CATARH MADE HIM MISERABLE

Mr. Frank Fox of This City Relates His Experience.

He Tried All Sorts of Alleged Catarrh Cures and Three or Four Physicians Without Getting Any Relief. Then He Went to Dr. McCoy and Wildman and He Says They Have Made a Different Man of Him.

Mr. Frank Fox lives at 532 Bennett street, in this city. He is in the employ of Hart and Brother, the big pork packers on East Fifth street. In an interview with a reporter Mr. Fox said: "I was troubled by catarrh for over two years. I was treated by three or four doctors for it, but they didn't do me any good and I took mostly all the alleged catarrh cures I heard of, but they didn't do me any good either. I was hawking and spitting every morning. Mucus dropped from my throat and gave me a great deal of trouble. I had headache pretty bad in the afternoons."

"I had pains in my chest and in my shoulder blades. The catarrh made me feel miserable. I didn't feel like going to work in the morning. I was a different man now. Three months ago I went to Doctors McCoy and Wildman of 80 Market street in this city and placed myself in their care. After the first week's treatment, noticed an improvement in my health and have continued to improve right along. I can now do all my business as usual and as I have already said I feel like a different man. Since I began treatment under Doctors McCoy and Wildman I have gained nine pounds. I can recommend Doctors McCoy and Wildman highly to everyone suffering from catarrh or any of the symptoms I have mentioned."

FIVE DOLLARS A MONTH. In order to prove their superiority in the treatment of different diseases, Doctors McCoy and Wildman of 80 Market street in this city, will treat all patients for five dollars a month and furnish all necessary medicine, which are prepared in their laboratory by a graduate in pharmacy of Wilmington.

To Keep His Feet Warm.

There were but two drunkards sentenced at this morning's session of the Municipal Court. They were John Reed and Patrick Doff. Their sentences were each $3 or thirty days. John Sander-son was arraigned on the charge of the theft of a pair of shoes from Charles Brown. The prisoner said that the shoes had been given him by a man to be delivered to Brown. He said that he could get witnesses to prove the same and he was held in $200 bail until Monday morning. John Singer was charged with assault and battery on a colored woman, but she did not appear the case was dismissed.

Irish Nationalists Dance.

RULES FOR GOOD HEALTH.

Eat plain food.
Be regular in your habits.
Wear woolen clothing the year round.
Do not work immediately after eating.
Keep the feet comfortable and well protected.
Exercise in the open air when the weather permits.
If possible, go to bed at the same hour every night.
In malarious districts do your walking in the middle of the day.
Keep your blood warm and circulating. You can do this best by exercise and pure stimulants. Do not indulge in stimulants, although it is desirable to do so, unless you know they are pure and medicinal.
Bear in mind the unquestionable fact that there is no stimulant so good as whiskey, and only one good medicinal whiskey, namely, Duffy's Pure Malt. No matter what your druggist or grocer may say, bear in mind the above great truths, and you will be healthier, live longer and feel happier.

WHICH CITY WILL WIN?

Many Aspirants for the National Republican Convention.

NEW YORK CITY HAS 21 VOTES.

Washington Invaded by an Army of Enthusiastic Boomers—Every Delegation Confident of Success—McKinley Will Advance Cincinnati's Claims.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The bustle and commotion in the lower corridors, parlors and the lobby of the Arlington hotel reminds one of the first days of a new administration, which brings with it crowds of office seekers. The cause of all this bustle is the arrival of the delegations from the different cities that have come here to capture the next national Republican convention. On Monday the national Republican committee will meet here to hear the claims of the various cities and decide where the convention shall be held.

Preparing for the Battle.
All of the committees of the ambitious convention cities are located at the Arlington. Omaha has established its headquarters in the main parlor just inside the main entrance, from which point of vantage the members of the committee can swoop down upon and capture any arrivals in whom they may be especially interested. The Omaha people declare themselves for Omaha first, last and all the time. Quite a number, in company with ex-Senator Saunders, have visited the president.

New York Claims Twenty-one Votes.
Among the Cincinnati boomers are Mayor Mosby, Representative Storer, G. B. Griffiths, George Cox, ex-Governor Foraker and Harry Morehead. Cincinnati is of opinion that Governor McKinley's presentation of their case will be of great weight and may probably give them the prize. Detroit and Pittsburgh are expected to establish headquarters today.

New York will have headquarters across the hall from the California delegation. General Clarkson, Warner Miller and J. W. Vrooman are among her representatives and other big guns are coming today. New York asserts that she will have twenty-one votes at the start; San Francisco claims ten, while Minneapolis men say their city will receive twenty.

