Reunion Notes

The Federal Reserve System

has proved itself during our participation in the war. It is difficult to say what banking conditions might have been without it. With it they have been stable and responsive to the needs of the situation. You should support a bank which supports the system.

CENTRAL NATIONAL

BANK

SECOND AND BOSTON

Eight picked members of the United States marine corps, accommembers of the panied by marine corps photogra-phers, will arrive in Tulsa early Friday morning over the Santa Fe, ac-cording to word received yesterday by Sergeant Glonn Condon of the local marine corps recruiting station.

These marines, all of whom have served in campaigns in many parts served in campaigns in many parts of the world, will come with full equipment, presured to act as escorts of honor to Colonet Van Zandt, acting commander-in-chief of the United Confederate veterans, in their big annual parade Friday afternoon, it will be a pasy day for these car, donated by H. N. Greis of the marines, to be used in newspapers is but one Tulsa.

will "catch" scenes of the parade and also of various celebrities. One picture will be made of all the maids and sponsors, with the marines as a likely are loyal to their cause now.

1 shall spend no time in energy of the marines as a likely are loyal to their cause now. background for this real bevy southern belies.

The detail will leave Friday night at 11 o'clock, as authority was granted for them to spend but one day in Tulsa. Hon. Scott Ferris' Speech. The following extracts are taken from the speech of Hon. Scott Ferris at Convention hall vesterday

America's Achievements in War. between April 6, 1917, the date Commanding General, Maids of Honor, Sponsors, Veterans: I shall spend no time in culogy of beautiful present. Tulsa. She neither needs it or de Atlantic Petroleum company. A sires it. She is the Queen of the schedule for the day has been prepared and hundreds of photographs. Earden; she is the dream come true will be taken of the reunion and the men are being called to service. million and three-quarters of them are now on the western front, fighting the battles of the republic-that pictures also will be taken and plotting our pride in the bright new dely distributed. state. She was but yesterday a cow The marine corps photographers pasture, and an Indian reservation.

manage manage

Mrs. C. E. Bryan.

Delegate Wade Hampton Chap ter. El Paso, Texas

America Generous, America Willing, America Actually Doing Her Full Part.

oday she is the marvel of the west

I shall spend no time in eulogy of the brave men here today, who fought from '61 to '65 for their homes and their rights. They were brave men then—they are brave men and every one.

goes with war.

the struggling nations of the earth preserve the liberties of mankind. The United States have, up to Sep-tember 2, 1918, executed loans to our allies engaged in this great conflict to the amount of $7.092.040,000. Thus it will be observed that in shipbuilding, in railroad building, trans-portation of troops and supplies, in carrying every burden incident to this great conflict, in each time America has stood erect to duty the

As we run down the roser of names that are serving in this great conflict, we find every nationality represented, we find every nationality doing its part. How proud I am that the great majority of those that came to us from foreign shores so soon have taken on the spirit of freedom, liberty and justice; how soon they take on the spirit that means hope for humanity; how soon heartbeat quickens for the flag their adopted land!

This was brought to my attention out forcibly in an article appearing in Everybody's Magazine for July. 1916, by Elias Lieberman, entitled.

I Am an American." At a meeting of school children tive Austrians, spoke as follows:
am an American. My father belongs to the Sons of the Revolution; my flickering light of pacifism. The palanes to the Colonial
"peace at any price" citizen will but am an American.

to the Sons of the Revolution; my mother belongs to the Colonial "peace at any price" citizen will but mother belongs to the Colonial "peace at any price" citizen will but mother belongs to the Colonial "peace at any price" citizen will but mother belongs to the Colonial "peace at any price" citizen will but mother belongs to the disaster, disintegration and shame tea overboard in Boston harbor; and disaster, disintegration and shame tea overboard in Boston harbor; and be written in history that another hungered with Washington would be written in history that in Valley Forge. My forefathers democracies are too weak to grapple were American in making; they with monarchies. The patriotic blood

How proud it must make every spoke in her council halls; they died american feel to know that he lives on her battle fields; they command a country so strong, so able, so ed her ships; they cleared her forwilling, and so generous, as to help ests. Dawns reddened and paled the struggling nations of the earth Staunch hearts of mine beat fast at each new star in the nation's Flag. Keen eyes of mine foresaw her greater glory; the sweep of her seas, the plenty of her plains, the man-hives of her billion-wired cities. Every drop of blood in me holds a heriage of patriotism. my past. I am an American.

