Lack of Accommodations for Early Fall Arrivals forces Out
Desirable, Seasonable Merchandise at "Way Down" Prices

The above captions tell the story in a nut-shell, and the following items only suggest the marvelous money-saving possibilities of this most important "Shelf and Rack Emptying Sale". Were it not for the pressing and immediate need of room demanded by heavy inrush of new goods, these extraordinary values, and many others not given newspaper mention, through shortage of space, would not exist. A corps of trained buyers are now in the East, working day and night, selecting merchandise which will be opened in the near future. THEREFORE, room WE must have, and if BIG SAVING is any object, then YOU will certainly help us make it.
