CITY NEWS.

From Thursday's Daily.

Burglars made a raid on Fargo Tuesday night.

Frank Andre sold a house and lot to a party living at Spiritwood.

Judge Hamilton sold 1,272 head of sheep yesterday. Griggs county farmers carried off 672 of these.

J. E. NeSmith and wife came down from New Rockford yesterday, and are guests of the Gladstone.

Judge Hamilton visited James Moon's final proof through Clerk of Court Branch's office yesterday.

The Masons will give a theatrical entertainment in the near future. They have, it is said, selected a good play and everybody knows that there is an abundance of dramatic talent in the order with which to present it.

Agent Allen of the D. M. Osborne machinery company, is in the city today. He says the farmers in the Northern Pacific belt are in better condition this year than last, the fact being especially noticeable in Barnes county.

Hon. David Wellman of New Rockford, one of the representatives elect to the coming legislature and a strong candidate for speaker of the house, was in the city yesterday on his way to Bismarck whither he proceeded this morning.

Invitations are out for the "fancy dress mask charity ball" under the auspices of the commercial travelers of the northwest, at Grand Forks on Nov. 15th. The proceeds are for the benefit of Nelson and Ramsey county sufferers.

A Watertown man is reported as possessing an ingenious device that digs potatoes, picks them up and deposits them in bags, and at the same time disposes of the vines and pulverizes the ground. The Mandan Pioneer says it is not specified what the device is, but probably it is an unusually faithful hired man.

A. B. Allen, formerly with the Pioneer Press and well known in this city, having made it his headquarters for a long while, is now in the city with his wife, en route to St. Louis to attend the "Silver convention" in session there. He was appointed by the territorial governor of Montana to represent that commonwealth.

The Burlington Reporter says that the noble redskins and illustrious half breeds are now adding their voice to the predictions of weather prophets and scientists, that next year will be a wet year in Dakota. The Indians say that all the lake beds, creeks and ravines fill up every seven years, and that next year is the time for the change.

Bismarck Tribune: The attorney general will render an opinion today that all appointive territorial offices, including notaries public, hold over until their commissions expire or their successors are appointed. Of course where any such offices are now being held by residents of South Dakota, vacancies will now occur and appointments in such cases made. All notarial seals should now be changed to North Dakota.

A number of Fargo residences were entered by burglars Tuesday night and robbed. Among the number being that of Dr. Sharlock. He tells the Republic that his gold watch was stolen from him for the fourth time. One man served a term of five years in Pennsylvania; another was released for returning the watch; and Eddy who stole it from him in that city, has six months more to serve at Bismarck. That watch is certainly a burglar's hoodoo, and the chances are that the unlucky dog that has it now will soon be thrown under its malign spell. It would seem that even a detective ought to be able to find a clue that would lead to the capture of enterprising Mr. Burglar on this account.

Peter Pearson hands The Alert a clipping from the Glasgow (Scotland) Weekly Mail, which contains an account of the forgery, capture and sentence of Oswald Rendall Miles, who masqueraded so successfully at Fargo and other places as an English earl. The young gentleman no longer graces the drawing rooms of the upper ten. He is doing time in an English prison. The Mail of the 25th of October says: "At Old Bailey, London, on Wednesday, Oswald Rendall Miles, aged 22, a clerk, pleaded guilty to stealing £215, the monies of his employers, Messrs. Goodall, stock brokers." It then relates the story of the forgery and the London inspector's chase across the continental for the thief, closing with the following: "The only excuse pleaded in the case was the youth of the prisoner and the fact that he had been gambling on the stock exchange and lost his money. Accused was sentenced to eighteen months' hard labor."

From Friday's Daily.

James Buchanan and wife of Rio, ar stopping at the Gladstone.

Hon. D. B. Wellman returned from Bismarck last night and went north this morning.

Judge Chess, Sykeston's real estate boomer, came in on the train from the north this afternoon.

P. W. Alley has removed his second hand stock to the room on Fifth avenue south adjoining that occupied by Johnson's tailor.

J. T. Eager is putting in steam heating apparatus in The Alert building. Every room is to be heated by this means, from a new and larger boiler capacity. As a matter of economy and comfort this method should always go along with steam power, and generally does. Mr. Eager has recently put in complete steam heating for Dr. DePry's residence, and while there has not been weather for a test, it is believed the result will be all that could be expected.