Then a foreign boy arose and said "I am an American. My father America has stood erect to duty the day that duty called—she has performed her full part. History's pages can not fail to record and give in the mines of Siberia; another was crippled for life by twenty blows of the knout; another was killed depages can not fail to record and give full credit to her great achievements and her great ability to do and to fending his home during the massages can not fail to record and give full credit to her great ability to do and to fending his home during the massages.

eres. The history of my ancestors is a trail of blood to the palace gate of the Great White Czar. But then the dream came—the dream of America. In the light of Liberty's America. In the light of Libert torch the atom of dust became man and the straw in the became a woman for the first time. 'See,' said my father, pointing to the Flag that fluttered near, That Flag of Stars and Stripes is yours; it is the emblem of the promised land. It means, my son, the hope of humanity. Live for it, die for it!" der the open sky of my new country swore to do so.

We Must Win the War. The republic must play a vigorous and prominent part in the winning of this war. To do otherwise is to in Madison Square Garden. New admit that free governments will York city, to celebrate the Fourth of survive; that free governments will July, one boy, a descendant of nanot stand together against the tive Austrians, spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians, spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians, spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not fixed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republic can not tive Austrians spoke as follows: "I mailed fist. The republ that flows through our velue, handed down to us by the fathers who con-

We must win the war, for to lose let freedom and liberty welter a the blood of the fathers. To lose he war is to say that the soldier and t the front.

be concluded or won. But I believe every one of the 110,000,000 patriotic entizens of the land knows it will be won, and that our brave boys at the front will do their full share in win

Peace has always been a passion ith the nation in which we live but it has been an honorable peace have sought, as distinguished a dishonorable one.

it has been a lasting peace that this nation has sought and not a temporary one. There are rights and libertles among men that are dearer han peace.

Peace can not be among honor thle men or nations when war is onstantly made upon them. Peace on not be when the Flag of the dained. Peace can not be when in-nocent men, women and children, going where they had a right to go, re torpedoed, submarined ated, murdered and sunk, can not be amidst the gurgling unds of the drowning. Peace can be when kaiserism, Prussianism, and the mailed fist reigns, and liber-y. Justice, and even the Deity is proselyted and disdained.

Democracy today is making her ast stand in a death grapple with The right of democracy sutocracy. succeed against autocracy is dearr than peace. There can be no eace but an honorable peace. There an be no peace worth having but lasting peace. destiny rests with you. Let every citizen in every corner of the land kindle it anew. Kindle the smouldering embers that patriotism may stalk among us as it did in '76 stalk among us as it did in '76 Kindle it anew that liberty, democ ive may not be distintegrated. perished and gone. For in the name of freedom, justice, and the liberies of man, we are right and they Ardmore Vet Home Sends Camp. Among the late arrivals last night were forty yets from the Confederate home at Ardmore, members of the Tate Brady camp, U. C. V. While here they are the guests of Mr. here they are the guesis of Mr. Brady of this city, and all their trip is on his initiation.

Many of the yets in the home couldn't come. Those who are here were certified by the physician, and many of the others were disapointed, declaring they were as fit as the ones who came.

Guests.

