Announcement Party.

Miss Amelia Brown entertained yesterday in her home at 1440 North Boston avenue, honoring her sister, Miss Frances Brown, who will be a bride of the month. Instead of the formal announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown, it was decided that the bride-elect should be honored on the occasion of the beautiful announcement party of yesterday afternoon. The party was given for a period of five hours, after which refreshments were served, and on each plate were small cards bearing the name of Miss Brown and her fiancé, Mr. Otto K. Weisel, formerly of Oklahoma City but now of Tulsa.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Philip Hagan, sister of the bride-elect, Mrs. Forrest Kramer of Hixson, Miss Maud Lloyd of Meridian, Miss a lifetime friend of the Brown family and from their former home.

Miss Brown is an attractive girl, just out of the service, and received her training at Camp Pike and was ready to sail for France when the armistice was signed. Miss Brown and Mr. Weisel are both well known students at the Oklahoma university. Their wedding will be a pretty home event.

Five Visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Baker entertained with a picnic and swimming party at Lake Owsen last evening, complimentary to Mrs. Baker's guest, Miss Ruth Dubois of Muskogee. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Baker will compliment her guest with a matinee party.

Business Women in Convention Too Busy for Social Affairs

The National Federation of Business and Professional Women, who are in session in St. Louis, lasting through the 18th, are busily engaged solving the problems that are in their routine of life. Experiences of the representatives present, from coast to coast and from border to gulf, are being told before the assembly for educational purposes and suggestions pertaining to the advancement of women in business are also being propounded.

"We do not propose to offer long, prosy speeches that are tiresome to these business and professional women," says one of the leading spirits. "The thing we want is to benefit those ways that will be a benefit to the business woman and to find out how she may solve the great problems in her life. We are refusing many entertainments here in St. Louis and while we are appreciating the hospitality offered by the people, yet we feel we must make time and not overlook the importance of being together for these few days."

Mrs. Ora Lightner Frost of Tulsa is leading the union singing that is featuring each session. Today's sessions will be a general one, the various topics to be discussed being "Paramount Needs of the Business Women," "Business Ethics," "The Business Woman's Responsibility and Citizenship" and "Roasting of Business Women." The luncheon today will be a distinctive feature, because each vocational group will lunch together to discuss their own problems. This afternoon, Lilian Palmer of San Francisco will speak on the "Mutual Service of Business Women," together with Joan Downs of Chicago. There will be other speakers on live and pertinent topics. A banquet to the delegates will wind up the day.

Thursday will be devoted to the election of officers and the gathering in of unfinished business, the selection of the place of meeting for the next convention. Thursday night the delegates will be guests of the St. Louis business women at the municipal opera at Forest park.

Among the well known speakers and editors who are attending are Miss Ida Tarbell, Mrs. Anna Stewart Richardson, Mrs. Rhoda Childs Dyer, Ada Clyde Clark and May Marie Perry of New York, Mrs. Geo. H. Brown of San Francisco and Miss Mary H. Bullard, associate editor of the American Magazine.

Some of the prominent business women are Miss Ethel Hagley, Washington, D. C., secretary to Secretary

To Ward Off Summer Complexion Ills

To keep the face smooth, white and beautiful all summer, there's nothing quite so good as ordinary cerulean. This colored or franked skin, as common as this season is, is gradually absorbed by the wax and replaced by the newer, fresher skin beneath. The face exhibits no trace of the wax, which is applied to the face and washed off morning, evening, once a day and rinses on the other hand, are apt to appear more conspicuous than usual these days of excessive perspiration. Get an ounce of cerulean wax at any drug store and use it like cold cream. This will help your skin at once and in a week or so the complexion will look remarkably clear, young and healthy.—Adv.

POOL HALLS ALLOWED TO OPEN ON SUNDAYS

Following Protest Against Sabbath Day Closing Ordinance City Commission Decides to Revoke It.

That it is "little town stuff" to force the pool and billiard parlors to close the Sunday closing ordinance was one of the six reasons submitted by owners of six pool halls in their petition to the mayor and city commissioners to have the ordinance revoked.

