WESTERN ASSOCIATION MAGNATES MEET IN TULSA TODAY

TEN CITIES TO BE PRESENT TODAY

Final Organization of the Circuit to Be Perfected Next Meeting.

TO DECIDE PERSONNEL

Final Details for Coming Season Will Be Made at This Session.

BY LARRY DAILEY

After much indecision due in the many applications for franchies organization of the Western Hasters of unsecrition for 1938 is to be perfected here today. Magnates of that eresult are to need in the final conference of the season at the lirady hotel at 120 eclost, and all details will be consummated this afternoon, thus clearing the way for mart of active operations for the season.

An unprecedented number of ap-for the season.

An unprecedented number of applications for franctises this season has caused the bacners of the southwestern class D circuit to hes itats in forming their personnel as it was desired to secure the test cities available. After considering each application for several wooks, only 10 cities remain to be compilered. From these cities, an eight or six-club circuit will be formed today it is desirable that the Western association comprise eight cities, but should it be found that an eight-oran circuit would not be as compact as a six-club organizaas compact as a six-club organiza-tion, then the latter will be organ-ked for this season.

Indicate Successful Year.

The many applications for beriles in the Western association forecast the popularity of baseball for the coming season, and indicate that one of the grand old games greatest years is in prospect. As the Western association has always been one of the livest minor league circuits, it therefore follows that with the unusually favorable conditions this year, baseball in the Western association is in for a big year. Ten cities will be represented as ern association is in for a big year.

Ten cities will be represented at today's meeting, according to the league president. The cities and their representatives are as follows: Okmuigee, Dick Cooley, Pawhuska, Norman and Howard Price, Drumright, F. R. McGaha; McAlester, M. H. Robertson, representing E. A. Daniels: Fort Smith, Blake Harper and Charley Schmidt; Springfield, Danny Nee and Docton Seebold, Enid, Al Wise and Ted Waring, and Henryetta. Emmett Rogers, Chickasha and Muskogee fans are understood to have signified their intentions of being represented.

Six Cities, Okmuigee, Pawhuska, Drumright, McAlester, Fort Smith and Springfield are ready to go. Sale of season tickets has been under way in those towns for several weeks. Those six cities may be figured as certainties. Enid looms as another corriginty. Pages of the ured as certainties. Enid looms as another certainty. Fans of the hustling northern burg are real sportsmen, who will support a baseball club capably run. They did it in the days of the old Western as-sociation, before the rise of the rich Garber oil fields, and they'll do it Garber oil fields, and they'll do it now. In Ted Waring, a former major league star and later a mimor league manager of note, and Al Wise, a veteran baseball man of varied experience. Enid will have two men who will serve the interests of that city to the best advantage. Henryetta has made repeated bids for a franchise, and Mr. Rogers plans tomake a fight to secure a berth for that city.

Muskogee's status will be definite-

That is all the Western association can do. Chickasha is planning on making a strong bid for a place, but as the possibilities of that city have never been discussed before, it is therefore, impossible to forecast what their chances are.

Giant Pirst Baseman on Way to Coast, While Former Teammates Start Training.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Hal Chase, once principal first baseman, has turned his back on baseball. He is going into the movies.

While the advance squad of the New York Giants got under way here today for San Antonio, Chase was speeding westward toward Los Angeles to take up the silent drama A friend of the great first base-man said today it is improbable he can be lured back to the diamond. He is reported to have received a contract calling for more salary than he received last year, but he failed to return it to the Giants and nothing has been heard from him personally at Giant head-

Heinie Zimmerman has returned his unsigned contract to the New York club. He was not among the players who left here for Texas via St. Louis It is believed he will be traded to some other club.

The members of the Glants who made up the advance squad leaving New York will be joined on route by other players and still others will go to San Antonio from their homes.

Manager McGraw will join the team in San Antonio carly next week.

With Giant fans in a quandary over Chase's suddled desertion, followers of the Yankees reloised at the news that all but four members of the team have been signed. Catcher "Truck" Hannah, Pitcher O'Dout and Infielder Aaron Ward remain out of the fold, while Frans Rakes is being taken at his work. Baker is being taken at his word and is not expected to return to the

"THE HOUSE OF COURTEOUS SERVICE"

WE ARE NOW PREPARED TO HANDLE YOUR BUSINESS

After more than a month of inactivity in our contract department, we will resume operations on a large scale Monday. With a good-sized force of efficient workmen on the job, we are ready to execute large or small painting and paperhanging contracts speedily and efficiently. You will find our workmen courteous, gentlemanly, and capable.

By our new policy our workmen will be paid on the merit and efficiency they display. They will be paid for the amount of work they actually accomplish. Their earning power is limited by their abilty to produce results. The new policy will mean greater efficiency, which will result in a material saving for our customers.

Last week we received a carload of glass, a carload of paint, and a liberal supply of wall paper in latest designs. This material is of the best quality obtainable, and is from the leading glass, paint and wall paper houses of America. It was bought several weeks ago at a price much lower than the market today. This saving will go to our customers.

We have enough pure white lead, turpentine and linseed oil to supply prsent needs, and at attractive prices.

Although we have 19 painting and paperhanging contracts on file awaiting the first of the month, our organization will be prepared to take on a few more contracts.

We do not intend to pay the straight wage of $10 a day demanded by the unions on March 1. The wage scale we will pay is dependent entirely upon the actual production of each individual worker. Efficiency will draw the wages of efficiency. If the worker earns $15 a day, he will receive it. If he earns $5 a day, that is the amount he will be given. Paperhangers will be paid by the roll.
