TEACHERS GUESTS OF THE CITY

are at the building and will have their worth demonstrated.

Basket Ball Game.
Miss Boyd, instructor in gymnasium arrived at noon with sixteen girls from the school, who will play a game of basket ball at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, with all the snap and vim of college athletics. Drills in gymnastic work will be given and their value and the different exercises for developing different parts of the body will be the subject of a short lecture by Miss Baker.

Wireless Telegraph.
Mr. Paul Laird, instructor of chemistry, will give a demonstration in wireless telegraphy tomorrow morning. Mr. Laird was too busy this morning putting up exhibits to say anything more of his lecture than that his subject would be wireless telegraphy—with demonstrations.

Senior Class to Attend.
The senior class of the normal will attend in a body—with the exception of one young lady who was ill to come. Messrs. Yerrion, Crudup, Pe'ry, No-lund and Ware will be present and assist the instructors when called upon.

The Faculty Well Represented.
The faculty is well represented. Among those present are:
Miss Yerrion, Kindergarten Teacher.
Mr. Paul Laird, Instructor in Chemistry.
Miss Hunt, Instructor in Geology.
Mr. Demand, Instructor in Romantic History.
Mr. Kaufman, Instructor in Modern Languages.
Miss Boyd, Instructor in Oratory and Gymnastics.
Miss Baker, Principal of Primary Training Department.
Miss McKenney, Instructor of Domestic Science.
Mr. Prophet, Instructor of Mathematics.
Mr. Parsons, Instructor in Biology.

Primary Work Exhibit.
The exhibit in primary work will be given by Miss Thaska D. J. Baker, a very charming young lady with a personality that suits well her department. Miss Baker will display work actually done in the school and give interesting dots of education for the little folk.

Miss Matthewson, one of the Carter county teachers, arrived this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sneed and Mr. George Sneed are attending the association.

Miss Dora Miris of Boswell was one of the early arrivals at the association.
Mr. McGow of Ardmore was busy meeting the teachers this morning and showing them to headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Steed, and Miss Stanford represent the Woodville schools. Miss Dishman is attending from Pinter, Okla.

You've heard of the busy bees, the busy-bodies and the busy house-keeper, but you should see Mrs. Mary V. Niblack, county superintendent of Carter county, for, verily, she is the busiest of them all! Mrs. Niblack takes a personal interest in every teacher as they arrive and sees to it that someone takes them in hand and makes them feel at home.

In addition to this it is through her energy that the assembling place was made ready and comfortable for the guests.
And too, it is Mrs. Niblack who is busy with the Y. M. C. A. ladies, seeing that proper preparations are being made for serving the guests.
The ladies of Ardmore and the teachers of the city schools should arise to the necessity of giving Mrs. Niblack their unstinted support.

Y. M. C. A. Serving Meals.
The ladies of the Y. M. C. A., auxiliary are serving the teachers with three meals a day at the old A. C. Young stand. They are being assisted by the Y. M. C. A.
They are expecting all the help possible from the townspeople and are especially anxious that every member of the Y. M. C. A. auxiliary do something to help them in the work.

Mr. Vaughn of Kingston is an early visitor to the association.
The general opinion of the teachers who are visiting Ardmore for the first time seems to be—"I love my home town—but, oh! you paved streets!"
