PLAY BRIDGE OR BE OLD FOGY

Baptist Pastor in Hot Water for Denouncing Dancing and Card Playing

SCORED FASHIONABLE WOMAN AND LOSES JOB

By United Press Leased Special Wire. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 7.—That the Rev. W. H. Hubbard, former pastor of the fashionable Mill Street Baptist Church, was well within his rights when he denounced from the pulpit Mrs. Helen H. Haggart, a wealthy member of his congregation, for permitting her children to dance and play cards was the decision of the Central Hudson Baptist Association today.

The association considered the appeal of the Rev. Mr. Hubbard from the order of the trustees of the church, termination of his pastorate at an all-night session, during which bitter personalities were indulged in, and to-day returned a verdict that the dismissal was illegal. The trustees were ordered to reinstate Hubbard.

The case has been filled with sensational developments from the outset. Mrs. Haggart took exception to a sermon the minister preached last winter, denouncing dancing and card playing. During a prayer meeting she took occasion to say she considered a knowledge of how to play "bridge" and to dance essential in the education of a child and that her children were being so taught.

The following Sunday the Rev. Mr. Hubbard denounced Mrs. Taggart from the pulpit and told her in so many words that she was not a Christian. Later he demanded that she either have card playing and dancing at her home stopped or withdraw from the church.

The congregation divided into two hostile camps. The big majority were with Mrs. Haggart and held that Hubbard was "old foggy" and a "back number."

Leading members of the church say to-day they will not start and start another church in the city under the mandate of the Baptist Association.

DEMOCRATS CANVASS VOTE

Bayley's Majority in the Entire County for Sheriff Was 415

The Democratic County Committee, of which Chauncey P. Holcomb is chairman, met yesterday afternoon at headquarters in the Democratic League's building and canvassed the vote at the primaries on Saturday. There were no contests, and the official canvass showed the following results:

Sheriff. Bayley, city, 2673; county, 427; total, 3100.

Thompson, city, 1475; county, 1210; total, 2685. Bayley's majority, 415.

Representatives. Fourth district—Dr. Cooper, 587; Councilman Dempsey, 287; Cooper's majority, 300.

White Clay Creek—Fisher, 167; Griffith, 54; Fisher's majority, 113.

New Castle hundred—Boyd, 249; Janvier, 221; Boyd's majority, 28.

Blackbird hundred—Wright, 104; George, 85; Wright's majority, 19.

Senator. Seventh district—David, 288; Armstrong, 131; David's majority, 157.

The Democratic County Convention to nominate the remainder of the ticket will be held in German Hall at 11 o'clock on Thursday, September 15.

Joseph E. Martin the Candidate. In printing the ticket for the Republican primaries next Saturday the printer made a mistake in a name of one of the candidates, so far as the tickets south of Eighth street are concerned, the name of James E. Martin appearing instead of Joseph E. Martin, who is a candidate for sheriff. These tickets, if voted, will be counted by the election officers.

NEED $1,200 TO PAY FOR GIFT

The Board of Trade Committee in charge of the silver service for the U. S. S. Delaware are still short $1200 on the funds necessary to pay for the service, and ask for public contributions. Small sums will be welcomed to meet last payment on the service, which falls due the middle of this month. Contributions will be received at the Millard F. Davis store, at Tenth and Market streets, or at the Security Trust and Safe Deposit Company, by L. Scott Townsend.

STORM DOOR FOR THE COURT HOUSE

For several years past the necessity of storm doors for the Court House has been noticed. Owing to the increasing business in the building the question of heating the building has become serious.

With the north door open nearly all the time there is no protection. At the meeting of the Levy Court yesterday afternoon, Mr. Dennis brought up the question of storm doors. A discussion followed and the public buildings committee will look into the matter.

The idea is to equip the north entrance to the building with a revolving door such as is in use at the post office.

LAFOLLETTE WINS 4 TO 1

Progressive Republicans Name Solid Delegation for Congress

STANDPATTERS BEATEN ALL ALONG THE LINE

By United Press Leased Special Wire. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 7.—When Wisconsin awoke today it found itself swept by the wave of Republican insurgency. Latest returns from the statewide primaries yesterday indicate Senator LaFollette's renomination by a vote of 4 to 1 over his opponent, Samuel A. Cook, millionaire paper manufacturer, "stand pater."