The cold snap of last Sunday sent the geese and ducks mostly out of the country. The smaller lakes—what few there were that had any water in them—were frozen over, and although the days since have been rather warm, yet the ice will bear walking upon. A few Canada geese still linger, but the hunting season, which has proved unusually satisfactory, has about closed for this year. There are plenty of prairie chickens left in the fields however, and there is always the jack rabbit to crack at.

From Saturday's Daily.

Ben Jones is reported on the sick list.

F. D. Alexander, who has been at Carington, returned this afternoon.

H. D. Hewitt came down from Melville yesterday, and was a Gladstone guest last night.

A message from Harry Flint received today stated that the funeral party arrived safely at Claremont, N. H., and services would be held tomorrow.

Lieutenant Rodgers, while at work in Mandan yesterday, fell from a pole, a distance of thirteen feet and sprained his back. The injury is painful but not serious.

The ladies of the Congregational church have arranged for an oyster supper, to be given next Thursday evening, the 14th, of which further mention will be made.

Joe D. Mills, the live insurance man, has returned from an extended trip south and north. While at Grand Forks he convinced Judge Corliss that a $5,000 policy was a good investment.

Hon. Geo. Lutz has secured quarters for this winter at Bismarck. He will occupy the room which President Fancher had during the con. con., and Frank Aikens during the last legislature.

P. W. Alley, supreme dictator of the Knights of Honor, a benevolent order with insurance and beneficiary features, expects to organize a local lodge here about the 20th inst. Already there are about fifty applications for membership.

Mr. Klaus is up at the college this afternoon collecting some data, upon which to base an estimate of the cost of lighting the entire building with electric lights. Soon this popular institution will be equipped with all modern conveniences.

L. B. Durstine, a former well known resident of Jamestown, now located in Iowa, is in the city. He is accompanied by Hon. J. H. Sarles of Rosebud, Wis. Both gentlemen are looking after old matters connected with the late firm of Sarles & Durstine.

In getting evidence to bear on the trial of young Melton, the Fargo post-office clerk who is under arrest, three shots have been fired at 11:30 p. m. in the postoffice with the intent to experiment. The weight of such evidence is of course to be determined by jury.

The congregation of the Presbyterian church are to be congratulated upon their securing Rev. H. G. Mendenhall to temporarily supply the vacancy in their pulpit. Mr. Mendenhall is a brilliant and versatile man of letters and a preacher of recognized force and ability. Beginning tomorrow, he will regularly supply the pulpit of the church.

A. M. Clough, the plumber, has finished laying pipe to connect the college with the water main. He laid 1,400 feet of pipe yesterday and 500 feet today. This afternoon Mr. Clough screwed a water gage on the pipe at the top of the bluff and found the pressure to be 60 pounds to the inch, with the fountain and water trough both running. The pressure at the well is 100 pounds.

Red, white and blue circulars coming from the happy locality of Aberdeen, tell that the loyal and patriotic Dakota boys, with their families if desired, can go to Washington in a special drawing room car extension, leaving Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 28th. The whole cost of the trip, including meals and sleepers at Washington, is $75, less than half price.

Mrs. J. C. Reinhout in Argue: I returned last evening from my sad errand to Jamestown. I was very much gratified with the thoughtful kindness of Dr. Archibald, his family and assistants, both toward me and my departed husband. I shall never forget his great kindness. My husband was buried in Jamestown. Hereafter I shall be in my shop 222 Broadway, where I shall be glad to see all my old customers.

The following order from the Brotherhood of Locomotive firemen, Lodge No. 85, is to take effect at Army hall, Fargo, Thanksgiving evening next. The order is written on regulation tissue paper, and is number 11. It is signed by Eugene McAniff, C. M. Conroy, J. W. Beebe, committee, and stands as follows: To yourself and ladies: Run from your home to Army hall; dance between 8:30 p. m. and 3:00 a. m.; to music by Rupert's orchestra; meet Ehrman with refreshments at 12 a. m. Flag against long trains; approach crossings with caution, and look out for another party following next year. Be particular to enjoy yourself.

Today has been soft and balmy, the sun shining brightly and everybody enjoying the pleasure of being out of doors. Contrast the difference, as seen in the following dispatch from southern Texas, the telegram being dated yesterday:

"The deepest snow that has fallen here in twelve years in on the ground now. It is six inches deep. All trains on Ft. Worth & Denver are blocked north of here and there are eight engines in snow drifts seventy five miles north of Clearwater. Drifts are nine feet deep. This is the worst snow storm that ever visited the Pan Handle." It is safe to say that no where in the United States is the weather more reasonable and pleasant than in North Dakota.

