with that of any county in the southwest.

A carland of thoroughbred Shorthorn cattle. 19 adults and five calves arrived on the farm Saturday from Pleasant Hill, Mc. The herd was purchased through W. A. Cachel, secretary of the American Shorthorn Breeders association, all the leading herds in Missourh are represented in the bunch. The parchase was authorized by the county commissioners about a month ago.

That another carload of equally fine cattle will be purchased in the near future is thought probable by officials. The cattle will not only help to make the farm self-sustaining it is said, but will furnish fine foundation stock for local farmers.