LaFollette carried nearly every county. The LaFollette state ticket is also nominated almost certainly, including Frank T. Tucker, candidate for Attorney-General, who committed suicide a week ago at Oshkosh.

It will be a LaFollette platform convention and a LaFollette state Legislature.

"Fighting Bob's" comment was: "It shows the people are awake to their interests, determined to restore representative government."

"This splendid victory is nothing personal. It is the command of the people that they choose to rule themselves and will no longer suffer themselves to be dominated by special interests."

During the past campaign LaFollette has been too ill to carry on his fight. This brought a host of the "progressives" to his aid. Unaided by other than personal financial backing, they stumped the state.

Francis E. McGovern, progressive candidate for the gubernatorial nomination carried the state, according to latest estimates, by a majority of 20,000 votes against Edward T. Fairchild, stand pater. William Mitchell, Lewis, candidate of the county option issue, finished third. The McGovern campaign endorsed the LaFollette principles and attacked local option.

Thomas Morris, progressive gained the nomination for the Lieutenant-Governorship over George B. Hudnall, stand pater.

James A. Frear, Andrew H. Dahl, progressives, were nominated Secretary of State and State Treasurer respectively.

Frank T. Tucker's place on the ticket will be filled by the State Central Committee, controlled by progressives. Levi Bancroft, stand pater, former speaker of the House and assistant Attorney-General, and H. A. Gunderson, a stalwart, were his opponents.

Latest returns from the eleven congressional districts of the State indicate the progressive wave overwhelmed the stand-patters.

In the first district, Congressman Henry A. Cooper, insurgent defeated Wallace Ingalls, stand-pater. Congressman John M. Nelson, progressive won over Attorney-General Frank L. Gilbert, stand-pater, in the second district.

Congressman A. W. Kopp, progressive, had no opposition in the third. In the fourth and fifth districts which embrace the city of Milwaukee, Congressman William J. Cary and Henry F. Cochems both progressives were nominated, Cary by a vote of seven to one. Cochems, former district attorney of Milwaukee and famed for his prosecution of graft was nominated by a narrow margin over Congressman W. P. Stafford, the only on and out stand-pater in the present Wisconsin delegation.

William M. Frelich, Republican, had no opposition in the sixth. This is the strongest Democratic district in the State. Latest reports say that M. E. Burke of Beaver Dam, progressive, was nominated to succeed Congressman Weiss, who is the Democratic nominee for the United States Senate.

In the seventh Congressman John J. Esch, "half and half," but against Cannon, was nominated without opposition.

In the eighth district Congressman Davidson, insurgent won.

In the ninth, Congressman Kuessner, who claims conversion to insurgency, was nominated over A. W. Spencer, stand-pater.

In the Tenth and Eleventh districts Congressman Morse and Lennort, both progressives, are renominated.

One of the sensations of the primary appears to be the wiping out of the Democratic party in the State. Under the primary law, a party which falls at the primary to poll 20 per cent. of its votes cast at the previous general election has no right to appear under a party designation on the general election ballot. The Democratic party, it is believed, has failed to cast the necessary vote to retain its place. If it does, Adolph J. Schmidt, of Milwaukee, will be the candidate for governor. William A. Jacobs of Racine, is the Socialist candidate for governor.

Although returns are not completed, early to-day, it is generally believed later figures will not change the above results.

By United Press Leased Special Wire. WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The news of LaFollette's victory in Wisconsin, the insurgent success in New Hampshire and the gain of the progressives in Michigan was received in the camp of the administration regular Republicans here to-day with a feeling of surprise. "Stand pater," Standard organization men had centered their forces against LaFollette, bold, resourceful and most radical of all the insurgents.

Primary results in Kansas, Iowa, California, and, in fact throughout the country up-to-date, are taken here to foreshadow one of the liveliest sessions of Congress ever held, with progressive measures in the foreground, the resumption of the fight for physical valuation of railroads, the prominence of effective conservation legislation and hard "last days" for such retiring veterans of the regular ranks as Senator Aldrich and Hale.

