

SIXTH YEAR.

WILMINGTON, DEL., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1893.

ONE CENT.

CORRIGAN AND SATOLLI

Both Learned Catholics Are Hastening to Rome.

NEW YORK ARCHBISHOP'S ROUTE

Arrives This Afternoon From New York City Say That Archbishop Corrigan Has Stolen Away to Quebec, Whence He Will Sail for Rome—Powerful Influence in His Behalf—Mgr. Satolli Now Well on His Way.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—It is stated in well informed quarters that Archbishop Corrigan, who has all but defied Monsignor Satolli in his power in America has fled the city secretly for Rome. While he is he was summoned by the pope. The archbishop has not gone on any errand from this port, but, to avoid publicity and comment, went to Quebec, from which he will sail.

It is stated that Dr. Ferranti, the archbishop's private secretary, has been in Rome for several weeks, doing his best to arrange matters so that the archbishop might be spared of being summoned to Rome, but failed. The pope is reported to be very angry with the archbishop in practically defying the pope's ablegate and in causing a removal of the ill-natured discussions between the Corrigan and Ireland factions.

Bishop McQuade, of Rochester, and his adherents of Corrigan have entered their powerful influence on behalf of the New York archbishop and a long contest is probable.

GR. SATOLLI WILL GO TO ROME.

His Visit May Result in the Appointment of a Coadjutor for New York The Archbishop Corrigan Affair.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 2.—Mgr. Satolli has left St. Paul for Washington, and since his departure the Catholic clergy of this diocese have been discussing the probable outcome of the rebellion against the authority of the Papal legate in the part of Archbishop Corrigan, of New York. The attitude of the archbishop towards the representative of the pope has been shown by the manner in which he has ignored the position of the monsignor, who has received special courtesy from the head of the archdiocese of New York. His principal office has been his refusal to consult Dr. Burtisell, although admonished to do so by the ablegate.

Before Mgr. Satolli left The World correspondent learned that he would go to Rome in the autumn. He also learned something about the ablegate's mission here. It is asserted on the highest authority that it will be to lay the matter of Corrigan's fractiousness before the pope, with a recommendation that a coadjutor be appointed to assist the archbishop of New York in the management of so large a diocese. Mgr. Satolli and Archbishop Ireland are both liberals and close personal friends, and a coadjutor is appointed for the New York diocese, it is thought by the clergy here that the archbishop of St. Paul will be named for the place.

It is realized all over the country that Archbishop Corrigan's position is a precarious one. In a recent issue of the Western Watchman the editor advised the archbishop to resign and thus prove to his own greatness in the event of failure his successor. It is positively stated that Mgr. Satolli will make no further request of the archbishop of New York, but will represent the facts in the case at Rome.

WORK OF THE PARIS ARBITRATORS.

Every Point at Issue Has Been Adjusted by the Behring Sea Tribunal and There's Little More Work.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—A Gazette dispatch from Paris says: "The Behring sea tribunal of arbitration will probably render a decision a fortnight hence."

"Every point at issue has been adjudicated and the decision, it is stated, will give entire satisfaction to Great Britain and Canada."

The dispatch says all claims advanced by the English soldiers are held to be good. The decision will be unanimous on all points save one on which Justice Harlan, a U. S. Senator, Morgan, the American arbitrator, held out for the American claim.

The tribunal is now discussing regulations to govern seal fisheries.

ANOTHER PORK KING FAILS.

C. B. Eggleston Huddled for Funds Last Night to Clear Him But Had to Give Up To-day.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—C. B. Eggleston, the well-known broker, announced his inability to meet his obligations as soon as the Board of Trade opened this morning. It was known that he had called on his principals for margins and that they were not forthcoming. He tried hard to raise funds last night to clear him but was unable to do so.

The failure caused some excitement but was anticipated. He carried a large line of pork.

HAD TO JUMP OR ROAST.

Three Men Save Themselves From Two Burning Boats in the Delaware.

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 2.—Somers' huge dredging machine and the tug, Annie Birdall were destroyed by fire early this morning. A drunken sailor is supposed to have set them afire. Three men had to jump overboard to save themselves. Loss $30,000.

Eastern Creditors Pushed It.

