

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

All news information for the woman's page of the morning edition of The Herald should be in the hands of the editor of that page before 8 o'clock in the evening. After that hour no items will be accepted for publication on the woman's page in the morning edition of the following day.

LEGION AUXILIARY WILL SELL POPPIES

The women's auxiliary to the local post of the American Legion has reminded the public that on Memorial day, May 30, every man, woman and child in Grand Forks will be expected to appear on the streets wearing a poppy in honor of the world war heroes. Orders may be sent in for poppies any time this week to the auxiliary or to other patriotic organizations of Grand Forks who have the flowers for sale. On Saturday, May 28, however, the poppy sale will be concluded.

Mrs. W. H. Witherspoon is chairman of the committee in charge of the sale for the auxiliary and at a committee meeting which she has called for this evening, plans will be completed for the sale which that society will conduct next Saturday. The poppies are not to be worn until Monday, May 30, the public is reminded, as that is the day upon which the sacred memory of "our boys" is to be honored.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Eagan motored in from Oslo on Sunday and spent the day visiting with friends.

Misses Inez and Olga Serumgard, Bobby Serumgard and Mrs. McClure of Devils Lake were among the many out of town visitors on the university campus on Saturday. They returned to their home on Sunday.

Mrs. Jane Hanaford of Rugby returned to her home on Sunday evening after visiting for a week as the guest of Misses Pearl and Lou Reading, 409 Franklin avenue. A number of interesting social gatherings were had in honor of Mrs. Hanaford during her visit here.

Mrs. Cady Hoop, 1218 Cheyenne avenue, has Mrs. John Torrison of Duluth as her house guest this week. Mrs. Torrison arrived this afternoon. Mrs. William Kerr of Tacoma, Wash., stopped in Grand Forks to spend Sunday as the guest of Mrs. Hoop en route to Grafton, where she will be the guest of her mother this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson of Brockton, N. D., will arrive this afternoon for the graduation recital program of their niece, Miss Irene Thompson, at Corwin hall tonight. Others who will come from out of the city for the recital are Mr. and Mrs. James Bronken, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Janney, Mr. and Mrs. John Brante and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bready of Reynolds, N. D.

The Moccasin club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Clinton, 409 North Seventh street. There were guests for two tables and whist was played. Mrs. John Torrison of Duluth was an out of town guest.

The Fraternal Aid union gave a picnic on Saturday afternoon at Dodson's grove south of the city. The guests included members of the union and their friends. There was an interesting program and later a supper was prepared over a campfire. The singing of songs and story telling about the war were enjoyable features later in the evening.

The next regular meeting of the society will be held on Thursday night at Dodson's grove and all expecting to attend are asked to meet at the Poppler Piano Co. at 8 o'clock. Automobiles will be provided for transportation.

Miss Irene Thompson, reader, will be presented in her graduation recital program tonight at Corwin hall at 8 o'clock. She will read Frances Hodgson Burnett's "Little Lord Fauntleroy." Clarence D. O'Connor, Jacob Evanson and Miss Marie Satter will assist. All friends of Miss Thompson, and all interested in the program, are extended a cordial invitation to attend. Miss Thompson is a pupil of Miss Nella Kingsbury.

Mrs. A. G. Sorlie, 201 Chestnut street, will be hostess on Tuesday evening to the Alpha Phi Alumnae club.

A regular meeting of Maple Leaf Rebekah lodge will be held on Tuesday evening in the Odd Fellows hall, opening at 8 o'clock.

EXQUISITE MODEL

By Eloise.

Weddings are once more occupying the center of the stage. May and June are the true bridal months and one hears talk of trousseaux on every side. Lucky, indeed, is the girl who has some rare old lace in her family trunk, for the newest and most fashionable gowns as approved by Paris are made of lace. It is always so satisfying to have one's gown mentioned as an "heirloom in the bride's family."

Pictured here is a draped gown which relies on the beauty of the lace and the grace of the draping to give it the needed lines and style, for it has no trimming save a spray of orange blossoms at the waist. The veil, too, is unusual, for it is of lace instead of the ordinary tulle and falls from a diadem of orange blossoms to the hip line in front and to the hem in the back in a most oriental style. It is a particularly good arrangement for the tall girl who does not want to add to her height by the cap and puff veil.

Mrs. Paul Griffith will entertain at dinner this evening complimentary to two popular bridesmaids, Miss Maude Griffith and Miss Dorothy Wright. Dinner is to be served at four small tables. Assisting the hostess will be her mother, Mrs. W. S. Begg, Mrs. W. R. Adams and Mrs. C. E. Wright. Meddames C. N. Barnes and Ransom Barnes have issued invitations for a miscellaneous shower to be given on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Maude Griffith. There will be twenty guests. The hostesses will use lilacs through the rooms.

The Sigma Chi fraternity gave an informal dancing party Saturday night at the Lincoln Park club house. The hours were from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock and there was good music. Guests included a number of out of town alumni who were visiting at the chapter house over the week end.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Carrie St. John Dean to Edgar Mortimer Kent of Hatton, N. D., was made Saturday evening at an attractive pre-nuptial party given by Miss Dean's sister, Mrs. Arthur C. Dean, at her home, 402 South Fifth street. The wedding will be an early June event and will take place at the summer home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Dean at Bemidji lake.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Leo, 115 Cottonwood street, left on Saturday night for points in the west where they will visit for several weeks. Spokane, Tacoma, Seattle and Portland are among the cities of interest at which they have planned to stop.

Mrs. Mark Williams, of Chicago, arrived in the city Sunday night, and will spend the summer here as the guest of Mrs. M. L. Williams, Lewis boulevard.

Friends of Mrs. John Harvey, 521 International avenue, will be pleased to hear that she is able to be about again after an illness which has confined her to her home practically all winter.

Word has been received in Grand Forks of the appointment of Miss M. McCulloch, former visiting nurse here to the position of state supervisor of public health nursing in Ohio. Miss McCulloch, with the other supervisors in that state will be in charge of one of the districts into which the state is divided for the purpose of carrying on the public health work. She will make her headquarters in Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Adelheid Thompson, pianist, will be presented in her Senior recital at Corwin hall on Tuesday evening. She is a pupil of Miss Adelaide Okeil. Assisting her on the program will be Mrs. Helen Dean Enyeart. The program follows:
Valse in E, Op. 34, No. 1. Moszkowski