From Monday's Daily.

Mrs. A. P. Halstead is improving slowly.

The county commissioners have been in session for several days.

J. R. Eagan, the merchant prince of Spiritwood, is in town today.

Sheriff James of Neche, brought a female patient to the asylum yesterday.

E. P. Wells and wife went to LaMoure this morning to spend the day at the farm.

The Lupher Brothers will, it is said, return to Pennsylvania, taking several car loads of stock.

The atmosphere was sharp and biting this morning. The thermometer registered 10 above zero.

J. S. Hillyer and A. Miller, of Bismarck, were in the city yesterday and stopped at the Gladstone.

F. G. Mulliken and wife left this afternoon for Duluth, which place they will make their future residence.

Mrs. Geo. Jackson died this morning. She leaves a husband and three children. Funeral arrangements were not made this morning.

Mrs. N. R. Beall left this afternoon for Dubuque, Ia., where she goes to join her husband. They will make that place their future home.

Supt. McCabe is at home again after a few days' trip to St. Paul, to which point he accompanied Miss Mary on her return to college at Quincy.

John and Mrs. Gray intend to spend most of the winter months on the farm at "the lake" where the increasing number of stock demand corresponding care and attention.

It is said that a matter of local interest, which promises to develop into something of a sensation, will probably come before the grand jury at the coming December term of court.

Sheriff Schmitz is around notifying those whom lot has decreed should serve the county as grand and petit jurors at the Stateman county term of court, which will open December 3.

A HORRID MAN.

He kissed her "on the mouth's pale rays. He kissed her on the lips and "forrid," She bent on him a melting gaze. And softly murmured, "Ain't you horrid?" —Boston Courier.

Editor Bassett, of the lively and prosperous Valley City Farmers Alliance, was in the city a short time today and made a fraternal call at The Alert office. He runs one of the brightest and best farmer's papers in the state.

Giles Harrington expects to leave in a few days for a visit at his old Vermont home. He says he will return to Dakota in the spring, but expects to locate at Pierre, if it happens that the boom has not petered out before that time.

E. J. White returned this morning from an extended western trip. He was gone over a month and went as far as the jumping off places, Portland and Tacoma. Mr. White says he saw a large number of former Jamestown people on his trip and that all of them seemed to be prosperous.

Hon. Hugh McDonald of Barnes county, was in Jamestown last week looking over the sheep for sale by home dealers. Jamestown is becoming the sheep market for a large scope of country. Several sales have been made to Cavalier, Griggs and Foster county parties during the last few days.

Fred Clark has purchased the cigar business of C. H. Dennison, who expects to leave in a few days for Spokane Falls. Mr. Clark will continue to keep a large and first class stock of cigars and tobacco. He has secured the services of M. Drum as an assistant in conducting the business.

It is said Judge Bartholomew will reside in Fargo during the winter, and not at Bismarck, as was reported. The LaMoure friends of the judge are urging him to keep his residence in his own little city, and it is not unlikely that he may see the advantages of keeping up old relationships, and a fine constituency.

The board of asylum trustees meets Tuesday, having changed the date made at the last monthly meeting on account of the legislature's early assembling. The manner in which the board is transacting its business with merchants and dealers is winning general commendation. Promptness and good sense are excellent qualifications for managers of public business as well as private.

Tax certificates were in good demand last week at the annual sale by Deputy Treasurer Nierling. Fredrus Baldwin bought up a large number for A. M. Bowdle, a Mitchell, South Dakota banker, and Alfred Steel purchased for L. Alfred of Waterloo, Iowa. The certificates of the county tax sale are considered a first class investment, and those of the original town of Jamestown as well." They draw 30 per cent interest.

Miss Nellie Hodge had a narrow escape yesterday from an exit by the kerosene route. Her sister had poured some kerosene in a cup and she, thinking it was water, picked the cup up and carelessly tossed the contents into the hearth of the cooking stove. The kerosene, striking live coals, blazed up, setting her dress on fire. Her apron and dress were badly burned before the fire could be extinguished. Miss Hodge's hands were badly burned, but she escaped without other injury.

Fred Haynes arrived yesterday in "Haynes' Palace Studio Car," which is side-tracked here for a few days for business. The car is in front of the passenger depot. Mr. Haynes is one of the artists of the profession, and his work speaks for itself. He reports a big business on the Fargo & Southwestern, and that at Edgeley people were waiting at the depot to get their pictures taken. For an year the popular car does a big business. It will doubtless be visited by many during its stay here to examine the fine portraits and other attractions. Prof. Parris, of the St. Paul studio, is assisting Mr. Haynes.