DENVER, Col. Aug. 2.—The Denver Safe Deposit & Trust Company assigned last night. Assets $400,000, liabilities $100,000. Eastern creditors pushed the company for money and the collapse followed.

INSURGENTS STARVING OUT POLICE.

The Argentine Rebels Have Shut Up in a City a Large Army and Will Now Begin a Bombardment.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—A Herald cable dispatch from Valparaiso states that the revolution in Argentina is spreading and that the rebels are gaining at all points. The city of Rosario has fallen into their hands and the insurgents are now besieging La Plata and Santa Fe.

In the provinces of San Luis the provincial government has been driven from power and a rebel government has been established with a radical at its head.

Many miles of railroad were torn up and the situation there is grave one. All cities and towns along the coast of the province of Buenos Ayres, numbering over forty, are held by the rebels.

There has been hard fighting in Santa Fe and a great battle is expected in or near the city of La Plata, where the governor is strongly intrenched. Although he is surrounded his supplies are short. The police of the city are said to be starving.

The city of Santa Fe, weakly defended, will probably surrender to the insurgents who threaten to begin a bombardment this morning unless the governor gives up control.

Reports say that 100 were killed and wounded in Rosario in the fight between the insurgents and police. Congress has rejected the proposition of President Pena that the federal government intervene. Mobs hooted the members after the vote.

SIAMESE GETTING ANGRY.

TIRED, NOW, OF THE FRENCH SPIRIT OF DOMINATION.

Food is Getting Scarce and All the Soldiers are at Work on Fortifications. Siam Will Now Prepare for Fight.

BANGKOK, Aug. 2.—Food is getting scarce owing to the cutting off of trade, but as yet there has been no actual suffering. The Siamese are very wroth over the spirit of domination on the part of the French.

Much irritation has also been caused by the fact that, despite the continued assurances made at Paris, and guarantees given by the Siamese minister that the conditions imposed by France in the settlement would be observed not less of the blockade is noticeable.

The Siamese authorities are building additional fortifications or strengthening those already in existence.

YESTERDAY'S TROUBLES IN CHICAGO.

They Cause Many Big Firms to Go to the Wall To-day—Failure After Failure Results.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The North American Provision Company assigned this morning to William S. Chwabacher, to protect its creditors. Assets are scheduled at $300,000, but liabilities are not estimated. The failure is one result of yesterday's Board of Trade troubles.

Adam Smith & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, assigned to Charles E. Paige. Assets $150,000; liabilities $125,000.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 2.—Ad. Klyria, Ohio, special says the Loan Manufacturing Company, owning the largest brass works in the county and employing 600 hands has assigned. Liabilities, $150,000; assets, $192,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—W. Freeze & Co., importers, have failed. Liabilities, $144,000; assets, $100,000.

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 2.—The First National Bank of Nampa has failed. No statement.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Aug. 2.—The Valley Fall Company, cotton dress goods manufacturers, have closed their two factories, employing 735 hands, for an indefinite period.

METHUEN, Mass., Aug. 2.—The Methuen cotton mill and the Knitted Fabrics mill will close down Saturday for a month throwing 375 people out of work.

LABOR TROUBLES IN MISSOURI.

Employing Companies Refuse to Reinstatement Striking Workmen But Will Use Negroes and Blood Will Be Shed.

NEVADA, Mo., Aug. 2.—The Southwest Mission Coal mine strikers are causing considerable excitement. Sheriff Seraghem and twenty deputies, summoned from Nevada, are at the scene.

The Central Coal and Coke Company has posted a notice that all men who have been in the employ of the company and have been out of their places the last several days are discharged and will not be taken back.

Quite a number of the miners' families are destitute and the miners are holding nightly secret sessions discussing the situation. Trouble is anticipated when several companies put a large force of negro miners at work.

MUST SETTLE BY AUGUST 5.

Mine-Owners Warned to Arbitrate Differences With Strikers or a General Walk-out Will Follow.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 2.—At a secret meeting of the Missouri Federation last night, it was decided to present an ultimatum to the mine-owners. The ultimatum demands that they arbitrate the difference with the Kansas miners by August 5. The penalty for a failure to do so is a general sympathy strike of Missouri miners.

THE BLOCKADE RAISED TO-DAY.

