

Y. W. HOME HOUR PROGRAM

Entertainment of Highest Order Is Promised for Today.

The Home Hour program of the Y. W. C. A. at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon will be just one interesting number after another. The two singers are Mrs. C. M. Bosley and Mrs. Sullivan and the two speakers, Miss Helen Paul and Mrs. J. O. Cheairs. The Y. W. membership committee is to be host for the occasion. Particular interest will attach to the "high C's" featured in Mrs. Bosley's vocal solo from the fact that she and her husband will shortly be sailing over the high C's to Chesapeake. Mr. Bosley having been appointed assistant to the physical director of the Y. W. C. A. abroad during the latter part of the war.

The place of the association in the community will be the subject of the talk by Miss Paul and Mrs. Cheairs will give a concluding report on the last field conference at Dallas.

"The Lone Wolf's Daughter"

By LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

A tremendous drama and melo-drama combined; a story embracing the characters, the thrills, the overpowering grip and fascination of "The Lone Wolf" and "False Faces."

The wily, all-knowing, all-seeing Lone Wolf himself

A crafty, desperate and overpowering ingenious enemy and rival — opponents always at each other's throat. A drama enacted from the interior splendors of Buckingham Palace to the mysterious depths of London's "Limehouse" and more vividly pictured by an American author.

A new and fascinating, beautiful girl—"THE LONE WOLF'S DAUGHTER"

As a melo-dramatic production it is easily the greatest, the most sumptuous, the most daring of the picture maker's art. A splendid cast, including Edwin Stevens, Louise Glaum, Thomas Holding and Bertram Grassby.

Note the screen time and see it from the beginning:

11 - 12:30 - 2 - 3:30 - 5 - 6:30 - 8 - 9:30

Owing to the length of this attraction, "The Lone Wolf's Daughter" will begin within a few moments of the scheduled time above quoted.
