GET 78 GALLONS OF 'CORN' IN RAID

Deputies Say Captured Still Will Make 35 Jugs of Whisky Per Day.

ARREST MOONSHINERS

Armed Force Searches Hills Between Depew and Shamrock in Quest of Liquor.

Special to The World.

SAPULPA, June 4.—After a raid lasting from 2 o'clock this morning until 7 o'clock tonight Sheriff Abner Bruce and Deputies Jake Klingman, E. C. Wallace, J. F. Renfro and Jim Hutchings returned here late this evening with two white men and two negro men together with 78 gallons of alleged corn whisky and a still said to be capable of producing 35 gallons of the beverage per day.

The raid covered a territory several miles square starting from a lonely dirt trail seven miles northwest of Depew and leading through the hills toward Shamrock. The first arrest was made shortly after daylight this morning when Jeff Phillips and George Cole, negroes, were found in a buggy driving toward Shamrock, a gallon jug of "white mule" between them. Both will probably be charged with possession of intoxicants Sheriff Bruce said.

The negroes are said to have refused to give any information as to where the alleged whisky came from, causing the officers to spread fan-like searching every shack in their path, and finally coming to a lonely house occupied by J. H. Parker and wife.

When Deputy Klingman approached the house from one side, a man was seen leaving the house. He was halted after threats to shoot, each officer being equipped with sawed off shotguns as well as revolvers. The man said he was Parker and was arrested.

On the property the officers found a 25-gallon "still" which was said to have been in operating condition, and several "spare parts," for the apparatus including an extra copper coil, were found.

A quantity of alleged corn whisky was stored in a building near Parker's house. A short distance away stood the house occupied by R. M. Taylor. A raid on this place also revealed a stock of bottled goods, in gallons, apparently ready for transportation to nearby cities, where there is a ready market, Sheriff Bruce said.

The confiscated "still," as well as the "corn," was stored in ar empty storeroom at Bristow under heavy guard.

TULSA MAY HAVE MACHINE GUN CO.

National Guard Officer Thinks Tulsa Is an Ideal Location.

Tulsa is the logical place for a machine gun company of the Oklahoma National guard in the opinion of Major James Bell who said yesterday that the city can secure such a concession if the required number of good, red-blooded Americans qualified to hold commissions and non-commissioned warrents in such a company are available.

"Men qualified," said Major Bell, "will be commissioned and may attend the officers' school which will be held in Oklahoma City from June 6 to June 20 under regular army instructors. This will be fine training and men attending will be performing a patriotic duty by helping to keep America prepared with the right kind of a citizen's army.

"There are now two vacancies in the infantry company and we need the full quota of officers for the machine gun company. We would like to hear from any good men, especially ex-service men who are qualified and patriotic enough to sacrifice one evening a week for which the government will pay liberally.

"Persons interested will please call at the old Armory, Fifth and Boston, or phone O-6739 for farther information."

Correction.

Oklahoma City, June 3, 1920.
To Whom It May Concern:

With reference to the statement appearing in the Sapulpa Herald and The Tulsa World on June 2, to the effect that E. F. Stroter and A. N. Stroter were held on a bogus or forged check charge in Oklahoma county, in fairness to them such erroneous statement should be corrected. There were no such charges against them. Their purported connections with the charges on which they were held are unfounded and the charges have been dismissed.

(Signed) EDGAR FENTON,
President Oklahoma State Federation of Labor.

Allege She Stole Handbag.

Mary Johnson, a negro woman charged with stealing a hand bag and stick pin from the apartment of R. C. Culter, 702 South Cheyenne avenue on May 27, was held under bond of $500 for trial by district court at the close of her preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice S. C. Maxey. Culter claims the woman entered the apartment and took the hand bag and pin valued at $52 during the absence of those living in the apartment.