Announced in the House of Commons This Afternoon.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Sir Edward Grey, parliamentary secretary of the foreign office, announced in the House of Commons this afternoon that the French blockade of Siam was raised this evening.

FAIR DIRECTORS FINED.

Hauled Up Before Judge Stein To-day for Contempt.

HAD NO RIGHT TO CLOSE ON SUNDAY

Judge Stein, Who Issued the Injunction Opening the Fair on Sunday, Holds That These Directors Voted to Close, Well Knowing That His Injunction Was in Force.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2, NOON.—Judge Stein to-day decided that the officials of the World's Fair, who had been notified of his injunction opening the fair on Sunday, were guilty of contempt. He fined Lyman Gage, Charles Herrin, Charles L. Hutchinson, Andrew McNally and W. B. Kerfoot, directors, $1,000 each; George F. Davis, director general, $250; Victor F. Lawson, director $100.

Lowered Dignity of the Court.

The court held that the directors voted to close the fair, well knowing that the injunction was in force. The council of administrators had obeyed the order of the directors but first secured an opinion from its attorney, M. Eddy, which, however, was unsound, but they had acted in good faith.

Director General Davis knew of the injunction but inasmuch as he simply carried out his master's orders there were some extenuating circumstances and his fine is reduced.

How Lawson Got Off So Well.

Director Lawson thought the injunction had lapsed and that he could not vote other than to close the fair owing to his religious belief. His fine was made as light as the dignity of the court would permit.

The other directors cited to appear had not voted on the resolution to close the fair and were discharged.

An appeal was at once made and granted by the court.

NATIONAL UNION DAY CELEBRATED.

Band Concert Proved Such a Success This Morning That One Will Be Given Hereafter in Every Large Building.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—To-day is National Union Day at the fair and members of that organization celebrated in Festival Hall. An interesting program of music and speeches was carried out.

The Associated American Band gave a delightful concert consisting of popular airs during the day in Transportation Building. This will henceforth be a daily feature in the various buildings. A free orchestral concert was given in Festival Hall at noon. To-night an elaborate display of fireworks will be given.

AERONAUT WILLIAMS'S AWFUL FALL.

His Parachute Didn't Work and He Came Down Like a Shot—He Lives to Describe the Fall.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Frank Williams, the young aeronaut at the Eldorado exhibition in Hoboken, fell from a parachute at 530 last evening and suffered injuries which will in all probability prove fatal.

Williams uses a hot-air balloon and ascends to a height of from six hundred to one thousand feet. Attached to the balloon is a parachute and dangling below that is a trapeze, upon which the aeronaut clings and does various hair-raising feats, like swinging by his hands, by his knees and his toes.

Yesterday the balloon was carried about half a mile to the southwest, when the parachute was disconnected. Williams noted that for some reason he was falling more rapidly than usual.

When about 200 or 300 feet from the ground he saw that he would fall directly on the sharp iron spikes composing the ornamental work along the peak of a gothic roofed dwelling house.

The sight unnerved him, and giving himself a swing he let go of the trapeze and dropped. His body described a segment of a circle. He had presence of mind enough to maintain an upright position and to strike with his knees slightly bent. He went down all in a heap, rolled over and then lay still.

Williams regained consciousness and asked if he was hurt. He said he could feel nothing and guessed he was only stunned a little. His attendant procured a carriage and drove him back to his dressing room at Eldorado and then ran for Dr. Snyck.

The doctor examined the man and found that he was paralyzed from his waist down and ordered him sent to a hospital and he was taken to St. Mary's, Hoboken, at a late hour last night.

Williams could not comprehend that he was injured, and asked the doctor over a d over again if he would not be able to jump again to-day. He cautioned the doctor and the boy against letting any one know that he had been hurt, as he would be all right in a few hours. The doctor says that his spine is badly injured and has little hope of his recovery.

COCHRAN CHOOSES CLEVELAND.

Crocker and the Orator Had Some Angry Words, So It Is Alleged, and Now Bourke Has Left the Wigwam.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—An afternoon paper announces that Bourke Cochran, Tammany's famous orator, has severed his connections with the wigwam. He will now figure as a Cleveland Democrat.

The trouble arose over the United States senatorship to which Mr. Cochran aspired. Crocker and Mr. Crocker exchanged angry words.

