A Heating System that Pays Dividends

You can keep every nook and corner of your house warm and comfortable every hour of every day and night and yet save a third to a half the coal you now use in that hot-air furnace or inferior boiler. No rattling, poking or fussing, no dust, no cool rooms or "cold side" to your house. Simply install the wonderful

MODEL Heating System

Adapted to steam or hot water. Uses less coal because it gets all the heat out of it. Leaves only the fine white ashes. Needs coal only once in ten hours, even on the coldest days.

THE LEDOM RANGE

Solves the problems of kitchen economy just as perfectly as the Model System solves the heating problem. Its plan of draught and circulation of heat makes it easy and quick to control. Its grate is much like the grate under the Model Boiler, and keeps a clear working fire.

Get estimates from any reputable plumber or steamfitter.

RESIDENT REPRESENTATIVE A. W. PROCTOR, Clayton House Wilmington, Del.

S. Featherstone, Wilmington. First for flannel skirt embroidered in silk to Margaret J. Derrickson, Newark. DR. COOPER'S EXHIBIT.

Among the exhibitors of blooded stock at the New Castle County Fair at the Delaware Horse Show Park is Dr. J. Cardeen Cooper, of Wyoming. He has received blue ribbons for Jersey calves and also an immense imported hog of the blue blood family.

Dr. Cooper also has entered at the fair General Gates, Second, a two-year-old stallion which is considered one of the most beautiful horses at the fair. It is only a little more than two years old and is one of the few Morgan train of horses in the country. Its sire is General Gates, brother of Lord Clinton, with a track record of 2:05.

Among other blooded horses owned by Dr. Cooper and entered at the fair are Lady Wilkes, 2:15, sired by General Wilkes and out of Fire Fly, with a record of 2:04. This mare has a colt sired by Correction.

Another mare with colt at the fair and owned by Dr. Cooper is Lady Lightfoot, a Kentucky bred saddle horse, sired by Molock and out of Kady Did.

EXCLUSIVE SUITS AT JACOBY STORE.

Jacoby's New Daylight Department Store, Nos. 224 and 226 Market street, prides itself on the fact that it is an exclusive woman's suit store. The suit business has developed to an astonishing extent and the sale of exclusive design suits for women has been greater than in any other department. Visitors to the County Fair, and all others, will find much to interest them at the Jacoby Daylight Store.

HER KINGDOM FOR A DRESS.

Margaret North, a pretty nineteen-year-old school girl of Chicago, represented herself as another person and secured a gown in which she could outshine her girl companions at a party.

The girl was afterward arrested and acknowledged in court that her longing for fancy clothes led her to commit the illegal act.

The judge fined her $25, which was paid by her father.

According to the father's statement, the girl's humiliation might have been averted but for the desire to excel in dress. She wanted to emulate the example of girls whose parents were rich.

"My daughter has frequently told me," he said, "that unless she could be dressed as well as her chums they would not want to associate with her."

"My daughter's sad case should be a warning to other girls of middle circumstances who try to emulate girls whose parents are wealthy."

Mr. North says his daughter asked him with tears in her eyes for a new gown for the select party. He felt he could not afford to gratify her. On the impulse of the moment she secured the gown by false pretenses and made the mistake which brought her bitter disgrace and her family deep chagrin.

The lesson is not merely for girls. It is for schoolteachers and parents.

The public school is or ought to be a pure democracy. Any considerable distinction of the pupils by way of dress defeats the equality and fraternity of the school and should be frowned upon. Every child should be made to feel entirely at home in the schoolroom.

Parents should keep the desire for expensive school clothes out of the heads of their girls.

It matters not if the parents are financially able to buy fancy clothes. They are out of place in the schoolroom.

Besides—Such dressing fosters a trait in girls that needs no encouragement. Instinctively they desire to wear pretty clothes, but these need not necessarily be expensive clothes. There is plenty of time further on in their lives for elaborate and costly toils.

Poor Margaret North!

Desire for dress, that craving for beautiful things which has ruined the lives of so many women, has made of her an early victim. She has paid her penalty.

How many youthful hearts have ached and yearned and suffered—beats of the myriad children of the poor!

District Visitor—I've just had a letter from my son Arthur, saying he has won a scholarship. I can't tell you how pleased I am!

Rustic Party—I can understand your feeling, mumm. I felt just the same when our pig won a medal at the agricultural show.—Pearson's Weekly.

Just an Argument.

"Good gracious, isn't that your husband across the street there quarrelling with the man on the opposite porch?"

"Oh, they're not really quarrelling. They dispute that way every night. George is a monogamist and Mr. Stiggins is a biplamist."

Supply of Good Celery Promises New Record

Chicken salads have been popular summer. They have also been expensive because of the high price of chickens.

One of the main reasons for the popularity of chicken salad has been the unusual quality of the celery used in making them.

Coming with an early season, celery promises to make a new record this year, especially from the standpoint of quality. Salads are drawing principally upon the supply of this vegetable, and have become so popular as a result of the excellence of it that the celery supply is being consumed as fast as produced.

The celery season will not be on in full blast until October. The New York season has every prospect of being a good one, however, with the result that celery should be as popular when the oyster season comes on as it is now with salads.

Fried egg plant is a dish that is popular this summer, but, in this case, the price, as compared with last year, is in favor of the consumer. This is the result of a heavy supply of the vegetable having been produced on nearby farms. Quantity, however, has not lessened the effect of quality, and the dish gives no indication, as yet, of losing its popularity.

Handling a Constituency.

"Why don't you make haste to mingle with your constituents? Don't you know there is a great deal of criticism about your attitude on the tariff?"

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum. "But there is nothing to be gained by getting into a personal discussion. I'll just let them work up the argument, among themselves, and then step in as a peacemaker and referee."

Hopeless of Any Tips.

For four consecutive nights the hotel man had watched his fair, timid guest fill her pitcher at the water cooler.

"Madam," he said on the fifth night, "if you would ring, this would be done for you."

"But where is my bell?" asked the lady.

"The bell is beside your bed," replied the proprietor.

"That the bell," she exclaimed. "Why the boy told me that was the fire alarm, and that I wasn't to touch it on any account!"—Success Magazine.
