TUESDAY, MAY 12, 1891.

SHORTLY Laid on whiskey, but Willey led on votes and—

SAVILL is sick, but Bach and the News are well enough to exchange mutual "snarls."

If the Vatican really wants damages for the dynamite explosions it would be well to pursue the course with Rudin that he tried with the United States.

THE chase of the Lata has begun, but we fear it is more of a chase for votes in the Republican Convention than to capture the Lata. It may not result in either.

SOCKLESS SIMPSON says he has "learned a good deal of interest to him during his Eastern trip," the people of the East have learned nothing to interest them in him, however.

A NEGRO soldier in the Ninth (colored) United States Cavalry stationed at Lawrence, Kansas, has emulated "Jim the Ponman" by forging a bank draft for $30,000 and a paper granting his own release.

THE Tar and the Tartar is the title of a new opera, with Digby Bell, Hubert Wilke, Helen Bertram and Annie Myers in the cast. The critics say that it may not suit New York, but it will have a brilliant run on the road, which means, perhaps, that it is quite leggy.

DR. MORRIS exposed the hypocrisy of Dr. Shoroban very neatly at the meeting of the School Board last night. The fact candidate for mayor has been posing as the friend of the negroes at negro political meetings, but he has postponed the efforts to establish a manual training department in the negro school on one plea or another until his duplicity has finally been exposed.

LIFE is too short to waste in hunting down and contradicting the malicious mendacity of the Every Evening concerning Democrats; we desire to say by way of general denial, that it is the result of general and lamentable editorial incompetence and unmanly and offensive personal spite. It should be ignored because of the imbecility of its author or pardoned because of his insanity.

THE number of Americans in Italy has decreased; that is not so important or so much desired as that the number of Italians in America should decrease. It would be well if the murderers would take that gentle hint at New Orleans and keep away without further and more emphatic invitation. It seems that any reasonable murderer could understand that hint.

IT seems that Mr. Blaine has done some really good work in negotiating the treaty with Spain that will greatly to our trade. This has not been done on the theory of the adequacy of the "home market" or on the ideas of the protectionist cranks as expressed in the McKinley bill. It is a distinct departure indeed for a larger and freer trade. It will lead logically and inevitably to the downfall of the robber tariff duties.

THE wonderfully large accumulation of coin on deposit in various banks in Europe to the credit of the Russian Government has raised the grave suspicion that Russia is preparing for the impending war. Bismarck said that the first battle of the next great European war would be fought in the bourse. It seems as if the fear of all the Russians believes that to be true and is gathering and banding strength for the great struggle.

WHAT a fall there would have been if Chief Swiggett had stood for the nomination of mayor. He was too heavy a weight for a popular man like Bayard to carry. Is there any indication that the average Republican voter cares for popularity, respectability or good character? The evidence goes to show that the potent influences of the primary were money, whiskey, beer, Addeles and Bach mixed, well-shaken and taken in quantities to suit.

IT seems singular, to say the least, that Mr. Blaine should always have an attack of something, a sun-stroke or should write a letter to a personal friend which falls into the hands of the public press just at the particular time when a rival candidate for the Presidency is enjoying too much public notice. Mr.
Blaine's attack of indignation may be real, but in the light of his many previous attacks of something we view it more with amused suspicion than with alarm.

THE Every Evening has undertaken the task of separating the city ticket for the approaching municipal election from Speaker Donahoe. We infer from this that it regards Mr. Donahoe as not a winning card to present to the voters of Wilmington—Morning News.

THE Democratic party is not responsible for the silliness, the crankiness or the vindictive violence of the Every Evening. As a notice in this paper states those distinguished citizens—the recognized leaders in all public movements in Delaware—Senator George Gray, Hon. Charles D. Loe and

Thomas F. Bayard, will address the citizens, stating the Democratic position in the coming campaign. The Every Evening is "not in it." It has deemed it necessary, "in fact, to declare that it was not a Democratic organ." That is as necessary as it would be for the devil to declare that he is not a Christian.

AFTER a fierce factional and disgraceful struggle the Republicans have put a ticket in the field which will be cut by many dissatisfied persons and openly repudiated by others; the registration law if properly enforced will deprive the Republican candidates of a great many of the fraudulent votes by which they are expecting to win, hence there is a good chance for the Democrats to carry the city. It is better than a fighting chance, and the Democrats should pluck up courage, spirit, devotion and patriotism to defeat the efforts to Africanize Delaware which began last November.