Since then Cochran has not spoken to the chief and the president, it is said, has consulted Mr. Cochran in relation to New York appointments and given him considerable power in Federal affairs, so much so in fact that the Democratic leaders are fearful that he will be manager of the new machine which they declare Mr. Cleveland is building in New York state.

THE OLDEST SMITH LIVES IN GOTHAM

Plain James Smith Passed His 103rd Birthday Yesterday Just as He Passes an Ordinary Day.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—New York can probably boast of the oldest member of the great Smith family in America, if not in the world. This remarkable man is plain James Smith, of No. 12 Hamilton street, and he passed his 103rd birthday yesterday with as little ado as if a 103rd birthday were a very common, every day affair in the Smith family.

He smoked a quiet pipe, just as he always does, in the morning; took a little nip of good Irish whiskey as an eye-opener, just as he has for over eighty years, and after a little stroll down to the corner of Catharine street and back, took his accustomed seat in his big arm-chair and nodded the day through. This is how Mr. Smith passed his one hundred and third birthday.

The aged man's memory is not so good as it was many years ago and he does not remember much about his early career, but he says he was born in the County Tyrone, Ireland, August 1, 1790, and when he was very young he was transported to Van Diemen's Land for doing something that displeased the English Government. There were very few towns in Van Diemen's Land in those days.

Mr. Smith says he has smoked a pipe for eighty-five years and does not think he would be any older if he never had contracted the habit or drunk.

He was 25 years old when Napoleon met death at Waterloo, and was 3 years of age when the castle fell after the French revolution.

In spite of all his experiences during the wonderful changes and discoveries of the early part of the century, Mr. Smith continues to be something of a humorist, and says he has been married five times, but his aged wife, more important to her husband's birthday than the old man himself, and celebrating it in more vigorous fashion, said in strong language that Mr. Smith was mistaken. She was his second wife. The couple have one son who lives in Ireland.

The aged man is too feeble to work now, and his wife supports him by her needle, but he worked as a laborer until seven years ago.

He is remarkably vigorous for his age and in complete possession of all his faculties. His hearing is slightly impaired, but his eyesight is perfect. He came to America during President Polk's administration.

FANCY LIVE STOCK BURNED

INCENDIARIES FIRE THE BARN OF LEVI P. MORTON.

Eighty Head of Blooded Cattle and Property Worth $200,000 Belonging to the Ex-Vice-President Consumed By the Flames.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Aug. 2.—The magnificent barn of ex-Vice-President Morton, over 300 feet long, on his place at Elmerville, near Rhinebeck, was destroyed by fire early to-day.

Nine horses, 80 head of fancy cattle, several small buildings and much other valuable property were also burned.

The loss is over $200,000. Incendiaries are believed to have started the fire.

NEW CASTLE'S HEALTH ENDANGERED.

The Old Jail Sewer Inadequate to Carry Off the Large Amount of Sewage Poured Into It.

In the Levy Court yesterday afternoon the Wilmington Coal Gas Company paid $1,000 for the privilege of laying pipe over Washington street bridge. The North Side Improvement Company paid $2,175, one-half of its contribution. As soon as the new bridge is thrown open to public travel the other half will be paid.

A committee reported that the corner and not the county should pay William R. Long for clerical work done at the jury sittings. The report was accepted.

Bridgekeeper William B. Crossley's resignation was accepted. His successor to take charge of Market street draw will not be named for a time, as Mr. Crossley's resignation does not go into effect until August 25.

County Treasurer Dickey reported a balance of $19,610.97 to the credit of the county.

The jail commissioners' communication referring to the bad condition of the New Castle jail sewer was referred to the jail committee as was also a communication from Jail Physician John J. Black. The latter characterized the sewer as a menace to the health of the prisoners and the town. He recommended a new brick sewer of adequate size.

Mr. Armstrong called attention to disorder existing at Rising Sun and asked that a constable be elected for that place. Action was deferred.

AN INFORMAL RECEPTION.

The New General Secretary Will Be Duly Installed This Evening.

To-night J. R. King, who has been identified for many years with the Young Men's Christian Association work in this city as general secretary of the local association, will retire from that office. Herbert S. Dow, of Massachusetts, who has been elected to succeed him, will be duly installed at the same time and enter upon the discharge of his duties.

