BEER ARRESTS EXPECTED TO BE MADE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 2.—Some of the saloonkeepers in New York who are keeping their bars open for the sale of 2.75 per cent beer and light wines, probably will be arrested and tried in order to provide a test case according to an announcement today by U. S. District Attorney Caffey who was one of the prosecutors in the Baltimore case which resulted in a decision by U. S. Judge John T. Rose which the liquor men have interpreted as permitting the sale of 2.75 per cent beer pending a decision by the supreme court... Representatives of the saloon interests say that the test case will not prevent the continued sale of light wines and beer. As the United States supreme court has adjourned for the summer no final decision can be looked for until October and the liquor men believe that a proclamation of demobilization will have definitely lifted the prohibition by that time. They contend that even if the sale of 2.75 per cent beer is held to have been illegal there will be such a host of offenders that prosecution will be a virtual impossibility.
