VERIA GWYNNE, TELEPHONE 4560

Oh, for the love of a friend whose voice and touch will rain down sorrows, diamond tears, making of them points of varied joy; one who forgives all my shortcomings and makes of me, one who dares to the uttermost of human unkindness; one whose ship will cast anchor, and throw out the life line of hope when storms are near; one who forgives in me all that I can forgive in myself. Oh, for the love of a friend who can be made the sacred trustee of my heart; one who is more to me than the closest relative, and whose very name is so sacred that I want to whisper it softly; one who lingers near my door in time of distress, and stretches forth his hand, which is not empty, not cold, and who says little but feels largely; one whose very glance radiates tenderness, sympathy, loving kindness, and whose warming effect penetrates the very soul of one whose smile causes the rays of pain in the heart of one who lays his hand tenderly on the forehead, saying, "There, be still," one who is not afraid to lay down his own burden to help carry mine; one whose silent presence soothes all gloom, and melts keenest sorrows, transforming them into a brilliancy of gladness and joy. Without such friendship, love is without endurance.—Lawson.

PLENTY OF FLAGS FOR ALL AT PARK

PROGRAM FULLY ARRANGED FOR MUNICIPAL CELEBRATION SATURDAY

A REAL BALLOON ASCENSION

Speaking by Prominent Orators Will Begin at Three in the Afternoon.

Two thousand, eight hundred and eighty flags in two sizes have been received at the city park house to be given away at a soon date to the children of Tulsa Saturday. There will be big flags for the larger children and small flags for the young youngsters, and plenty for all. The park board is planning to give this same kind of night-time Fourth of July celebration.

The Tulsa band will play in the park at day end. The Tulsa Street Railway company will run (rearrange) service; the ballparks will make an exception in the children's facilities, and the city fathers in Tulsa, therefore, will be set off on this Fourth of Fourth.

There will be one thing lacking from this Independence day celebration which the public will kindly dispense with, that is, the vendor of beer, wine, and real ale. The board has had to refuse to make any concessions to purveyors and vendors. Furthermore, owners adjacent to the park have refused concessions. But there will be plenty to do all day. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the football will be formally begun by Mayor Woodson. A firing squad from Company A, U. S. A. will fire three volleys and the band will play. Snooking will commence at 3 o'clock on a temporary platform in the center of the park, where ample seating facilities have been provided. Three candidates for mayor and other celebrities will deliver addresses. Those who have announced themselves are Attorney General Charles West, Democratic candidate, John P. Hickam, Progressive candidate, and John Fields, Republican candidate.

Battling in the lake will be free all day long, though not permitted during the speaking. The whole business will be free, although the pleasure of watching the boats will be worth hundreds of dollars.

Three of the biggest stores in Tulsa announced yesterday that they would remain closed all day the Fourth of July. They are the Deane-Kandover Dry Goods company, the Alton-Randick company and the Harlow store at Third and Boston. Many other stores are expected to follow suit, and for the first time in many years practically all businesses will be suspended on a Saturday. The merchants are appealing to shoppers to do their buying on Friday this week, instead of Saturday. Hundreds of shop girls and other employees will be enabled to leisurely celebrate the glorious Fourth as a result of the humanitarian move.

The clothing stores have not yet entered an agreement to close on the Fourth, but they may do so today or tomorrow.

This transfer pattern is also appropriate for embroidering a dress of raking linen or one of the crepe weaves so popular this season. In this case it would be very pretty carried out in blue, rose, violet or yellow on white material or in white on a colored fabric. The pattern may also be adapted to a slip-over nightgown, chemise or combination garment, and may be cut apart for use on a child's dress. It would be very attractive for trimming a little girl's frock of chambray, lawn or cotton crepe if the center of the waist design is used on the yoke, with the garlands placed just above the hem of the skirt. Waist pattern 7577 can be supplied at 15 cents. Transfer pattern 14587 at 15 cents. Fill out the coupon and enclose stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

BURN MORTGAGE ON THE CITADEL TODAY

CEREMONIES AT SALVATION ARMY WILL BEGIN AT 7:30 P. M.

MANY S. A. OFFICERS HERE

Major Smith, Division Commander of Dallas, Will Have Charge of Ceremonies.

Thought at 7:30 the best cause of the Salvation Army will celebrate the burning of the mortgage on their Citadel, which was defaulted in February, 1912. The funds for the burning of the mortgage, which amounted to $2,000, were raised by the S. M. C. A. League, which secured the $125,000 for their building.

Practically all the officers of the Salvation Army in Oklahoma will be present, according to Assistant Division Commander, Major John C. Smith, of Dallas, who will have charge of the burning, and will be the official master of the ceremony.

Local speakers for the occasion are Mayor Woodson, Judge W. J. Williams, Judge I. M. Fox, Carl C. Magee, Rev. George Tedmon of the Christian church, and Rev. Perry Kewbuckler of the local Avenue Methodist church.

Just what ceremonies will accompany the actual burning of the mortgage was not stated by Assistant Division Commander. He said that he had not yet seen such a performance, so he did not know how they worked. Major Smith will make these arrangements. He arrived last night at 10 o'clock.

Practical Fashion Hints
By Alice Gibson

New styles of shirt waists come and go, but the simple type of blouse such as this is always in good style and always appropriate to wear with a suit. It may be made of crepe de Chine, crepe muller, hankie-linen, lawn, batiste voile or one of the new cotton crepe weaves, and the embroidery should be always in the color of the material worked with fine silk on a silk fabric or in mercerized cotton on cotton or linen materials. This blouse pattern, 7467, is cut in sizes 32 to 44 inches bust measure. The pattern 14587 may be adapted to a waist of any size and may be developed either entirely in solid work, or solid and eyelet embroidery.

This transfer pattern is also appropriate for embroidering a dress of raking linen or one of the crepe weaves so popular this season. In this case it would be very pretty carried out in blue, rose, violet or yellow on white material or in white on a colored fabric. The pattern may also be adapted to a slip-over nightgown, chemise or combination garment, and may be cut apart for use on a child's dress.
