

CASHER LIVESY IS OUT

His Resignation in Treasurer Boyer's Hands.

THE MCAMANT-BARDSLEY LETTERS

They Are Said to Indicate That There Was Collusion Between Barsley, McCamant and Livesy—No Mention of "Neckties and Handkerchiefs."

HARRISBURG, Sept. 23.—State Treasurer Boyer on his return to the capital found the resignation of Cashier Livesy awaiting him. It was mailed at Milwaukee, Wis., on Aug. 26. Domestic circumstances are given as the cause.

Barsley and McCamant.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—District Attorney Graham has given out to the newspapers the much talked of correspondence between Auditor General McCamant and Cashier Livesy on the one side and John Barsley on the other, which it is contended, only needed the corroborative evidence of Barsley himself to enable Mr. Graham to frame a criminal indictment against Mr. McCamant.

The letters are, in general, an acknowledgment of favors much more valuable than any before offered to in print, and there is an entire lack of any mention of the "neckties and handkerchiefs" which Mr. McCamant testified Barsley had bought for him and by which he explained his thanks to Barsley for favors.

An Arrangement Between Them.
The letters, the authorities think, plainly show that there was collusion between McCamant and Barsley in procuring rebates from certain newspapers for advertising. It also shows an arrangement between Barsley and Livesy, by which the public funds were permitted to remain unlawfully in Barsley's hands until the interest accounts in the depositories could be closed.

Accompanying the correspondence is a brief compiled by Mr. Barlow, showing the supposed connection between certain letters from Harrisburg and postal orders or checks sent thither.

Checks and Thanks.
The brief shows that Barsley drew a check April 1, 1890, for $500 to McCamant's order and that there is a postoffice receipt for a registered letter dated April 2, signed by McCamant and Livesy. May 1, 1890, a check for $666 was sent, and in the correspondence is a letter from McCamant dated May 3, saying:

"Please accept my thanks for favors received this morning."
Numerous other checks for amounts varying from $75 to $1,000 are compared with similar letters from McCamant on following days, acknowledged with thanks "favors received."

Sundry letters from Livesy read: "Compliments of yesterday received; accept thanks for same."
All of the checks and letters, the district attorney argues, indicate that "both Livesy and McCamant, then in control of the auditor general's office and state treasurer's office, were in the conspiracy with Barsley in the use of the state's money at interest, which led ultimately to the loss of $200,000 of the city and state funds, and in forcing rebates from publishers in the printing of the advertisers' lists."

When the disclosures, which finally came in full force, were made, the conspiracy was in full force, and the district attorney general wrote as follows:

"DEAR BARSLEY:—Hurry up with your payments that are now behind or danger signal will be hoisted. Yours, truly,
T. McCAMANT."
The following letter is one of the lot:

"MY DEAR BARSLEY:—I have seen Livesy, who tells me that Boyer will take the school warrant to you in person. Yours,
P. S.—Burn this letter. T. McCAMANT."

Two Years for Appraiser Dismissed.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—F. W. Dunlap, a delinquent deputy mercantile tax appraiser, pleaded guilty to conspiracy to defraud the city and was sentenced by Judge Reed to two years in the eastern penitentiary.

Standard Oil in Germany.
BERLIN, Sept. 23.—In a report made at the request of Minister Phelps, Mr. Libby, the Standard Oil company's European agent, says: "We seek to discourage all speculation in our products. The company has no agreement of any nature with the Rothschilds, Nebels, any Russian interest, or any combination to exact an artificial price. That would be in conflict with the history and policy of the company at home and abroad."

Murder Is Suspected.
HUNTINGDON, Pa., Sept. 23.—William Webster Trimble, of Camden, N. J., a civil engineer employed by the Pennsylvania railroad, was killed on a railroad near this city. The body was terribly mangled and thrown sixty feet into the river. Murder is suspected.

Princeton's New Year.
PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 23.—President Johnston formally opened the academic year at Princeton college today by an address in Marquand chapel at 8 o'clock.

CABLE BREVITIES.
The "Holy Coat" at Treves has been recently visited by 3,000,000 persons.
Austria has increased her already enormous military budget by 6,000,000 florins.
Prince Bismarck will, notwithstanding contrary reports, take his seat in the reichstag.

General Booth, of the Salvation Army, is addressing enormous crowds at Melbourne, Australia.
A man died in Kilbourn, a London suburb, after one hour's illness. Cholera is feared and there is a small panic.

The northeast gales which have been causing so much damage in England and Scotland have grown worse instead of milder.

A German officer, assigned by his government, has reported in high terms of praise on the recent French maneuvers and the skill of General Sautter.

Quite a stir has been created in Holland by the prospect of a compulsory military system from which the country has heretofore enjoyed immunity.

TO CALL A PASTOR.

