

SUMMER FALLS ON KENDALL HALL

Professors Leave for Quiet
Sectors During Hot
Vacation Months

RE-OPEN SEPTEMBER 10

Summer Camps, Honeymoons,
Politics and Visits Scheduled—Dr. Gordon Remains

Several faculty members engaged in preparation for the 1920-21 school year at Kendall college, the new president, Dr. J. M. Gordon, and workmen busied about the college grounds and buildings. Will be the sole inhabitants of Kendall during the summer months.

With the departure of Kendall college students from the "classic halls of happiest memories" at the close of commencement during the past week, summer silence descended upon the campus. Kemp lodge, the girls' dormitory, has been closed, and has been also the dining hall, Robertson hall, the boys' dormitory, which, however, will be occupied during the summer by a number of young men who will work in Tulsa to make their expenses for the coming school year.

Doctor Gordon will arrive from Ada this week with his wife, four sons, and daughters to take possession of the college until August 1 when he and his family will go on a month's vacation.

Franklin G. Dill, dean of the college, will remain at the college campus during June and July to assist in preparation for the next term and will spend August at his home in Lawrence, Kan.

Prof. V. H. Kimbrough, registrar and professor of history, sociology and economics, will also remain at the college for awhile before taking part of his vacation in Texas.

Prof. J. H. Robinson, of the commercial department, left Saturday to attend the republican convention at Chicago, after which he will reside on a farm in Ohio during the summer months.

Prof. I. S. McLeod, head of the department of psychology and education, is now spending his honeymoon in the mountains of Arkansas. He and his bride, formerly Miss Edith Glittinger of this city, will be at home here after July 15.

Prof. E. P. Chase, head of the biology department, will go to Ohio on Monday to spend the summer with relatives. Prof. Silas I. Davis, head of chemistry and geology, is now at his home in Lawrence, Kan.

Schmidt, athletic coach, will go to Portland, Ore., with the Shriner band attend the democratic convention in San Francisco, and spend the rest of the vacation period in Canada.

M. L. Cooley, bursar of the college, has resigned to take charge of the office of E. P. Harwell, Prof. C. B. Duffenack will remain in Tulsa until in July when with his family he will go to Princeton university for a year's research fellowship.

Prof. John Knowles Weaver, of the Kendall conservatory of music, will retain his music classes for a portion of the summer following the general assembly of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Flora Benedict, the Spanish instructor, will "summer vacation" in her home in Marietta, Ohio. Miss Mary Allen, dean of women, with her mother, Mrs. Ellen A. Allen, left Saturday evening to summer in Ithaca, N. Y.

Miss Frances Reubelt, head of the romance language department, will spend a part of the summer at her home in Eufaula, Okla. Miss Avis Allison, instructor of public school music, is now at her home in Pittsburg, Kan.

Miss Venetta Jones, principal of the academy, and Miss Louise

ORPHEUM SHOW

A GOOD ONE

Bert Swor, who was billed to appear at the Orpheum yesterday and for the balance of the week, missed connections and did not arrive until too late last night to make his appearance. He will appear at all the performances the rest of the week, starting with the matinee today.

Harry Watson Jr., who is headlining the show, has one of the funniest acts that has been seen in Tulsa. After seeing his two comedy bits, "Batling Kid Dugan" and his telephone scene, the people of Tulsa can readily see why he was featured with the famous "Ziegfeld Follies" for several seasons. Harry Watson has a great act that will make anyone forget a bad case of the blues.

Harry Hayden and company have a clever little act in "The Love Game." Hayden is a well known actor, having appeared lately in David Belasco's "The Bonaparte." His act contains many clever lines and affords the audience a pleasant 15 minutes. One of the hits of the bill yesterday was the act of Green and Dean, two boys who have a clever singing act. Their songs are new and presented in a manner that wins the audience from the start.

Elizabeth Nelson and the Barry boys in a medley of vaudeville hits was another act which was well received. Lawton, in a few stunts of juggling, gives the show a fast start, while the closing act held the audience until the final fall of the curtain. The show is an unusually good one, and with Bert Swor appearing the rest of the week, starting today, it should pull capacity houses.—Advt.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Don't you want to have long, glossy beautiful hair? You can if you use Nelson's Hair Dressing

Nelson's makes stubborn, curly hair soft, glossy and easy to manage. It's fine for the scalp, removes dandruff and makes the hair grow.

All good drug stores in U. S. keep Nelson's. Be sure to get genuine Nelson's.

Nelson Mfg. Co., Richmond, Va.

Woods, Latin instructor in the academy, are now "at home" in their homes in Tulsa. Miss Minnie W. Griffith, head of the art department, will motor through Colorado with a party of friends, before going to her home in Louisville, Ky. Miss Margaret Wyndham, head of the expression department, will remain in Tulsa until August when she will go to Chicago for a summer course and to Lake Chautauqua.

School will reopen at Kendall on September 10.

FIND CLUE TO MISSING MAN

Think Man in Weatherford Jail May Be J. T. Markes

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.
HENRYETTA, Okla., June 6.—Some light may be thrown upon the mystery surrounding the disappearance of J. T. Markes, an employee of the Oklahoma Producing and Refining company at its Kiefer station, last seen in Tulsa when he cashed a check on May 25, in a statement made by Mrs. C. W. Hummer, who has just returned from Weatherford, Texas, where her husband is building a hotel.

Mrs. Hummer states that a supposed insane man who answers the description of Markes is now confined in the Weatherford jail and that the authorities there are endeavoring to learn his identity and family connections.

Burkholder Returns.