Three young purloiners of black diamonds from the railroad coal sheds were run in Saturday night, but upon making many solemn promises never to do it again, were released yesterday. The few hours spent in the bastle it is thought will have a reformatory tendency on their young minds. It is said that the kids had stolen about two tons when discovered. The fuel problem is not so easy of solution now as it was in the early days, when Gen. Anderson used to tell the few residents of the little hamlet then just beginning to be called "Jamestown" that if they could not find coal elsewhere, to borrow it from the company's coal sheds. However, there was no coal yard here then and conditions have changed all around since. Now the company employs a watchman to see that its property rights are respected and the man who makes a sneak on the coal sheds selects a dark night and crawls up on all fours.

The Gray Bros' stock farm at Spiritwood lake is one of the finest in the state, while the buildings are unsurpassed. Abundance of pure water is at all times to be had, and feed is sufficient in the neighborhood for all the stock in that part of the county. The low price of beef and the little demand for young horses make sales slow at present, but one crop will change the thing right around, and the Gray Bros. are determined to be on hand to take advantage of the rise in this property, which is bound to come. The great losses of three-year-olds and under in Montana during the past two years show that little competition can be looked for from that quarter, before the thousands of young cattle growing into prime beef in North Dakota will be ready for market. The railroad companies have shipped east less Montana stock than in any year for five past seasons. The shipments have been closed down for two weeks.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Trustees Hubbard and Rea came in this morning to attend a meeting of the asylum board.

Cooperstown Courier: H. P. Hammer went to Jamestown Tuesday, and purchased 512 sheep.

Mrs. Chaffee of Edmunds, started this afternoon for Vermont. Mr. C. left last night with a car of stock.

There is a break in a water main near J. R. Winslow's residence, and his yard is flooded in consequence.

B. Pearson of Carrington, came down on the Northern branch yesterday afternoon and spent the night at the Gladstone.

Mrs. Johnson Nickels expects to leave tomorrow for Washington, D. C., to make a lengthy visit among her old friends and neighbors.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give an oyster supper in the Metropolitan block on Thursday evening of this week.

Special Agent H. P. Packard of the Alliance Insurance company, is in the city today in consultation with General Manager Fancher.

Nelson County Observer: The boys at the court house have received their new seals of the "State of North Dakota," and in consequence are mildly jubilant.

Cooperstown Courier: A. J. McCabe the popular superintendent of the Northern Pacific, informs us that the long looked for new time card for the branch will come out one week from next Sunday.

The addition to the Episcopal church is rapidly nearing completion. The stone used for the walls, the ordinary builders that are found all over the prairies, is an excellent building material, and very handsome as well.

Railroad Commissioner Bartlett, who was in the city yesterday, said that the new board had not yet organized, but that it would undoubtedly do so within a few days, and that the members would soon get together for that purpose.

The total number of meals furnished by the dining cars on the Northern Pacific during the past year was two hundred and eighty-three thousand, eight hundred and fifty-three. Notwithstanding this immense number the department shows a loss.

Minneapakan Siftings: Charles Yerkes shipped his household goods to Jamestown Monday, and Wednesday Mrs. Yerkes and baby left for the same place, where they will hereafter reside. They carry with them the best wishes of their many friends.

Remember our stay this year is but one week. We leave Monday next, and if you expect our best attention do not wait till the last day to sit. Come at once and you then give us a better chance to please you, which we wish to do. Haynes' Palace Studio car.

The Northern Pacific management is said to be considering the feasibility of adding another through train to its passenger service.

"Honest Dave" Wellman of New Rockford, was in the city yesterday en route to St. Paul, where he goes pursuant to the request of the Eddy county commissioners, to interview Northern Pacific railroad officials in regard to free transportation for coal for needy settlers.

The Western Union Telegraph company has a force of men at work stringing a copper wire through this section along the line of the Northern Pacific. The wire is to connect Chicago and Portland, and will be one of the longest on the continent, a distance of over 2,300 miles.

The south bound passenger train on the Jamestown & Northern has been coming in late with great punctuality for several weeks, and the afternoon east bound train, which is always held for it, has also been late in consequence. Yesterday it was nearly an hour and a half behind time.

Ed. Bowman left this afternoon for an eastern trip. He said he was going to Chicago—possibly farther—and intimated that the boys who so positively asserted he would bring a bride back with him last time he was east, might make the same prediction about this trip with greater show of reason.