President Taft had withheld from LaFollette the patronage usually given a Senator of the President's party. He was not allowed to name his share of the census enumerators, and in the filling of other offices he was wholly without consideration. LaFollette's colleague, "Uncle Ike" Stephenson, 81 years old, lumber king and regular, received the spoils. He was so pleased with the administration that he presented the Chief Executive with a prize cow. Special efforts to annihilate the Badger insurgent were made by the National Republican Congressional Committee. Vice-President Sherman is the guiding spirit of the committee.

Laugh on the Regulars. Men figuring large in the affairs of "big business" thought they might promote the public welfare by pouring a little grease on the LaFollette toboogan. Arrangements for the spectacular event were under way nearly a year ago, but the insurgents say to-day the regulars have slid down their own toboogan.

In the last session of Congress, LaFollette's maneuvers in legislation and his condemnation of the methods and motives of the regulars as they appeared to him, seemed sometimes to arouse a little less rancor among the stand-patters than did some of his earlier crusades.

A number of them regarded him with a resigned "well, we'll soon be rid of him" manner.

Insurgents feel confident that LaFollette's victory will strengthen the insurgent cause throughout the country. They welcome as a sign that the progressive spirit of a large part of the voters of the country takes in even advanced principles of LaFollette.

BASS WINS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE

Progressives Name Candidate for Governor by a Two to One Vote

By United Press Leased Special Wire. CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—That the progressive Republicans are almost in complete control in New Hampshire was made certain today. Belated returns from yesterday's election show that Robert E. Bass, insurgent, has been elected by nearly two to one as Republican nominee for the governorship over Col. Bertram Ellis, of Keen, regular, at the first general primary election in the state's history. Returns from nearly two-thirds of the 290 election districts in the state give the majority by almost 6,000 votes. If this average is maintained throughout the state it will mean that the regulars are routed, horse, foot and dragons. The vote so far returned is: Bass, 12,486; Ellis, 6,787; Carr (Democratic, unopposed), 5,399.

The only glimmer of satisfaction to-day for the "old guard" is that in the first congressional district Cyrus A. Sulloway, regular, was renominated by the Republicans by a large majority against Sherman E. Burroughs, progressive, of Manchester.

One of the chief minor features of the election was the defeat in this city as delegates to the state convention of United States Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, chief supporter of Colonel Ellis, and former Senator William E. Chandler.

Commenting on the result generally, Mr. Chandler today said: "The political wrongs done in New Hampshire by the Republican corporation oligarchy prior to 1906 have been rebuked by the Republican reformers of 1910 and the progressive movement begun in the nation in 1906 by Theodore Roosevelt and in New Hampshire under the leadership of Winston Churchill, has been approved by the New Hampshire Republican voters through the indispensable agency of a model direct primary system."

Sale Brought Small Prices. The sale of the effects of the drug store of Henry Casperson, at Ninth and Market streets, recently closed by constables, held yesterday afternoon, netted but $146.40. A stock of 600 cigars brought $10 and a Tabard Inn bookcase filled with books was sold for another $10. Other lots of property brought even smaller prices.

INDUSTRY WORKMEN ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Industry Lodge, No. 2, A. O. U. W. last night elected these officers: R. H. Quinby, master workman; D. R. Hall, foreman; George Stewart, overseer; G. T. Woodworth, guide; W. A. Danenbach, inside watchman; William M. Graves, outside watchman; J. H. Healy, recorder; I. W. Bowers, financier; Dr. S. H. Johns, receiver; Dr. W. E. Sherwood, Dr. J. W. Mullin and Dr. Irvine M. Flinn, medical examiners; J. H. Kealy, trustee; I. W. Bowers, J. H. Kealy, D. R. Hall and C. E. Searles, representatives to the Grand Lodge, which meets at Dover next February.

INSURGENT VICTORIES

Progressive Republican Movement Gains Ground in Every Direction

LAFOLLETTE WINS THE WISCONSIN FIGHT

MOTOR BOAT OWNERS FINED

Government Enforces Regulation Requiring Safety Devices on Small River Craft

INSPECTORS SWEEP DOWN ON SUNDAY RIVER PARTIES

Eighteen motor boat owners were arraigned before Collector of Port Harry R. Raymond, in the Federal Building today charged with violating the rules of navigation. The men were notified on Sunday by Customs Inspectors Chandler and Middleton to appear before the collector at 11 o'clock this morning. These inspectors on the launch "C. King," chartered for the occasion, cruised in the waters around Wilmington on Sunday afternoon and evening in that time inspected between thirty and thirty-five launches. Of this number eighteen were found that were being operated in violation of government regulations.