The Twin Cities for Once United.
Among the partisans of the San Francisco Chronicle, Internal Revenue Collector Quinn, A. B. Booth and C. A. Alexander, a large delegation from Minneapolis and St. Paul was welcomed by ex-Senator Pierce, now editor of the Minneapolis Tribune, who expressed himself as being confident of victory for his city. St. Paul and Minneapolis are one in the matter of urging Minneapolis, and it is thought that in the end Minneapolis would be selected.

New York Has $45,000 Ready.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The committee of New York men organized to urge the claims of New York as a proper place for the holding of the next Republican national convention met at the Fifth Avenue hotel last night. There were also present a number of members of the Republican county committee. Chairman M. Depew appeared and added his voice to the chorus of the meeting. It was announced that the money already pledged toward defraying the expenses of the convention was $45,000, with more in sight.

The drift of opinion among national committeemen as to the propriety of holding it is distinctly in favor of New York. I think that we will get the convention. A good deal has been said regarding the big sums of money other cities have collected. It is proposed by one western town to pay the transportation and all the bills of all the delegates and alternates to the convention.

Mr. Depew said: "The superlative advantages of this city will be the reasons why the convention comes here if it does. Should it be located somewhere else it will be for the reason that the national Republican committee seems to have decided to go to another part of the country."

Senator Hiscok followed Mr. Depew in a speech expressing similar views. Depew will probably go to the national committee to speak in behalf of New York. Others who will be present are ex-Governor Phineas C. Lounsbury, Vice President Levi P. Morton, Hon. Thomas C. Platt, Hon. Cornelius N. Bliss, Colonel Elliott F. Shepard, Hon. James J. Belden, Hon. Frank Hiscok, George J. Seabury, ex-Governor L. C. McCortney, General S. R. Merwin, Hon. William J. Sewell, General Charles H. T. Collins, Colonel S. V. R. Cruger, Hon. Garret A. Hobart, New Jersey; O. G. Warren, of Buffalo; General Daniel Butterfield, Governor Morgan G. Bulkeley and W. J. Arkell.

What Chicago Thinks.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The fact that the Republican convention should be held in New York is generally conceded by all thinking people here. There is a good deal of talk to the effect that Chicago should have the honor again, but it is made by the shouters, who grasp at everything and continually cry for more. The big business men and leaders in the city believe that Chicago has already had more than her share, and they decry the spirit of greed that is shown by some. A good deal is said about Chicago's wonderful hotel facilities. It is true that there are large hotels here, but it is evident that New York is better equipped to handle a large crowd than is the Windy City.

Monongahela's Loss by Fire.

MONONGAHELA CITY, Pa., Nov. 21.—Nine buildings were destroyed by fire and fifty acres of timber land, the property of the Brown Coal company, were burned over, involving a loss of $30,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Fears of Smallpox at Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 21.—No new cases of smallpox in this city were reported yesterday, but it is expected that there will be some startling developments with regard to the disease within a short time.

Want Estee to Succeed Proctor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—A petition urging President Harrison to appoint M. M. Estee secretary of war in place of Proctor is being actively circulated and signed throughout California.

To Save Himself from Suicide.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 21.—Emma T. Day, who attempted to commit suicide twice on Thursday and was treated at the Newark City hospital, was at her own request committed for ninety days.

THE WORLD OF SPORTS.

Fale and Harvard Eleven Meet in Battle Arroyo This Afternoon.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 21.—There is an immense crowd at Hampden park today to witness the Yale-Harvard football game. Every one of the 30,000 seats were sold, and speculators who had secured good points of vantage disposed of them at a high premium. Yale is the favorite in the betting at odds of 5 to 4. The teams will line up, from present indications, as follows:

YALE.	POSITIONS.	HARVARD.
Hartwell.....	Right end.....	Hallowell.....
Wills.....	Right tackle.....	Newell.....
Morrison.....	Right guard.....	Mackie.....
Sanford.....	Center.....	Rams.....
Hinckley.....	Left end.....	Emmons.....
Barbour.....	Quarter back.....	Gage.....
McClung.....	Half back.....	Lake.....
L. Bliss.....	Full back.....	Corbett.....
McCormick.....	Full back.....	Traford.....

Mr. Coffin of Wesleyan, will be the umpire and Mr. Moffat of Princeton, the referee.

Two Women in the Ring.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 21.—Hattie Leslie, who is known as the "Woman John L. Sullivan," and Gussie Freeman, who rejoices in the sobriquet of "The Lonely," had a four round fight with four ounce gloves in the Grand Street theater last night. At the call of time both women assumed true pugilistic attitudes and sparred cautiously for an opening. The Leslie woman was the aggressor throughout, and led frequently on the Freeman woman's face and body. The latter showed considerable patience. She stopped her opponent's leads and swings, cleverly holding back for a swing on the Leslie woman's neck in order to inflict a quietus.

