A Leper on Exhibition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Shortly after noon today Dr. C. C. O'Donnell made his appearance in a wagon on the street, having on the seat beside him a hideous and disgusting Chinese leper. He drove through the principal streets, stopping occasionally to display his acquisition. A crowd followed him, the ranks of which were constantly augmented. O'Donnell finally stopped on Market street in front of the Palace Hotel and began to harangue the crowd, which had increased to thousands, completely blocking the street. He said the existence of leprosy in the city had been denied by the medical faculty and he proposed to prove its presence by ocular demonstration. In a few minutes a policeman stepped up and arrested O'Donnell on the charge of obstructing the public streets and exhibiting a diseased and deformed person. The crowd showed some disposition to prevent the arrest, but O'Donnell counselled discretion. He and his pet were driven to the city prison, where O'Donnell was released on bail and steps taken to dispose of the leper in a proper manner.

The Canadian Election—Chinese Strike.

The Senate Fair.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 19.—The second grand outside stock took place at 10 o'clock this morning, in the presence of several thousand people. To the thoroughbreds was assigned the honor of leading; next followed the trotters, the show of horses extending from the grand stand to the three-quarter pole, thus being more than three-fourths of a mile in length. Never before was so much stock at Sacramento any time. Next came the cattle, a line of which extended from the grand stand beyond the half-mile pole. It had been possible to put all the horses and cattle in line, it would have stretched for a mile and a half. Some Kentuckians who were on the grand stand expressed the opinion that California is now abreast of the blue grass State in fine horses and cattle.

Some six or seven hundred troops are camped outside Camp Indian, in the rear of the State Capitol. The main body of the troops arrived this morning from San Francisco at about 9 o'clock, on the steamer "Fride of the River." Their detachment consisted of the First Regiment, Second Brigade, under command of Colonel Woodhams. They were met at the wharf by the Placerville Guards, Sacramento City Guards and Sarsfield Guards. The troops, headed by the band, marched up K street to camp with a crowd of spectators on the sidewalks. The First California Light Battery also came this morning with a battery of fifty men and a howitzer. The Jackson Dragons arrived on the Julia and are the guests of the Sacramento Hussars. There will be a grand review of troops at 5 P. M. by Gov. Irwin as Commander-in-Chief. Postmaster-General Key is expected by the Eastern-bound train tomorrow, which will be a grand gala day of the Society. The banks and business houses of Sacramento will be closed.

Why the Louisiana Republican Convention Adjourned.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19.—The adjournment of the Republican State Convention is reported to have been the result of the influence of the present State Committee, who desired to retain their power until the close of the Custom House officials, who were afraid of the resolutions proposed by Buries and other colored delegates, who were determined to denounce Hayes and the Custom House. The Convention will not be reassembled and the State Committee will publish an address which is delayed by disagreements upon the financial question, many members contending that yielding to the Greenbackers will alienate the Northern Republicans.

Transfer of Blood.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18.—Dr. Samuel Copple, today at 12 o'clock, transfused at Orleans Infirmary, eight ounces of blood from the arm of a healthy, stout laborer at Gay's Belfry, into the very low of yellow fever. The object was to sustain life in the patient to see if the kidneys would act, which, however, they refused to do, and at eleven P. M. Mr. Gay died.

The Republican Convention in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19.—The National State Convention assembled today. Nearly half the members being former Republicans acting with Wells and Anderson and the Custom House clique. Four-fifths of the delegates are comparatively unknown in political circles. It is reported that several communications have passed to and from Gen. Beauregard, who was solicited to submit his name for nomination as State Treasurer by the Nationals, with assurances of the endorsement of the Republican Committee. Beauregard's friends say he will not allow his name to be used for Wells and Anderson's schemes, but Custom House officials assert that he will accept if nominated.

Gambetta on French Politics.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—Gambetta, in his speech Wednesday, said that the resignation of President MacMahon would involve no changes to the Republic. His suggestion would be immediately nominated and there would be no competition for the post. "But," said he, "the President would not resign—he ought not and he cannot."