Whenever the inspectors came up with a launch they halted it and in some instances were able to come along side the vessel. In each case the inspectors took an inventory of the equipment and lights and learned whether there was a copy of the pilot rules aboard as required by law. The majority of infractions of the rules were not having a copy of the pilot rules aboard.

One launch hailed by the inspectors was crossing the river from Penn's Grove in the evening without a light showing. At the time two large vessels were in the channel, one going up stream and the other down the river.

Another boat that the inspector came upon during the afternoon cruise was a small open craft and aboard it were ten children the oldest being about 12 years of age and the youngest about four years of age. There were no life savers aboard and only one man was operating the boat to look after the safety of the precious crew.

The raid made upon the launches was conducted quietly and none of the vessel owners hailed by the inspectors knew what was wanted until he came along side. Where infractions of the rules were found the names of the owners or operators of the vessels were taken and they were notified to appear before the collector of port this morning.

The law provides a maximum fine of $100 for any infraction of the rules and the fines imposed by the collector, while small, compared with the maximum, caused considerable kicking by the offenders before they paid. The collector said that he would not have a copy of the pilot rules aboard $5 each; those who had no equipment whatever $10, and the owner of the boat which crossed the Delaware river without any lights showing, $25.

Raymond refused to make public the names of the owners of the boats, who were fined, saying that it was their first offense and some of them had requested him to withhold their names.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED

Two Disturbances Felt Early This Morning at Cleveland. By United Press Leased Special Wire. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 7.—The records of two earthquakes were reported today at St. Ignace College. The first disturbance began at 2.13 and lasted until 2.47 a. m. The second shock began at 4.57 and continued until 5.21 a. m.

Owing to the absence of preliminary shock records, Father Odenbach is unable to estimate the distance.

BRITAIN WINS FISHERIES CASE

Hague Tribunal Decides International Dispute Against United States

DECISION WILL NOT DISTURB FISHERMEN

By United Press Leased Special Wire. THE HAGUE, Sept. 7.—With certain qualifications the International Court of Arbitration to which was left the settlement of the fisheries dispute between Great Britain and the United States has decided in favor of Great Britain on all important issues. The award was announced this afternoon by Professor Lummasch.

It is unanimous on all points except that of the exclusion of United States fishermen from bays.

Great Britain to Regulate. WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Though the United States wins five of the seven counts, Great Britain is victorious in respect to the two more important features. The main result of the controversy is that Great Britain will have the authority to regulate fishing off the New Foundland coast. It is provided that the United States must be given two months' notice of new regulations. Judge Gray, of Delaware, was a member of the court.

It is not believed that the decision will disturb the industry to any great extent, as the question of the actual right of the Americans to fish in the waters was not at issue.

Week End Party at Smyrna. A delightful week end party was given by Miss Agnes Stephenson at her home in Smyrna. The guests were the Misses Katherine Truax, Mary Truax, Florence Morton, Louise Gay, Disston Jacobs and Alfred Gilbert, all of Wilmington, and C. Henry Rayburn, of Bridgeville.

LAFOLLETTE MAJORITY 100,000.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 7.—Progressive Republican leaders at noon today estimated that the majority for Senator "Battle Bob" LaFollette at the Republican primaries over his stand pat opponent would be 100,000.

Latest primary returns this afternoon show the Democrats saved for themselves a place on the official ballot by securing the required twenty per cent. of the party vote.

Stalwart leaders undismayed by the overwhelming defeat administered in the primaries, openly admit they will vote for Democrats in preference to the progressive nominees.

TWO KILLED IN WRECK.

By United Press Leased Special Wire. MANSFIELD, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Fifteen passengers on a Cleveland & Southwestern traction car were injured, two fatally and six seriously when the car jumped the tracks and overturned on a curve in the east outskirts of Mansfield today.