It was nip and tuck throughout the next two rounds with both women very tired. In the fourth and last round both women showed each other hammer and tongs, and during the excitement acted as if they wished to scratch and pull hair. The Leslie woman finally forced her opponent into her corner, where the Freeman woman caught her head in chancery and inflicted several desperate upper cuts. The police then stopped the mill, and when the referee awarded the fight to Mrs. Leslie on a foul Lonely got real mad, and offered to adjourn with Mrs. Leslie and fight it out. Mrs. Leslie did not accept the challenge.

Thousands at the Horse Show.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—At every horse show for the last five years Friday night has been the best of the week in point of attendance. Last night was no exception, and a conservative estimate placed the number of people present at 14,000. Nearly as many more saw the show during the day, so that it is safe to say that 25,000 people paid to get into the garden between 9 a. m. and midnight. The last event of the day, a high jumping contest, in which Beni Haasen, Transport, Ontario, Punch and The Countess took part, was won by Punch at 6 ft. 6 in. Ontario was second.

DEMAND FONSECA'S RESIGNATION.

Peace Cannot Prevail Under Any Other Condition in Brazil.

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 21.—The latest advice from Uruguay and southern Brazil is not favorable to Fonseca. Rio Grande do Sul has invited the province of Santa Catharina to rise against Fonseca, and the authorities of the latter province have the proposal under consideration. The statement is confirmed that the provisional junta of Rio Grande do Sul telegraphed to Minister Barao de Lucena that Fonseca must resign as a preliminary for the arrival at a friendly understanding.

Fonseca was very much offended by this message, and although suffering considerably with nervous prostration, he aroused himself to give forth with vigorous orders for the prosecution of the struggle. His physical condition is, however, against him.

A dispatch received here announces that General Osorio, who commands the insurgent forces in Rio Grande do Sul, has issued a manifesto in which he threatens to march on Rio Janeiro. The forts at the Rio Grande bar, it is learned, have been completed.

Charles L. Andrews' Divorce Suit.

STOUT FALLS, S. D., Nov. 21.—The divorce suit of Charles L. Andrews versus Kate Shaw Andrews has been filed in the clerk's office of this county. The plaintiff is the son of C. H. Andrews, proprietor of the Boston Herald. Personal service was had upon Mrs. Andrews in Washington. The complaint is based upon desertion. The marriage of Mr. Andrews and Miss Kate Shaw Jackson took place in Boston April 18, 1887, and was one of the leading social events of the year.

Missed a Nail and Struck a Live Wire.

STOUT FALLS, Nov. 21.—George Sullivan, a plumber who was engaged in making repairs at the Birmingham company's power house, was killed by a live wire at noon. In striking at the nail he missed it and struck a live wire. An awful flash resulted. Sullivan fell backward, striking another live wire with the back of his neck. He then fell to the floor dead.

Premier Mercier Strikes Back.

QUEBEC, Nov. 21.—Hon. H. Mercier, premier of Quebec, has sworn out criminal charges against J. P. Whelan, the contractor who has stated that he would bribe Mr. Mercier and several members of the latter's government to secure a contract. The premier has also made similar charges against several newspapers.

To Attack the Amalgamated Association.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 21.—It is reported that the iron and steel manufacturers of the United States will make a general assault on the Amalgamated association in the spring. The skilled workmen in all the union mills belong to the association, and the annual wage scale of the United States is made in this city.

Treasurer Smith Gone with $50,000.

LOWELL, Mass., Nov. 21.—An attachment for $33,000 was placed on funds belonging to Dr. S. P. Smith by the Railroad National bank. Smith is the missing supreme treasurer of the Order of the Rising Sun, and he is alleged to have improperly loaned $50,000 of the funds of that organization.

Nelson Will Be Georgia's Bishop.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 21.—The Rev. Dr. C. Kinloch Nelson, who was last week elected bishop of the Episcopal church of Georgia, has informed the diocese of his acceptance of the high office. The consecration will take place Jan. 25 in St. Luke's cathedral, Atlanta.

The Cordage Trust Is Now Supreme.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The Cordage trust has bought out the last independent plant for the manufacture of twine, that of Willis Deering & Co., located in Chicago. The trust paid $250,000 for the plant. It is said the trust will now put up the price of twine.

CLEVELAND IS NEUTRAL.

He Says He Has No Speaker-ship Favorite.

IS GOVERNOR HILL OUT FOR CRISP?