Hon Scott Ferris was especially leased with the way in which Tulans were taking care of the thousands of visitors here. "You're doing it lots better than Washington did," he told The World. At Washington the visitors were not very well re-ceived, but in Tulsa, almost every ceived, but in Tulsa almost every part of the program is being carried out, and the guests are being shown many new courtestes. This is the first reunion city that has not harged for street car patrons, according to Tate Brady, lemen we have met during the ren are Gen. W. B. Freeman, mander of the Virginia division, and Lieut. Gen. J. Thompson Brown. both of that historic town of Richmond, who arrived yesterday mornng. General Freeman has the dis-inction of being the father of D. S. reeman, editor of the Richmond News-Leader, one of the greatest papers of the south. Lieutenant General Brown has had so many honors that we can hardly attempt General Brown has had so many for 13 years on the circuit beach in his district in Alabama, and is hale to enumerate them. He participated and hearty despite his more than 80 years. He is a veteran of the fighting around Richmond, Va. and lost union this week, were all puffed up wounded and captured at the battle of Marye's Heights, later severely wounded at the battle of Spottsylvenia court house and against the said he, "as I did the idea of some of board," vania court house and sgain at the lattle of Sailor's creek. He has survived both wounds and captures and is now hale and hearty and very good looking. General Freeman is no less distinguished in appearance and his honors have been many. and his honors have been many. Both of them are delighted with Tulsa and say that notwithstanding the distance, Richmond has the largest delegation here that she has sent to any reunion of recent years

Oldest Young Man in Tulsa.

M. G. Dow, Kearney, Mo., 87 years old, does not use tobaccó in any form and has not taken a drink since he took a trip on the steamer Messenger on the Ohio river in 1848, 70 years ago, is enjoying himself immensely. He was a veteran in the Mexican war and in the Civil wif and claims to be the only man in the city who served under Gen. Winfield Scott. He was present at the capture of Vera Cruz. under Gen. Winfield Scott. He was present at the capture of Vera Cruz. March 29, 1847. Mr. Dow says he has never been sick enough in his life to require the services of a physician. He claims that he is 50 percent Scotch and 49 per cent and 16 cances Irish. He recently built an addition to his home, erecting and shingling it by himself.

Tulsa Woman Named Sponsor.
Miss Bernard Shaw of 1210 South
Main street has been appointed for the Georgia brigade by Srig. Gen. E. G. Gilmore, who ar rived in Tulm yesterday morning. Miss Shaw has not yet completed the appointment of her maids of honor

Didn't Come Here to Sleep.
You can just tell them all I didn't a a thousand miles to take a
"said a lielitenant from Georgia. can do tht at home without half much trouble." That's the way est of the visiting old soldlers feet thout it. Tulsa interests them and they are going to see as much of the city as they possibly can before they eave. This veteran, who would not tell his name, came in Monday eve-ning and spent the entire night wandering around looking at the sights. Says he feels perfectly at home and is going to advertise Tulsa as the-most hospitable city in the world.

Needed Drink-Not Prayers, Heading a delegation of fifteen sembers of the Raphael Semmer amp of United Confederate Vetrans from Mobile, Ala., Judge Sam-iel B. Browne breezed into Tulsa esterday forencon. The judge was

Suit Fashions for Fall From Leading New York Designers

The New Suits Hold Sway Tomorrow

They will be displayed in all their varieties-long jackets and short jackets with long skirts, narrow and slashed at the ankles-suits with medium length jackets and skirts up to two yards wide-suits with yarn embroidery on the coats suits fur trimmed, sometimes liberally and others on the collar only.

The prices of the suits range from $25.00 up to $275.00

Veterans, visitors and Tulsans are again invited to Vandever's. Make this store your headquarters. Meet your friends here, use the rest room on second floor, the stationery, the phones, in fact feel at home here.

Beging when you

give us an order

do

Muller Tire & Rubber Co.
112 South Boulder Ave-Phone 320

the Confederate army.

The solo French horn player proudly exhibited his official envelope with the address.
"General delivery, Tulss."
Only one member of the band failed to salute him. He was the first clarionet. first clarionet.

"You are not the only one to get a commission right off the reel," he exclaimed, with scorp, as he held aloft his questionnairs container. On it was this address:

"Admiral Boulevard, Tulsa. Okla. CLEANSES YOUR HAIR MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL,

THICK, GLOSSY, WAVY

Try this! All dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Surely to try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt, or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amased. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifyling the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping litching and failing hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhibarating, slimulating and lifeproducing properties cause the hair longer longer to the strengthens.

producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful, You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a small bottle of Knowlien's Danderine at

Welcome to Tulsa and make our plant your headquarters

Mount-Cooper Boiler & Iron Works

Manufacturers of Boilers and All Kinds of Plate Iron

TULSA, OKLA.