An informal reception to Mr. and Mrs. Dow and Mr. and Mrs. King will be the main feature of the evening. From 8 to 10 o'clock friends of the work will have an opportunity to extend the hand of regret to Mr. King and that of congratulation to Mr. Dow.

Tyler Beats Sanger and Zimmerman. The great wheelmen, Sanger, who broke the world's mile record last Saturday in 2:09.45 and Zimmerman, met at Detroit yesterday, along with Hoyland Smith, Guy L. Garie, George Taylor, H. R. Stevenson, G. C. Tyler, L. W. Nungesser and C. T. Nelson, in a mile contest. Tyler beat Sanger by a wheel at the finish, Taylor, third and Zimmerman, fourth.

SILVER MEN LOCKED OUT

They Could Not Get in Music Hall To-day.

UNTIL THEY HAD PAID THE RENT

Work of the Convention After All Difficulties Were Surmounted—Loud Cheers Followed the Reading of a Knights of Labor Telegram Praising for the Free Coinage of Silver at the Rate of 16 to 1.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—When the delegates to the silver conference arrived at Music Hall this morning they found the hall closed and the doors locked. Treasurer Barrington of the bi-metallic league had failed to pay the necessary $250 hall rent and could not be found.

After some delay, A. W. Thurman, Charles Thomas, (Denver) and Secretary Hill, of Colorado, agreed to guarantee the rent and the hall was opened.

It was 10:05 when the chairman rapped for order. Mr. Dougherty, of Texas, at once moved the appointment of a committee to call the attention of Congress to the deplorable condition of the country, and demand legislation that would not demonetize silver.

This was objected to because the matter is now before the Committee on Resolutions and Dougherty was ruled out of order. District Assembly No. 4, K. of L., telegraphed greetings and a demand for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. This was vociferously cheered.

Chairman Thurman then introduced ex-Senator Hill, of Colorado, who made an effective speech.

SWINDLING ADVANCE AGENT.

R. C. Fisher's Accounts in This City Remain Unpaid—Represented Himself to Be Connected With Robinson's Circus.

HARRY A. Carr, alias Harry S. Young, was yesterday held in $2,000 bail for a further hearing by Magistrate Clement in Philadelphia, on the charge of swindling local keepers. He is a smooth-faced blonde young man and has been traveling as an advance agent of the Barnum & Bailey's circus. His alleged plan of "beating" was that he would visit the Colonade Hotel and engaged board for a number of show people, and secured loans on two checks amounting to $25.

This young man is probably the one who "worked" it is some time ago. If it is, he assumed the name of "R. C. Fisher, of New York." The description corresponds.

On May 30 Fisher arrived in this city and registered at the Clayton House. He secured a license as a chauffeur and was employed by the show of J. B. Robinson, which he said would be in this city on June 10.

He also secured a license at the Court House. From there he went to Billington Jackson and engaged him to post the bills for the show. Mr. Jackson took him around the city and showed him the location of the bill boards. Afterward he secured a horse and carriage from George C. Whitman and went in search of a lot on which the circus tents were to be pitched.

When he went to Charles L. Meier, a butcher at No. 507 King street and engaged meat for showmen and animals, amounting to $120. He told Mr. Meier to add $10 to his bill and loan him that amount. Mr. Meier refused, but "Fisher" succeeded in securing a small amount on a loan. The butcher ordered his meat thinking that the order was good, but succeeded in countermanding it as he did not see any bills posted.

"Fisher" went to W. E. Frank, No. 509 King street, and wanted estimates on groceries. He said he would come back later and give Mr. Frank the contract.

"Fisher's" account at the Clayton House remains unpaid. Mr. Meier did not get the contract and is a little out besides. In all probability "Fisher" is the same man who was arrested in Philadelphia.

Civil Service Examiners at Work.

W. S. Washburn, examiner for the Civil Service Bureau, of Washington, was in this city to-day. He held an examination of applicants for positions in the Civil Service Commission, in school No. 1 and was assisted by Gilpin E. Underwood of the local board. Fourteen applicants took the examination for the railway mail service, and eight for the departmental service. Three of the latter are for copyists and five for clerks.

Property of St. Michael's.

