

SEE CERTAIN SUCCESS FOR IRISH REPUBLIC

Governor Dunne and Frank Walsh Return From Mission at Peace Conference in Paris.

ONLY SWORD BLOCKS CAUSE

Military Power Alone Prevents Completion—Results Are Achieved From Mission.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Only a glacially military machine, equipped with machine guns and armored cars, and "impregnated" by their trusted leaders, can prevent the "fall" operation of a republican government in Ireland.

Given Welcome. The two delegates, who were preceded to the United States by several weeks by Michael E. Ryan, the third member of the mission, were given an enthusiastic reception by a crowd of several hundred persons, when they reached.

The case of Ireland before the world's peace conference was being deliberately ignored prior to our arrival in Paris and was being treated by England with her usual insolence and contempt.

"Upon our instance, however, that it must be considered by the American commission, made representations to the British prime minister urging that it should receive prompt consideration.

Chicago Girl With an Irish Name May Sit Upon Throne of Greece

Miss Josephine Marie Kelly and King Alexander of Greece.

According to rumors floating back to this country from Greece, a charming young American girl may soon sit upon the throne of Athens.

Her name is William, Ireland, prominent New York hotel man. He says he has had recent letters from his niece in which she described the king as a very able and democratic specimen of royalty and said a mutual friendship had sprung up between them because of a similarity of tastes.

Miss Kelly wrote that the king had received her at an audience in the palace, but that they had really enjoyed each other more in less formal ways. She is an expert automobile driver and had frequently taken long drives with the young king.

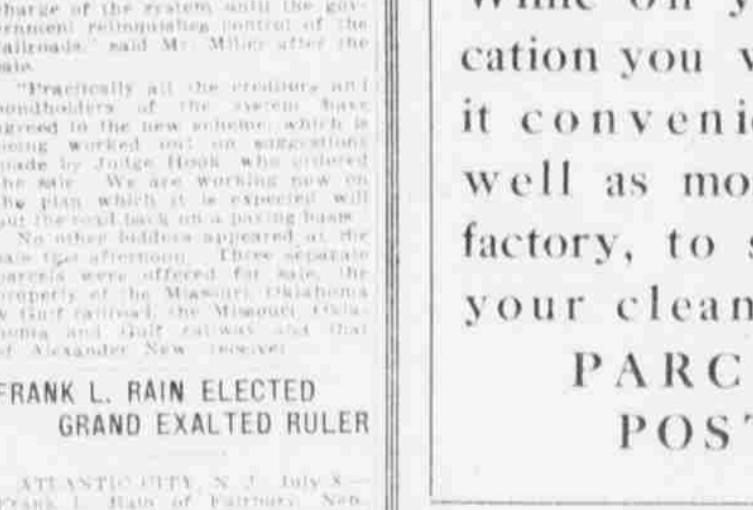

COLONEL BUMPS INTO BAKER AND QUICKLY CHANGES MIND

NEW YORK, July 8.—Secretary of War Baker introduced himself to one of his colonels while awaiting President Wilson's debarkation from the transport George Washington today in a manner that probably will help the officer remember his chief for many a day.
