

FIX JAN. 31 FOR LAWYER'S TRIAL

Robert Adair to Answer Indictment Charging Embezzlement

HENDERSON LOSES PRISON SENTENCE

Trial of Robert Adair, suspended member of the New Castle county bar, on two indictments charging him with embezzlement, was set for January 31 by Judge Richards, in Court of General Sessions, yesterday afternoon.

Argument on Mr. Adair's application for a continuance because of the illness of a material witness, was heard by the court Wednesday afternoon and yesterday morning.

Judgment of the Municipal Court in the case of Walter Henderson, Negro, charged with assault and battery on Bennie Wilder, Negro, was reversed by a jury in the county court yesterday afternoon. In the lower tribunal Wilder and Henderson were sentenced to three years' imprisonment each on charges of assault and battery on each other, but the jury yesterday acquitted Henderson, who appealed the case from the Municipal Court.

Henderson shot Wilder, but maintained that he committed the assault in self-defense after Wilder had stabbed him.

Warner Lewis, Negro, who was convicted by a jury several days ago on a charge of attempted breaking and entering, was sentenced by Judge Rodney to 18 months' imprisonment. The court commented that there was nothing to justify leniency. It was shown that Lewis has served three terms of imprisonment.
