Therein beer-making is described with all the meticulousness of the careful chronicler.

Now the library authorities are undecided whether to bar Dr. Charles W. Eliot's famous Harvard classics from the shelves, since it is found the same information exists in Volume 35.

Presence of a man stationed by a really company to enforce an attachment on her lingerie shop, ruined business, said Helen Burdell, of San Francisco, suing for $27,500. Modest girls would not buy while he gazed.

The yoke of matrimony fits better now on the collarless neck of the wage earner than ever on the white collar of the salaried man. Chicago license clerks say permits to salaried men are 25 per cent. below normal.

William Fletcher told the Milwaukee court that he expects to be spoken to when he speaks. He tried to lure a cigar store Indian into conversation and pushed it through the store window.

"How do you get that way?" inquired Policeman Herman Kufeldt, of Milwaukee, as he disentangled himself from the loving embrace of Anna Meyers right in public. Her demure response was "Cough drops."

Nineteen hundred gallons of 4 per cent. beer are exported to Pittsburgh from Smithton, O. The beverage was dumped into the river by revenue agents.

ST. PAUL'S BOOSTERS AT CLASE MEETING

Fifty members and friends of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church visited the McCombe-Clase evangelistic party at First M. E. Church, Camden, N. J. Thursday night.

The Booster Club, composed of about 50 children, had charge of the first part of the services, under the direction of Professor Harold C. Clase. They sang one selection called "Signals," using the various colored lights as signals. During this song the church was darkened with the exception of a large electric cross. Master Walter Grinsell, of Wilmington, sang "He Invented Me." The Rev. Carlisle L. Hubbard, pastor of St. Paul's Church, made the opening prayer. The McCombe-Clase quartet sang "Lord, It Is I."

The Booster Club presented Professor Clase with a solid locked and chain for his baby daughter, Winifred Jane Clase. At the close of the service Officer Archer, who is a friend of Officer Hul-

ESCAPED AN OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many Such Cases.

Cairo, Ill.—"Sometime ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and every one told me the same but I kept fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I keep house and am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine."

—Mrs. J. R. MATTHEWS, 3311 Sycamore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Of course there are many serious cases that only a surgical operation will relieve. We freely acknowledge this, but the above letter, and many others like it, amply prove that many operations are recommended when medicine in many cases is all that is needed.