INVITE CHARGE AGAINST CHIEF

Police Commission Would Have Complainant Proceed Outside Newspaper Columns

At the weekly meeting of the Police Commission yesterday afternoon Police Commissioner Charles R. Jones called attention to an article which appeared in a Sunday newspaper in which Chief of Police Black was accused by a resident of the city with neglect of duty inasmuch as he would not order the arrest of a robbery suspect. Mr. Jones denied most of the statements which he was quoted as saying in the article published.

The commissioners discussed the matter and it was decided to send a communication to the resident who made the charges against Chief Black and to notify him that if he had any charges to make against any member of the police department to prefer them before the Police Commission.

The monthly reports of the various officers of the department were reviewed by the commission. The patrol sergeants reported that there had been 247 patrol calls during the month of August and that 301 people had been carried. The matrons reported having had 51 people in their charge during the past month. Chief Black reported having collected $57.60 in dog tags during August. The fines collected in the City Court last week amounted to $78.10.

OVERCOME BY HEAT AS SUMMER WANES

Two workmen were overcome by heat yesterday. One of them, Hugh Murphy, of No. 626 East Second street, is employed by the McCullough Iron Company, and the other was William Swiggett, an employee at the Augustine Paper Mills. Both victims were taken to the Delaware Hospital, where the fracture was reduced.

POLICE KEEP ORDER AT SLAIN WOMAN'S FUNERAL

The funeral of Mrs. Wilhelmnia Derry, who was murdered by her husband, on last Thursday afternoon, took place yesterday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of James T. Chandler in West Ninth street, and was largely attended. Interment was made in the Silverbrook Cemetery.

The woman's relatives, who by instructions from Derry were not to have anything to do with the body or the funeral, were permitted to be present. There was a big crowd in front of the undertaking establishment and the police had to keep order.

$15,000 IN THE POLICE PENSION FUND

Owing to the absence of a quorum the regular meeting of the Police Pension Fund Committee, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon, was postponed. It was announced that the police cleared about $1600 on the field sports held in August for the benefit of the fund.

This sum will be added to the fund, which amounts to nearly $15,000.

COL. MITCHELL FOR STATE CHAIRMAN

No call has been issued as yet for a meeting of the new Republican State Committee to elect a chairman. The meeting can be called on request of three members of the committee.

It is said that Colonel Edmund Mitchell of this city probably will be chosen as chairman of the new State Committee to lead the Republican forces in the campaign.

SCOTT CARNIVAL OPENS TONIGHT

East Side Methodists Prepare Many Amusements for Fair Visitors

With hammers flying and lanterns glittering, Taylor street, between Lombard and Pine streets, last night presented one continuous square of carpentering for near 50 male members of Scott M. E. Church were engaged in erecting booths for the annual street carnival by the church to be given this evening, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Twenty booths fill the block and after the decorations are completed this afternoon, the effect will be unusually pretty.

Many features such as the "Orange Grove," the "Fortune Teller," and "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," will add to the amusement of the young folks, and, with the other general amusements, there will be plenty of fun for all.

The electric light illumination this year will be finer than ever, and the arches which mark the entrance at each end of the square are of new design and construction. The village postoffice is always popular, and there will be letters for nearly every visitor. No person will be admitted inside the gates without a ticket, but, upon entering a coupon will be returned to the bearer, which will be good in payment for any 10-cent purchase. It is expected that over one thousand persons will visit the carnival this evening, and all preparations to handle the large crowds have been completed. A band of 20 pieces have been engaged.

REPUBLICANS CARRY VERMONT

Democrats Make Gains in Both Branches of the Legislature

By United Press Leased Special Wire. BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 7.—With returns from only two counties and eight small towns missing, the plurality for Governor over Charles D. Watson, Democrat, in yesterday's election, is estimated at about 16,000. These figures, even the Republicans admit, approach the danger mark, as indication of the general result in the rest of the country. In the last State election the Republican plurality was 29,545.

Bad weather throughout the State yesterday, and the personal attacks on Mead, the Republicans say, account in part for the slump in the party vote, but may point to the fact that whenever in other years the Republican plurality has fallen below 20,000 Democratic victories have followed.

Although figures are as yet unavailable, it is certain that the Democrats in yesterday's voting made gains in both branches of the Legislature, but United States Senator Carroll S. Page will undoubtedly be re-elected.