"What's the Matter with Crisp?" He Said When Asked if He Did Not Think Mills Would Win—A Deadlock, Perhaps, in New York's Legislature.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Recorder says that ex-President Grover Cleveland authorizes the statement that he is taking no part in the contest for the speakership of the house; that he is as much the friend of each candidate as he is of any other; that he has never declared himself as favoring Mr. Mills more than Mr. Crisp, or Mr. Springer, or Mr. McMillan, and that he has not made and does not intend making any suggestions in respect to the organization of the house of representatives. Mr. Cleveland made this expression of his views to an eminent politician and personal friend who went to him last Thursday in behalf of one of the candidates for the speakership.

Not for Any One in Particular.

"It is not true that I have said I wanted Mr. Mills to be speaker," replied Mr. Cleveland in substance. "I am a friend of Mr. Mills, but I am also a friend of Mr. Springer and Mr. Crisp and Mr. McMillan. I am equally interested in the canvass of each of these gentlemen, and any use of my name by the friends of Mr. Mills is unwarranted and unjust to me."

There is more speakership contest in New York this week than there is in Washington. Each of the candidates, with one or two exceptions, is seeking Tammany Hall influence and the votes of the New York delegation. It is said that New York members, whether Tammany or not, are unpledged yet, except Cummings, who is for Crisp, and Tracy and Warner, who are for Mills.

Mr. Mills in Brooklyn.

"Brooklyn has been highly honored," said ex-Congressman Felix Campbell to Congressman Roger Q. Mills yesterday. "We have had Crisp, Springer and McMillan here, as well as yourself." Congressman Mills looked surprised at learning that his rivals had preceded him, but that his rival Congressman William J. Cocks relieved him by saying: "But you will get all the votes." But Hugh McLaughlin did not meet Congressman Mills, and as no one could speak for the Kings county leader, Mr. Mills was not altogether certain when he left for Washington that he had the four votes in his pocket. In conversation with Rev. Charles H. Hall, Mr. Mills said:

Not a Free Trader.

"I am not a free trader, replied the congressman. That is a conception of the enemy. I believe in a tariff for revenue only, with the least burden of taxation. Until Mr. Cleveland wrote his famous message in 1887 manufacturers believed that they owed their prosperity to protection. They are gradually getting over that error. The silver question, the Lodge bill and other side issues should be relegated to the rear. If we concentrate all our efforts on tariff reform and make that the sole issue we will win in 1892."

Is Hill for Crisp?

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Governor Hill is here to look up his winter quarters. When asked if he did not think that Mills had a good show for the speakership he is said to have remarked in his peculiarly significant way, "What is the matter with Crisp?" This is regarded as indicating that the anti-Cleveland sentiment will solidify about Crisp.

He refused to say whether he would take his seat in the senate in December or January, adding that that question would be settled hereafter.

Senator Deane's Death.

HUDSON, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Senator Gilbert A. Deane, of the Fifteenth district, died at his home in Copake, Columbia county, Nov. 20. Mr. Deane's death will make no difference with the canvass of the boards now in session in Dutchess and Columbia counties. Should the certificate of election be given him by the state board of canvassers, he will be declared elected even though dead. In such event an official notification will be forwarded to Governor Hill and a special election will be ordered in the district.

Senator Deane was born in Connecticut July 21, 1831. He was a member of assembly in 1874 and was elected to the state senate in 1887, re-elected in 1889 and renominated this year. He will be buried Monday afternoon.

A Deadlock, Perhaps.

ALBANY, Nov. 21.—The death of Senator Deane leaves the legislative contest in practically the same position as before. The senate, exclusive of Edwards (Independent), stands: Republicans, 16; Democrats, 14.

Should Senator Edwards vote with the Democrats, an action which his intimate friends are positive he will not take, they would still have to gain another member in order to control the senate. While leading politicians in each party claim the legislature, clearheaded observers not biased by partisanship figure out that both the senate and the assembly will be tied. Should a deadlock result scenes such as made the legislature of 1888 memorable are likely to make the session of 1892 more than lively.

Ryan Declared Elected.

STRATFORD, N. Y., Nov. 21.—The Onondaga board of canvassers have declared Patrick J. Ryan, Democrat, elected to the assembly from the First district over David Allen Munroe, Jr., Republican, by a vote of 3,329 to 4,388. The board is composed of five Democrats and four Republicans.

Preston's Plan Criticized.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 21.—There is considerable opposition among depositors over the reorganization plan of the Ulster County Savings institution, because Superintendent Preston does not mention whether the old or new trustees will have charge of the management of the institution. Depositors may petition the court to remove the trustees. The signers to the petition for resumption are few.

Lemon's Appeal for the Veterans.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Washington has subscribed a fund of $50,000 to make preparations for the Grand Army encampment next September. Captain George E. Lemon, chairman of the finance committee, is out in an appeal to Washingtonians to make the guarantee $100,000. He tells the public that the soldiers will spend $2,500,000 in this city.