THE censure of the Middletown Transcript of May 7, 1891, and a commendation of the same paper of 1889 in the Every Evening are quoted by the latter in parallel columns to show the difference. The difference is complimentary, if anything, to the Transcript.
The Every Evening several years ago was a different paper, influenced by higher motives than now. It has been deteriorating ever since Crossville forsook it. It has lost even its good reporters, Kurtz, Harold and Hyatt. There is no question that it has deteriorated to a marked and lamentable degree within the last three or four months. Hence the two opinions of the Transcript are discreditable, not to the editor of the Transcript, but to the Every Evening. The Transcript has simply given form to a comment that is notorious in regard to the change and decadence of the mongrel mugwump.

THE public interest in the trial of Dr.
Briggs is not so much personal as some of the Every Evening's imagine. There is a strong movement in the church for a change more or less radical in the standards of the church and for a general modification of the drastic dogmas of the church on some of the very points on which Dr. Briggs is being tried for heresy. The case of Dr. Briggs may be easily disposed of. He has taught doctrines contrary to the standards of the church as laid down in the Confession of Faith or he has not. That is a question of fact.
The interest of the public in the case is not what the church will do with the particular case of Dr. Briggs, but what it will do with its obnoxious teachings.
Will it modify or reiterate them? In a manner, the church itself is on trial, not Dr. Briggs only. He is merely the personification of a general movement, it may be termed a general dissatisfaction within the church, and the public interest is in the disposition of the church to concede to that.

THE charge that the Republican primary was accompanied by bribery, fighting, trickery, repeating, illegal voting, and all of the basest sorts of political debauchery known to the ward politician, cannot be denied nor extenuated by the Republican apologists. The Morning News defends the party by making a feeble thrust at the respectable manner in which the Democratic ticket was nominated. It says:

It may be "genteel" to arrange a city ticket for the suffrage of a city of sixty odd thousand inhabitants by means of a political committee, but it certainly is not Democratic.
The fact is, however, that it is a straight out, clean-cut ticket of respectable, honest and capable Democrats nominated by the Democratic association with the advice and approval of all the Democrats in the city, and if those things do not make the ticket Democratic we are at a loss to imagine how it can be proved to the satisfaction of the editor of the News except by being voted for and elected by the Democrats.
However that may be it is a curious defence the News makes of the charges of the wholesale political corruption and bribery by which its ticket was selected; of the presence of money, beer, repeaters and the hand of Addeles in the campaign. Are these evidences of another reform administration the Republicans intend to give the city?

MORE PERSONAL MALICE.
No man's character is safe. The Every Evening will soon run the whole gamut of the Democratic party in selecting individual Democrats for personal invective and chastisement.

When the Middletown Transcript censured the Every Evening for living on Democratic patronage till it could not extract anything more, and then flipping about like a political guerrilla between the lines of the two parties to pick comfort and advertising from both, the organ of malicious and mongrel mug-wamp made a personal attack on Abram Vandegrift of Middletown, the editor, and upon Lewis C. Vandegrift, the editor's brother here, and reverts to them in its favorite and elegant language as "roosters."

It is apparent that the editors and the owners are smarting under the whip and stings of an almost universal popular condemnation, and unable to defend themselves against the comments of papers—notably of the EVENING JOUR-NAL—they attempt to obtain revenge by personal assaults, as vulgar as they are base and ungentlemanly, on the personal character of private citizens.

There is no surer evidence of the decadence of a newspaper and no more certain indication of the poor calibre of an editorial writer than that of descending to personal and virulent abuse of private citizens. The attacks of the Every Evening will lose their force because Lewis C. Vandegrift's character is too well established to be impugned, and because the attack evidently emanates from the private spite of one of the galaxy of conglomeration editorial incompetence which runs the delusory incompetence on the principles of the tramp gangs and cringes for a precarious living, and vilifies when they are returned.

No one connected with the paper stands so firmly in public esteem and affection for his ability or character that he can afford to abuse respectable citizens, especially Democrats, whose favor has given the Every Evening its living.

NEWSPAPER OPINION.