Mr. Rankin Will Doubtless Be Asked for—Amateur Drama and Music—Tearing Out Machinery.
SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE EVENING JOURNAL.
NEW CASTLE, Sept. 23.—Rev. W. W. Hebertson of Philadelphia, who so acceptably filled the pulpit at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday, has consented to preach there again next Sunday. Mr. Hebertson's discourses cannot fail to interest. A congregational meeting will be held in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening for the purpose of electing a pastor, if the way be clear. The meeting promises to be largely attended, as nearly every member of the church seems to favor the immediate choice of Rev. E. J. Rankin, pastor of Pine Grove Church, York county, Pa., who preached two eloquent sermons in the church on Sunday, September 13.

Home Talent Entertainment.
"Waiting for the Verdict," a thrilling and amusing drama, which will be presented by a company of local amateurs in the Opera House on Saturday night, is a splendid piece, and will be performed as well as the ordinary traveling company could do it. The participants are in constant rehearsal, and besides speaking their parts clearly and distinctly, emphasize them with excellent gestures and movements. The Husbekke Orchestra, which will make its first appearance on the season at the performance, will doubtless be one of the finest that has ever played in the Opera House. It will consist of fourteen performers, including Professor A. I. Bouley, bandmaster of Hyatt's Military Band, who will play solo cornet, and Professor Jules Reybold of Wilmington, who will play viola. H. W. Husbekke will direct the orchestra, and among the selections rendered will be the overture "Crown of Gold" and "Visions of Paradise."

MIDDLETOWN'S BOLD THIEVES.

They Attempt to Carry Off a Hive of Bees—Italians Arrive to Build the Electric Road.
SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE EVENING JOURNAL.
MIDDLETOWN, Sept. 23.—It seems that the thieves in this vicinity can steal anything. Several nights ago a man living on Main street went into his garden to look around, as it was his custom to do every night. He was dumbfounded when he saw two men stealing one of his hives of bees, and that they were getting away as fast as they possibly could. The owner ran after them. The thieves, seeing that they could not get away with their burden, as the owner was close upon them, dropped the live bees and made their escape.

Carpenters are now engaged in building an M. E. parsonage at Townsend. Harry Ingram is working with a merry-go-round at Townsend.

The Hungarians who went to Odessa about three months ago to work in the canning factory there, went home to Baltimore on Monday morning. Mr. Watkins says that tomatoes are now getting scarce and his factory will close for the season in a few days.

James Osborne of Philadelphia is spending a few days with friends in town. Miss Lillie Camac of Philadelphia is visiting friends near town.

John Jones of Chester spent Monday with friends in town. About 100 Italians arrived on the 4:34 southbound train, yesterday afternoon, from New York, and proceeded at once to Odessa, where they commenced laying the Middletown and Odessa railroad this morning.

Mrs. James C. McColligan and Mrs. Joseph C. Jolla spent Monday with friends in New Castle. Sewall Hutton says that he thinks he knows the persons who broke in his store on Saturday night and will catch them in a few days.

Richard Cochran, a farmer living near town, lost a valuable young horse from his farm last evening. Mr. Cochran valued it at $200.

SILVER COUGH MEDICINE.
A Young Woman takes Laudanum by Accident—Other News.
SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE EVENING JOURNAL.
NEWARK, September 23.—Miss Cochran, one of the teachers in public school, and a sister-in-law of Rev. Dr. Hayward, had a very serious experience on Sunday evening. For some time she had been suffering with a cold and had procured some cough medicine. In some manner a bottle of laudanum, much resembling the cough medicine, was left on the shelf, and she mistook it for the cough medicine and took it. She then discovered that it was laudanum and that she had swallowed. Medical aid was summoned, and she was given emetics. It was with difficulty that she was kept from falling asleep. Yesterday her condition was improved, and no serious results will follow.

Miss Drankhouse of Philadelphia, who has been spending some time with the Misses Lynde at Elkton avenue, returned home on Monday.

PROPER TREATMENT OF HERNIA.
The Hastings Truss Company's Valuable Remedial Appliances.
Perhaps one of the various branches of surgery and medicine are more deserving of research and attention than hernia or rupture. Hernia as a rule is the result of muscular exertion and is felt in every part of the body, making the system liable to many dangers. Statistics show that one-seventh of mankind and one-fortieth of womankind suffer from its weakness.

Great care is requisite in the early stages, and the danger of the surgeon's knife and the dread of pain has caused of recent years more attention to be directed to the manufacture of appliances for the relief of afflicted ones. An improperly adjusted or ill-fitting truss is very liable to cause permanent injury. And finally there is great danger of strangulated hernia if the contents of the abdomen be not retained within its walls.

There is no better remedy for this trouble than a properly fitted truss made of unbreakable hard rubber, leather covered or elastic according to the requirements of the case. The Hastings Truss Company, 224 South Ninth street, Philadelphia, yearly supply many thousands of the best trusses made.

Scores of cases call daily for treatment, where a more accurate knowledge of the treatment can be learned than by a surgeon who is consulted only at the last stages.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat digested very slowly. I was constantly tired, and I would experience a faintness or tired, all day long, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and I was relieved and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that flat, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. F. WATSON, Watertown, Mass.