The board of asylum trustees are holding a meeting today with President Fancher, Secretary Rea and Mr. Hubbard present, Trustees Kennedy and Russell being absent. The board has under consideration the reports of the officials of the institution and is engaged in formulating their own report.

A prairie fire thirty miles west of Minneapakan did considerable damage about a week ago, destroying 25 tons of hay for James Michels, 25 tons for Dave Denoyer, 25 tons for James Mancel, 25 tons for Dan Dohney and 50 tons for H. E. Hoadley. This will leave the above parties somewhat short for their winter's hay.

A few days ago a poor, but honest German laborer was caught in the act of tearing down one of Goodman's posters. When arrested and asked to explain, "Well," he said, "I read by the bill, dot Goodman has got the biggest and cheapest stock in town, and the news was so good I pull down the bill to read the other side." He was acquitted.

From the Valley City Farmers Alliance it is learned that "Uncle John" Russell, accompanied by Mrs. Russell and their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Miller, left home a week ago, and their post office address for the next three months will be Walter's Park Sanitarium, Berks county, Pennsylvania. They go there that Mrs. R. may receive medical aid.

Rainy Buttes Sentinel: To the question by our reporter, how he likes our coal, Mr. Griswold replied: "I am very much pleased with it. In fact it exceeds my expectations, and I believe I shall prefer it to the 'Hocking Valley' coal, as it makes equally as quick and hot fire, and is entirely free from soot, which I consider a strong recommendation."

Transcript-New Era: The president of the North Dakota Republican league, Banker Sebring, used the seal of the new state on official papers Monday at 7 o'clock a. m. The territory was declared a state Saturday afternoon, the news of the event reaching North Dakota late in the evening. Mr. Sebring has a just claim to the title of using the first state seal in the grandest Roman of them all—North Dakota.

Dickinson Press: A North Dakota justice who was in the habit of allowing a certain attorney to write up the docket after each trial, was surprised the other day to find that during his absence from the office said legal light had entered up judgment and closed a case in which he was attorney for the plaintiff, giving his client all he asked for without trial, judge or jury. It is hardly necessary to state that the attorney has lost the confidence of the court.

Either of the following engravings, "Evangeline," "Bayard," "Monarch of the Glen" or "The First Step," without advertising on them, size 20 x 24 inches, given with one 50 cent or two 25 cent bottles of Ideal Tooth Powder. These are not cheap lithographs, but works of art. A. D. Bowman, Dentist, Nicholia, Idaho, says, I am using your Ideal Tooth Powder, and find it superior to all others.

The engraving "Evangeline" arrived safely on the 24th of December, making it seem like a Christmas gift. Trusting that Ideal Tooth Powder may flourish, I remain, yours respectfully, Elois Earnest, Denver, Col. One of these engravings without advertising on it worth $1 retail is given with each two 25 cent bottles of Ideal Tooth Powder.

From the fountain in the park last night there arose a mist which a block away, looked like smoke from a heavy smudge. From the column of water that shot up fifteen or twenty feet, the mist continued to rise, and so dense was it that in the moonlight it was impossible to distinguish between that and the spray. The reason of this is that the water is of much higher temperature than the atmosphere, and the two coming in contact the mist is formed just as it does when one breathes on a cold, frosty morning.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., county attorney, Clay county, Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all malarial diseases, and for all kidney, liver and stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c and $1. at Baldwin & Smith's drugstore.

There is comfort for the man with a prematurely gray beard in Buckingham's Dye, because it never fails to color an even brown or black as may be desired.

Skin entirely gone. Flesh a mass of disease. Leg diminished one-third in size. Condition hopeless. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies in two months.

Cured by Cuticura.

For three years I was almost crippled with an awful sore leg from my knee down to my ankle; the skin was entirely gone, and the flesh was one mass of disease. Some physicians pronounced it incurable. It had diminished about one-third the size of the other, and I was in a hopeless condition. After trying all kinds of remedies and spending hundreds of dollars, I found which I got no relief whatever. I was persuaded to try your Cuticura Remedies, and the result was as follows: After three days I noticed a decided change for the better, and at the end of two months I was completely cured. My flesh was purified, and the bone which had been exposed for over a year got sound. The flesh began to grow, and today, and for nearly two years past, my leg is as well as it ever was, sound in every respect, and not a sign of the disease to be seen. S. G. ABEIN, Dubois, Lodge county, Ga.