Condemns Mongrel Mug. Endorses Middletown Transcript.
In the case of Mr. Dickey's, circumstances are somewhat different. He has secured the support of certain persons who have found him unwilling to submit to dictation, and these persons are now threatening the party with all kinds of punishment, because the governor appointed a man who was backed by more letters and more personal recommendations than any other. The governor had asked these very men who now object, for a candidate who would meet their wishes, but they presented none and made no effort to prevent the appointment of Mr. Dickey; as they held their peace so carefully before the appointment they should do so now.
The Every Evening has done everything within the scope of its limited power to belittle Mr. Dickey and humiliate the governor, but it is known to be conducted in such a way as to render impossible the expression of an honest and fearless opinion of public measures. Some years since the Every Evening hounded out of Wilmington a lot of gallant men to the great advantage of the city; the next proceeding was to ask the Levy Court to pay $1,000 for the job; this the Levy Court very properly refused to do and ever since that day the Every Evening has been a person who was in any way connected with the city. It is a refusal to pay, with public funds, for work done for advertising purposes. We endorse the appointment of Mr. Dickey and believe that he will apply to the duties and justice which he is sworn to apply to the conduct of his private business.

Governor Reynolds Did the Best He Could.

The appointments do not meet with universal favor. There is complaint against Dickey because he is a "ringster." This man was recommended to the governor and there is nothing serious against him, the consequence must either be for the good of the party or against it.
The appointees have but eighteen months to serve, and at the end, the people know the record of the governor, the governor or by supporting the party nominees, favor the appointments. We believe Governor Reynolds acted for the best in making the appointments, and he tried to do the best he could. The matter will receive the full share of talk, and we shall pull together and elect our ticket when the time arrives.

Yes, Probably Governor Reynolds is a Republican.

The Democrats are provoked and the Republicans jubilant over the blunder Governor Reynolds made in the appointment of John T. Dickey as treasurer of the office of county treasurer. The appointment is not in accord with the spirit of reform as expressed in the text of the Five Commissioners bill. It calls for a man to fill the office whose past life is untainted with the record of corrupt politics.
But this provision has been disregarded, and the appointment is a direct approval of bossism and political roosterism. It is a stunning blow to the already tottering ranks of Democracy, and nothing can be more helpful toward an overwhelming Republican majority at the next gubernatorial election.

The People Indebted to the Democratic Party.

After the wholesale corruption at the polls that have characterized the elections of late years, it will be a great relief to honest men of all parties to know that there is a law upon our statute books for the prevention of such gross perversion of the will of the people.
To the Democratic party will be such a debt for the passage of such a law and another reason will be added for the retention of that party in power.

The Weather.
Indications for the Middle States today: Cooler, partly cloudy to fair weather and fresh northerly and northwesterly winds will prevail, preceded by rain on and near the upper coast, followed by clearing.

New York Herald Forecasts.—The cool northwestern anti-cyclone has moved westward, and the weather is clearing.
A depression now off the Delaware Capes is advancing northeast. It gave rise to thunderstorms along the Middle Atlantic coast line last evening and night. Temperatures fell in the United States yesterday. The chief fall in the reported was 32 degrees Fahrenheit at Dodge City, Kan.; the chief minimum in the evening was 83 degrees, at Augusta, Ga.

The "Equitable Life" holds a larger surplus, writes a larger annual surplus, has a larger amount of insurance in force and pays a larger dividend than any other company in the world.

Olivet Church Corner Stone.
The corner stone of the new Olivet Presbyterian Church at Fourth and Broome streets will be laid at 8 o'clock this evening. The order of exercises will be as follows: Hymn, invocation, scripture, reading articles in stone; address, "What May We Be to the World?" by the pastor, Rev. George E. Thompson; laying of corner stone; brief address, six minutes each, as follows:

The Advantage of a Church in a Community, by Rev. G. M. Hickman; The Church as the Advance Guard of Civilization, by Rev. A. N. Kelgwin;
The Child and the Church, by W. K. Crosby; What Presbyterianism Has Done for the World, by Rev. L. Marks, D. D.; "The Relative Growth of Churches With the Population of Wilmington," by Rev.
William P. Swartz; "The Church as a City," by Rev. W. L. McEwan; hymn; benediction.
The following articles will be placed in the corner stone: A copy of each of the daily papers, a list of the former pastors, names of present past members of the congregation, of the Board of Trustees of the Building Committee, twenty third annual report of the Wilmington Institute, new dollar of the present year.

