The Fanting Operations Brawles

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Window's funding operations are drawing to a successful close.
Treasury estimates are that $550, 000,000 in bonds have been refunded at 31. The remaining bonds now due will be paid from surplus revenues and cancelled. These will amount to about eighty millions.

This is a lick at Conkling, but his friends are still confident of winning. Garfield refuses to talk about Coukling and will not auswer the latter's statement made a few days ago.

Judgment was read aloud with the words, "without mercy," which it contained, being especially emphasized. The poor fellows were stripped to the waist, and their hands were tied behind to a bayonet. Each one, by turns, wasked along the whole of the battalian expert world in a contained with the contained with the stripped to the waist.

LONDON, Ontario, May 25.—The work of securing dead bodies from under the wreck of the Victoria is still going on actively. One bundred and seventy bodies have been recovered and most of them brought to the city. All of the undertakers' who have searched the records to shops are besieged and coffins are going out by scores. The crowda at shops are besieged and comms are going out by scores. The crowda at the river bank and steamer landing are not diminished. Among the identified are two daughters of the United States to the family of the Abbe Sierocinski, but can not find it.—House and Home. James Barnes. The list of identified is still incomplete. A large number of bodies remain on the grounds at Sulphur Springs a waiting claimants. The whole city seems almost demented to-night. The accident was certainly due to gross carelessness, the boat being overcrowded to a disgraceful extent. Manager Geo. Parish was expostulated with by several at Spring Bark and urged not to let the boat go out in that overcrowded condition, but he is reported to have replied "All right; I know my business," or something of that sort.

Placer Mining in Arizona

[From the Arisona Star.]

There is no question as to the large area of rich placers in Arizona. They are found in all sections of the Territory, especially south of the Gila. The placers of the Coffada del Oro and Santa Ritas have been known for years, and much been known for years, and much gold has been taken from them by the primitive processes employed by the natives. The Santa Ritus by the natives. The Santa Ritas for the past eight years have produced many thousands of dollars. Some estimate the yield at not less than $800,000. We have seen many nuggets valued at over $3,000. In 1876 the house of Lord & Williams purchased a nugget from these diggings valued at over $2700. The lack of water has renewed. from these diggings valued at over $700. The lack of water has rendered impracticable the successful workings of the placers, except during the rainy season; however, a large number find they can make reasonable wages by packing water on burros to their claims for the purpose of washing out the gold dust.

During the last four months considerable interest has been manifested in the Santa Rita placers by parties who propose to operate on a large scale. A company has been formed to work them on the dry process, and in a few days several $700. The lack of water has ren-dered impracticable the successful workings of the placers, except dur-ing the rainy season; however, a large number find they can make parties who propose to operate on a large scale. A company has been formed to work them on the dry process, and in a few days several process, and in a few days several mills will be on the ground, with a crusher and dryer. This company has taken up a number of claims and purchased others. They have made successful experiments with the Waugaman dry-washer, and feel confident of success.

An Old Prophecy.

The near approach of the comet which now excites such universal attention in England has revived an old story: In 1712 Mr. Whiston, an ecentric Millenarian divino and astronomer, who served as deputy to Sir Isasc Newton when professor of mathematic at Cambridge, predicted that a camet would appear at noon on Weduesday, October 14th, and that the earth would be destroyed by fire on the fallowing Friday. The comet came, and had an extraordinary effect. More than one hundred olergymen were reported to have waited on the primate on the Wednesday afternoon to request that prayers might be prepared, while thousands of men, who believed that the end of the world was coming, married on the Thursday the women with whom these was coming, married on the Thursday the women with whom they had been living. Many people embarked on the water, thinking that they would be safer when the fire came, and Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Chief Director of the Bank of England, issued instructions to the fire officers to keep a sharp lookout on the Bank of England, on which there cers to keep a sharp lookout on the Bank of England, on which there was a produgious run, presumably by those who thought that, albeit they brought nothing into the world, they might be able to take something out. The captain of a Dutch ship in the Thames threw all his powder into the river. Whiston is only remembered now by his translation of Josephus.

Specimen Cruelties of the Late

The Abbe Sierocinski, formerly Superior of the late Convent of Basilicans at Overeus, took part in the last Pollsh revolution. He was sent by the Czar Nicholas to labor in the mines of Siberia, where he plotted with several others to effect their escape. For this he was constituted to the convenience of the convenie master. A New Line of Suvenigation.

Washington, May 25th.—Postmaster General James has instituted an inquiry into the practices of professional contractors, who, while irresponsible and having no intention to perform the service, secure a number of routes at the annual lettings which they sublet at lower rates, using the same sureties on all their bonds. These bonds in many instances, it is exted at the Department, are found to be worthless.