Having accomplished his object of building a church at Rehoboth, Bishop Coleman has turned his attention to the needs of St. Michael's Mission in this city, of which his newly married son is rector. Through William J. Fisher he has traded a lot at Front and Adams streets for houses Nos. 105 and 117 Locust street, property of Francis P. Dillon. In a short time the newly acquired property will be converted to the uses of the parish.

Municipal Minor Cases.

Robert Cooper, colored, was in the Municipal Court this morning on the charge of disorderly conduct. Officer Marr arrested him last evening while he was in the act of cursing several colored dandies. John Stidham was fined $2 for drunkenness. Charles Johnson, colored, who attempted to prove that he was not disorderly on Monday night, at No. 105 Shipley street, failed to do so and was fined $3.

Phosphate By the Ton.

The works of the Walton and Wham Company are running at the fullest capacity. Recently 2,500 tons of manufactured fertilizers were sold to one party and 2,000 to another.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

"Mike" Kearney and Frank Mullin boxed four rounds in Messick's Hall last night. There were several other boxing events.

Lena Bri e, colored, was fined 50 cents and costs by Magistrate Sasse last evening for swearing at Maggie Segars in Bush's row.

A band of three traveling evangelists have arrived in town. They held an open-air meeting at Fifth and King streets this morning.

The local firemen will hold a meeting in the Fame Hose engine-house to-morrow to take action on the excursion to be given to Reading next Sunday.

ESTATES OF THE DEAD.

E. R. Cochran, Jr., Succeeds Nathaniel Williams as Trustee of a Small Estate.

Chancellor Wolcott disposed of a number of minor matters in the Orphan's Court this morning. As State Auditor Dulaney held forth in the Levy Court room the chancellor sat in his big room upstairs.

William S. Prickett gave notice that application would be made for authority to sell land of the late John Wright and the proceeds applied to the payment of debts.

He also petitioned for the appointment of E. R. Cochran, Jr., to succeed Nathaniel Williams, deceased, as trustee of William Ryan. After some delay as to security the appointment was made.

Mr. Prickett made return of the sale of the real estate of Peter McCullough, deceased. A renewed order of sale, returnable at the September term, was made for those portions of the estate withdrawn because of low bids.

The Equitable Guarantee and Trust Company, guardian of Annie Robinson, asked through William M. Chas. Byrne, counsel, that it be authorized to accept blocks, bonds and mortgages to the sum of $17,500 without being held liable for depreciation in value. The authority was given.

Bridgekeeper Crossley's Successor.

Peter Miller, of the Tenth ward, is spoken of as the probable successor of Bridgekeeper Crossley. His competitor for the place is James J. Riley, of the First ward.

DR. DOBBINS'S SUCCESSOR.

A PHILADELPHIA DIVINE CALLED TO GRACE CHURCH PULPIT.

Rev. Merritt Hulburd, D. D., Will Replace Mr. Dobbins in March—Well Known in New York and Pennsylvania.

Rev. Merritt Hulburd, D. D., of the Spring Garden Street M. E. Church, Philadelphia, has accepted the call to the pastorate of Grace Church, this city, to succeed Rev. John Y. Dobbins, D. D. (the trustee) extended the call on Monday and yesterday received an acceptance. Mr. Hulburd was formerly pastor of Washington Square and Trinity Churches New York city. He will take the pastorate of Grace Church next March.

The minister-elect is a native of New York. The degree of D. D. was conferred upon him in 1888 by the University of New York. He has a wife, daughter and son, the latter, recently graduated from the University of Pennsylvania, being now in Europe.

Dr. Hulburd is well and favorably known in Wilmington. He assisted in the extra services attending the reopening of Grace Church last fall and addressed the high school graduating classes here about a month ago.

TRAMPS IN POSSESSION OF A TRAIN.

They Thoroughly Frightened the Crew of a Baltimore and Ohio Freight.

A gag of tramps, who declared that they were going "down in Delaware to pick peaches," had the crew of a west-bound freight train of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad thoroughly frightened last night. They boarded the train at Gray's Ferry and threatened the brakemen when he ordered them to get off.

When the train reached East Junction, Special Officer Tucker and Yardmaster Smith, assisted by some trainmen, succeeded in capturing the gang, sixteen in all. They were brought to the City Hall.

This morning they gave their names as follows, to Magistrate Sasse