STORIES OF THE DAY.

They Want the "Evening Journal."
"What is the matter with the Every Evening?" asked a puzzled newboy in the EVENING JOURNAL office last night.
"Everybody is stopping it," he said.
"The JOURNAL," the cranky old thing has an acute attack of general debility and is rapidly approaching final dissolution.
Anybody can see what is the matter by glancing at its local and editorial pages.

Why a Kentucky Girl Took Offense.
A girl in Kentucky has recovered $500 damages from a steamboat company for naming a boat after her without asking her permission, and she has named the boat. She took offense at a name that item stating that "Kittie Marshall took the lower chute and ran her nose into a plantation."—Detroit Free Press.

NEW CASTLE PRESBYTERY.

Routine Business—Ordination and Sermon in Rodney Street Church.

The adjourned session of the New Castle Presbytery reconvened in Rodney Street Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon. Rev. W. L. McEwan, moderator, presided.
Rev. G. D. Thompson, pastor of Olivet, read a narrative concerning the growth and condition of Presbyterianism which was adopted after having been amended in some particulars. The minutes of the Olivet Church were approved on a favorable report from Rev. A. N. Kelgwin.
The trustees of the presbytery through chairman, William M. Canby, reported having made an investigation of the church property at Lincoln, Sussex county. The church was abandoned, the elders dead or dead, the records lost, and nothing to give the New Castle Presbytery power to act. A mortgage was held by the Church of Christ Erection for more than its value, and the only way left for the mortgage to foreclose and sell the property. The report was adopted.

Rev. J. F. Stonelpher presented the report on Sunday school work, which showed collections for Sunday schools in home and foreign missions, $6,034.30; number of schools, 69; teachers and officers, 885; scholars, 6,997. The report was adopted.

Rev. A. N. Kelgwin moved to have the rule of the presbytery requiring applicants for ordination, whose examination as applicants for license had been sustained, to be re-examined for ordination, appealed. It was declared by the majority to be against the general law of the church and was withdrawn. Rev.
J. E. Franklin, an applicant for license, was sustained, and after having preached, was licensed by the moderator to preach. E. E. Williams, candidate for ordination, was examined, and the ordination fee for last night at Rodney Street Church.

Rev. W. P. Swartz made a report of the committee on temperance, which recommended the appointment of seven delegates to the National Temperance Convention in Saratoga next June. The recommendations were sustained.

The bill of expenses for the prosecution of Rev. J. R. Campbell, amounting to $44.72, was presented and ordered paid.
The presbytery adjourned from 6 to 7:30 o'clock.

At the evening session E. E. Williams, a graduate of the Princeton Theological Seminary, was ordained to the ministry.
Rev. J. L. Vallandigham preached. Rev.
J. E. Franklin, D. D., preached, and the moderator proposed the questions.
It was moved by Rev. A. N. Kelgwin to have a member of the presbytery go before the Synod of Baltimore and defend their body when the case of Rev. J. R.
Campbell came up for trial. The stated clerk was authorized to prepare all the testimony in the case and have it submitted to the Synod of Baltimore. The presbytery then adjourned.

NORRISTOWN VS. WILMINGTON.

The Strong Visiting Team Given a Warm Reception—Wilmington's New Management.

Another fine game of base ball was played at the Riverfront grounds yesterday afternoon, when the Wilmington Club met the strong Norristown club, which is a part of the old Harrisburg Association club. The home team played a fine fielding game. Burris and Thompson were the batters, and their work was great considering the strength of the visitors at the bat. Whitlock had a record of fifteen put outs, but one error and his customary three-base hit.
Hawke and Hoffman played winning ball and covered a wide area about their positions.

The visitors, with the exception of Fusselback on third base, played a great game. Cox and Grulich, who were in the visitors' line, were the best of the strongest Atlantic Association batsmen last year, and were in excellent condition yesterday. Their strong work held Wilmington's batters down to seven hits.
The game was as spirited an exhibition as could be desired, and the Wilmington Club is now in condition to play before much larger assemblages than that of yesterday. The score follows:

Wilmington..... 3 0 2 0 0 0 0 5 Norristown..... 8 0 1 3 0 1 0 15 Base hits—Wilmington, 3; Norristown, 10.
Errors—Wilmington, 2; Norristown, 4. Three base hits—Hawke, Grulich, Hoffman.
Two base hits—Gormley, Hollaker, Grulich.
Clymer to Owens to Hollaker. Double play—Hollaker to Owens to Hollaker. Strike out—Hollaker, Burris, Fusselback and Grulich.
Left on bases—Wilmington, 3; Norristown, 1.
Passed balls—Thompson, 2; Stolen bases—Owens, E. Cox, 2; Grulich, Burris, and Hoffman. Batsmen in order—Hawke, Hoffman, Harris and To G. Sacrifice hit—Hoffman.
Time—2:25. Umpire—Lytle.

