"SHOULD HAVE CARED FOR HIM," SAYS AGED HUSBAND

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10.—"I wish I should have stayed here and taken care of my wife better."

This was the reply of John H. Cornes, an insurance man, to the question of Judge T. J. Mackay, asking what reason he gave for leaving his wife, who he said was blind.

THIEF GETS SHORT END OF BILL, AND IS LOSER

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 10.—A negro who held up King of the week, N. Y., a guest at the Alcazar Hotel, got the short end of things before he was through and lost his spoils.

He forced King to give up his purse containing $10. Then King changed his mind and snatched it back.

During the scuffle the bills came out of the purse. The negro held one end with King tugging at the other. The bills were torn in two.

Has "Local Poisoning." ELWOOD, Ind., June 10.—One of the most serious cases that has ever come to the attention of blood physicians is that of Mrs. Lena Rose, 35, cashier for the E. I. Soda and Kitchen Cabinet company, who is seriously ill from an ailment described as local poisoning believed to have been contracted from handling paper money.

Old Trader Says

DO IT NOW! Why should a preacher get water on the brain and wash SPAINAW when we doubt the DIVINE has ever TASTED Shell Creek?

If Shell creek can furnish Tulsa water for a million dollars, and then give TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS as a TAKE OFF?

But this same OLD DOPER built the LARGEST RETAIL GROCERY and MEAT MARKET in Oklahoma...

We are cleaning up and making room for the new goods coming in. When in need of a good shoe come to TRADERS NO. 1 and call for an all leather Star Brand shoe...