Requests that they be allowed to remain open from 12 o'clock noon until midnight on Sundays, and thus encourage the men and young men to go to church in the morning, the pool hall owners made a strong plea that they be accorded all the rights due them as legitimate business concerns.

The fact that Tulsa is a city of 35,000 people, where great throngs of traveling men congregate for the week end, and hundreds of city men spend Sunday as their one day of recreation for the week, was also quoted as a reason for their being permitted to remain open throughout the afternoon and evening.

The request was granted by the city commissioners and Tulsa pool "sharks" and billiard players will be enabled to continue their sessions without any interruption every night through the summer.

Watch the places well, Mayor Hubbard's mandate when permission was agreed upon "These billiard and pool parlors are all right, but there are cheap joints on our side streets that have been in the habit of selling whiskey and 'take'." If any of them are caught at it, we will surely revoke the license and put them out of business.

JAPS GET SHANTUNG TO ENTER LEAGUE

ing built on the other side of the Pacific, and the foreign relations chairman. "We are asked to put our name at the bottom of that rubbering of China—handing over control practically of that great province to Japan. I do not want to see my country's name at the bottom of such a thing."

Senator Norris put into the record what he said were copies of diplomatic correspondence in which Great Britain and France promised in 1917 to uphold the Japanese claim to Shantung. Announcing for the first time that he could not vote for the treaty, he characterized the Shantung agreement as "outrageous perversion of justice and an attempt to purchase peace at the sacrifice of honor."

Underwood for Treaty. Senator Underwood, democrat of Alabama, also making his first announcement in the senate regarding the treaty, said he would support it wholeheartedly as a step toward world peace.

Warning that Japan may "awaken" China, was given by Senator Williams. He asserted that China, if aroused, with her 400,000,000 people might overwhelm the 25,000,000

Japanese, and possibly invade Europe. "The whole world had better let China alone, and not teach her war," said the Mississippi member.

Declaring the whole reason for the Shantung decision was that Japan intended to quit the conference unless her demands were satisfied, Senator Borah said Japanese possession of Shantung meant that Tokio would control all three gateways to China and that the result would be Chinese dismemberment.

"I do not anticipate that if we refuse to underwrite and guarantee the rape of China we will have to go to war. I do not think Japan expects us to underwrite this. We would have been perfectly satisfied with a treaty with Great Britain and France. That is her business."

"But if the time indeed has come when the United States must engage in the analyzing of the people and must break her 44 treaties guaranteeing Chinese integrity, or else face the challenge of another nation, then she will face the challenge of another nation."

"We have cringed long enough."

Lightning Strikes Car.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 15.—Twenty-five persons were injured, several probably fatally, when lightning struck a crowded Hamilton street car at Fifth and Wood streets in the center of the downtown district during a severe electrical storm this afternoon. J. T. Hoffman, 52, motorman, was severely injured when the lightning which struck the trolley wire came down into the car and exploded the controller. A number of women and children were trampled in a panic which followed.

Merchandise is scarce and deliveries uncertain. There will not be enough full fashioned hosiery to supply the demand this year—we will get about half of our purchase.

Very little to be had in novelty lace and embroidered goods. Prices are 50% higher for later deliveries.

Leather goods are extremely high—there are very few new pieces and practically no seal leather to be had—some lines are already withdrawn—Have some extreme novelty designs—"lunks" they call them—they are shown in dull patent leather and suede to sell from $3.00 to $15.00.

MEN'S SILK SHIRTS are about 50% higher and men out on a strike.

SILK BAGS—Looked at one high-priced line in fine gold plate and sterling frames. Silk chiffon veils—good looking is mild, but they are priced higher than our highest priced bags retail for.

NOVELTY JEWELRY—Beads are shown in a greater array than ever before. Think we were fortunate in being able to get a good showing in real Whitby Jet. Jet seems to be a favorite. These come in short and long chains—some 60 inches long. Our lot includes some rare antiques.
