PERSONALITY=INTEGRITY

are both exemplified by the progressive strides of this institution during the past year

The Security State Bank, while intensely practical, was conceived as an ideal, an ideal among banks, and the ideal of its builders. Money could not buy the earnest efforts devoted by its founders or the personal sacrifices its personnel has cheerfully made to carry out and develop the ideal in a "banking home," where personality permeates and predominates. It is our purpose to make this bank as near and as intensely human as any great business organization can be.

AN INDEPENDENT BANK—Owned entirely at home, by residents of Tulsa, its officers and directors are its largest shareholders. It serves no special interest, has no occasion to serve or be dominated by any particular group or concern, but to hold in readiness its influence to supply with fairness and impartiality the needs of its own loyal patrons, and to foster the welfare of its own city and county.

PERMANENCY OF MANAGEMENT—The Bank leadership continues under the guidance of the organizers, who recognized the "Tulsa Spirit," founded upon an experience gathered from an intimate insight in the affairs of practical banking, drawing together a substantial board and associates, supported by twenty-five hundred local patrons. A BANK UPON A BROAD PLAN, BREADTH OF VISION, BUILT TO GROW.

ITS OWNERSHIP—The shareholders are loyal, active and earnest in their ownership, including responsible and substantial citizens representing every important interest in Tulsa. They became shareholders on account of an abiding faith in the bank, its personnel and the future of Tulsa. None of the stock belongs to speculators. The Bank is proud, indeed, of its stockholders, and it is doubtful if any bank was ever able to point to a stronger or more deservedly popular list.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS—Our Board of Directors is composed of substantial, successful men, each appreciating the responsibility of his office and each an uncompromising stickler for the high ideal of the bank; each a sovereign advocate of fair dealing and of exact justice to all patrons upon a "BASIS OF MERIT;" a board of integrity; men, to whom an ideal and a principle outweigh all else, the most INVULNERABLE ASSETS any bank can have.

THE YOUNG MAN'S BANK—Officered by young men of rich banking experience, not out of touch with young men's affairs and ambitions; ready and happy to counsel with and assist young men of energy and ability. They are always within reach. This Bank is their "hobby." They have time for the man of small means. This is the institution of youth, energy and hustle, The young man's Bank for young men where faith and optimism are not on the wane—where in accord with the actuary's table you have reasonable expectancy of many years of undisturbed co-operation.

SUMMARY—We believe that this Bank grows upon its merits. Its strength, fortified with every safeguard, an able Board of Directors, independent ownership, clean business ethics, courtesy and personality, together with a management which works devotedly for an ideal and not for temporary profits.