BASE BALL NOTES.

A practice game will be played by the Delaware Field Club and Friends' School club on May 12, at the Union grounds on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The Reds and Whites of the Ironsides Social Club played an exciting game at the grounds at Thirtieth and Madison streets yesterday afternoon. The umpire was Dr. Hart, and the opposing batteries were Deane and Appleby, and Chappel and Schofield.

Efforts to secure a permanent catcher, who is also capable of acting as captain and manager of the team, are still being made. Black and White, who have both been tried, are first-class catchers, but the former is a married man and cannot conveniently remove to Wilmington, and it is claimed that White has not had experience enough to act as field captain and manager.

The newly-incorporated Delaware Exhibition Company has purchased the Wilmington Base Ball Club and will run it on a strict business plan. The club will be strengthened by two or three experienced players and the team will play one week each month. For this week two more games have been arranged. Those are with Chester on Thursday and Sharkey's Athletics on Saturday.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

MAGISTRATE (severely).—"Why did you drive through the crowded thoroughfares at the rate of fifteen miles an hour?
Do you think that the streets belong to you?" Culprit (earnestly protesting).
"But, your honor, I drive a beer wagon."
—New York Sun.

"Don't feel well," and yet you are not sick enough to consult a doctor—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncertain, uncomfortable dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness.

"Yes, he died a natural death. He just went from one sleep into another.
Still he fell into the last sleep." What was deceased's occupation? He was a policeman."—Epoch.

Great Invention.
Professor West, No. 305 Market street, has been recently awarded a patent for Eye Glasses, which seem to be the best ever known. Call and see for yourself and have your eyes examined free and get a pair of his glasses.

SUNWAY.—"Is this Miss Scudder you speak of beautifully?" Hunter—"Isn't she beautiful? Why, I never saw a cat so crowded that she couldn't get a seat in it."—New York Sun.

Ross has removed from 116 Market street to his new store, 210 Market street, with a large stock of latest styles of Hats, White Shirts, Neckwear, Hosiery, Footwear, and notions at the lowest city prices. Money returned if goods are not satisfactory.

The Wilmington Wheel Club will give a fine exhibition of track racing, and will conclude the season with a grand race on Saturday, Saturday, May 16, Races will commence at 2:30 o'clock, sharp.

WANAMAKER'S.
PHILADELPHIA, Tuesday May 12, 1891.
The weather to-day is likely to be clear.

Black Dress Goods have one of the most prominent spots in the store. Plenty of light and such an assortment as no other store in America can show.

But mere quantity isn't what we make most account of. If you get black Dress Stuffs at Wanamaker's you can know that the quality is right, and the color, and the price. Rusty blacks are a nuisance. Some makers have a knack for doing black Dress Goods as they should be. They are the ones we get close to.

These are some of the sorts you can see heaped on both sides the long aisle:

A Bicycle is the sort of a horse that don't eat his head off. You can get one here of any breed, pony to racing thoroughbred. Pet, $20; Junior, $25, and then by maybe a dozen steps up to a Victor Safety at $135.
Basement, Market street side.

36 different kinds of Tennis Rackets. All the leading makes and enough of each pattern to let you pick precisely the one that balances best in your hand: A. G. Spalding & Bros., Peck & Snyder, Wright & Ditson, and the "Wanamaker Specia," ($1 to $6) the equal of any make costing a third more.

Think of an Awning that shuts out the sun and helps out the hot air! Where were the Awning people's wits that they didn't hit on the idea before?
They say it will reduce the temperature of a Summer-hot room from 8 to 10 degrees. See one and the simple, sure, sensibleness of the arrangement will be instantly apparent. $4 and upwards.

An Awning of the ordinary kind and size put up complete for $2.75.
Awning Stripes by the yard, 15 to 50 cents.
