of THE VACANT LOT SALE.

Purchasers Have Abiding Faith In Ardmore-Good Prices Prevail.

The government's lot sale reveals the fact that realty in Ardmore is anxiously sought for, although it is declared the prices obtained is by no means an index to the values of real estate in the city. Because of the geographical location of the lots, the bidding did not reach that stage where exorbitant prices were paid, but parties paid well for them and great in terest was manifested in the lot sale Those who purchased firmly believe that good returns will be had, as they used wisdom in buying them.

One man who did not reside in Ard more wanted to know why so much interest was manifested in the sale. He was told that the people had the atmost confidence in the town, believing that some day it will be a fine city and that values will enhance ac-To own real estate in Ardmore is a foud destre of the peopte. Col. Kelsey, who conducted the sale, stated that the demand here for realty was greater perhaps than in many towns where he had been, Long before the sale he was beseiged by many who wked information. Several parties who sought this information fill not reside in Ardmore, but had con attracted here by the announce ment that lots would be sold. As a rule outside people are as anxious. buy real estate in a good town as two people who reside in it.

Because of the desire of many to own property, Street Commissioner Landrum sold six lots the same day and the crowd seemed auxious hem. The lots were situated in East Ardmore and are improved with fruit trees. K. C. Tucker, John F. Easley. C. T. Wiggins and Chas, Fraley were the buyers. The property brought in excess of $1000. Sidney Suggs was the auctioneer and he is a good one.

Had the day been favorable for the sale an immense crowd would have attended it. The rain kept hundreds
