SEWER INSPECTOR CHARGED OF GRAFTING

HEARING BEGAN YESTERDAY AFTERNOON BY COMMISSION.

Claim He Padded Accounts and Used City Men on Private Work.

WHAT promises to be the most sensational piece of graft in Tulsa came to light yesterday afternoon when the city commissioners began an investigation pertaining to the misuse of the city's funds by City Sewer Inspector Sam W. Patton. From the facts that developed at the special hearing it is made at this time that Patton has appropriated to his own use during the past four years that he has been at the head of the department. It is a known fact that since his connection with the city in an official capacity he has accumulated a small fortune, owning several houses and lots in the city. The tactics used by Patton in securing the money were very crude and had it not been for making an enemy out of L. D. Todd, a former employee of his, it is possible that the truth facts would have never come to light.

ROYAL ROTTERS' PARADE

The finishing touch was added to the picture with the "royal rotters," Boston's organized rooting corps, marched into the park headed by their own band and waving red and blue pennants bearing the names of the Braves and Athletics. Several leaders were full Indian war dress. The battle song, "Tessie," was sung repeatedly and the three hundred members of the corps cheered each telling Boston hit or play and encouraged the team in the crucial periods during the second and seventh innings, when Rudolph swayed for a moment. When the game ended the "royal rotters" paraded around the field singing and cheering.

BROKE ONE RECORD

Far more valuable than the capture of the first game is the confidence that came to the youthful aggregation of players, when they saw the Athletics batter, when they saw the Athletics batter and then collapse under fire. Tonight the National League combination actually feel certain of ultimate victory, which the players so valiantly proclaimed before the series opened. Entered in the world's series, they established a new record, for they drove Chief Bender, the Athletics' surest money pitcher, to the bench, a feat no other club