Both Republican Congressmen, David J. Foster and Frank Plumley, were returned, but it will be some days before the size of their victory is known.

C. D. Watson, the Democratic candidate for governor, not only carried his home city of St. Albans by a wide majority, reversing the Republican victory of two years ago, but he also came within 35 votes of carrying Franklin county, which has always been known as strongly Republican. Two years ago Franklin county went Republican by 1,945.

RELATIVES GOT WOMAN.

Found wandering about the streets on the east side of town, a white woman, said to be Mary Heaton, aged 30 years, was taken in charge by Patrolman Maloney and sent to the police station, where she was locked up as a demented person. Yesterday afternoon her relatives were located and they took her home.

RIVER ROAD SUBJECT BOILS

Comptroller Chandler Thinks Present Highways Should be Extended

NEW PART WOULD BENEFIT CITY GREATLY

County Comptroller Philemina Chandler said today that he could not understand why the city want to build a road to the river. Mr. Chandler says there already are two roads to the river, how. One being 80 and the other 100 feet wide.

Mr. Chandler was chairman of the City Council committee that in 1878 built a street to the river bank. The city spent considerable money to grade that street and fill in the piece of marsh beyond the fast land. But individualism sprung up and ever since the council after council and boards of trade after boards of trade, as well as men in all walks of life, have talked about a road to the river without further progress.

"Nothing has been done and nothing will be done on the project until one man favors the road. Then it can be built in three months. Wilmington is isolated and shut out as a port of entry. Look at state boats to Philadelphia with Delaware's products, trade and cash and Wilmington stands idly by and lets this condition of affairs exist," continued Mr. Chandler.

The Levy Court built a road 100 feet wide to the river. The Levy Court built Seventh street bridge and $40,000 was spent for the people. But although Seventh street goes to the river bank, the street would be a third of a mile from deep water. It is Mr. Chandler's idea that one of these roads be extended to river front. In his opinion it is only a matter of a year that a new bridge is needed between Third and Fourth streets.

SEWING SOCIETY MEETING.

The sewing society of the Swedish M. E. Church will meet to-morrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adolpha Erickson, No. 1130 Head street.

The children of the Swedish M. E. Church gave a successful and pleasing entertainment on Saturday night, realizing $50.

WHITE CLAY REPUBLICANS ACTIVE

White Clay Creek huddled Republicans held an enthusiastic meeting last evening and several county candidates were present. These included Joseph C. Jolly, Francis M. Walker, Isaac R. Brown, Henry Thompson and Alexander Guthrie. Committees were appointed to look after the voters on next Saturday. White Clay Creek huddled Republicans are in fine shape. An effort is being made to get either Dr. Ellison or Joseph Reeves to withdraw from the contest for State Senator in the Fifth district.

John Levey, who was a candidate for coroner, has withdrawn and will be a candidate in 1912.

STATE POSTMASTERS IN CONVENTION

The annual convention of the postmasters of Delaware will be held in Wilmington on September 23. The sessions will be held in the civil service rooms in the Federal building.

There are 113 postoffices in the state and it is expected that almost all will be present. Postmaster M. Howard Jester today received a letter from the officers of the association inviting him to make the address of welcome and he has accepted.

The postmasters will make their headquarters at the Clayton House.

WATER WITCH FIREMEN MEET.

Because the monthly meeting of the Water Witch Fire Company fell on Monday Labor Day, the meeting was held last evening. The Trip Association of the company will hold a meeting this evening, when the representative of the company having the contract for uniforms will take the measurements of those who are going on the trip next year.

WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Showers probably will overspread the western lake region and lower Ohio valley tonight or Thursday in advance of the western disturbance as it moves eastward; elsewhere east of the Mississippi river, mostly fair weather will prevail.

The temperature in eastern sections will not change materially, but is likely to be slightly cooler tonight along the mid-Atlantic coast.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Forecast till 8 p. m. tomorrow: For Delaware—Fair tonight and Thursday; slightly cooler tonight; moderate northwest winds, becoming light and variable.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The following special storm warning was posted this afternoon: A tropical storm of considerable intensity prevails near and south of Porto Rico. It is moving west by north. San Juan reports a maximum wind of 72 miles an hour and torrential rains."
