Downieville dispatch says: It is raining heavily and there are five feet of snow in the mountains. Further reports from the interior show plentiful rains almost everywhere. Stanislaus county is getting a lively downpour, but further south the rainfall is lighter.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The Costa Rican Consul here says he has received no intelligence regarding the earthquake and loss of life in his country, but would not be surprised if the report were true, as the location mentioned was a nest of violence.

two inches of rain, and no signs of abatement are perceptible. As all danger of drouth is now over it may be stated that the losses from the long dry spell amount to the flood. the long dry spell amount to onesixth of the sheep and all the Spring lambs, the latter baving been killed. There will also be a clip of short wool. The wheat, barley, corn, beans and honey crops are all safe and will be large, provided the weather is normal from this time onward. A larger acreage of small grain than usual has been sown, but the crop will be late owing to the long spell of cold weather.

LATER .- At about 11 o'clock a terrific downpour of rain and hail set in accompanied with thunder and lightning. To the astonish-ment of old settlers this lasted an hour, after which a steady southeast rain again set in as if for an all-night j.b. The barometer is still down. The hail destroyed some early fruit blossoms, but no other damage was done.

LATEST-During the height of the thunder storm to-day the tight-ning passed over the barn of H. Miller, on the outskitts of the cash or ordered C. O. D. n2-6m-d&w town and struck a large fowl house behind, shivering the corner into splinters and throwing portions of scantling seventy feet away. Had it struck the barr, which was fuil of hay besides eight valuable horses the loss would have been serious. No one ever heard of lightning striking in the valley portion of this county before.

At four P. M. the skies are clear but there are still light south-east winds and a low barometer. The storm so far has given two and three-fourths inches.

Error to the Trial of Mason.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—It is expected that the counsel of Sergeant Mason will raise the point that there was a fatal error in the court martial proceedings which felo-im Camp Thomas, Arizona Ter. will vitiate the whole trial. The error claimed is that the court and judge advocate were sworn before for To-Day. WASHINGTON, March 13th .- Although when the House reassembles at half-past 11 to-morrow morning the Polygamy bill will hold the place it occupied at the time recess was taken this evening, it will not continue before the House when the session of Tuesday commences, unless the previous question upon its passage shall then have been called. The Chinese bill, therefore, cannot be displaced from its assignment for tomorrow unless the Polygamy bill them off.

The Chinese Bill the Special Order

Increased Cost of the Army. WASHINGTON, March 14 -In the House to-day the Army Appropriation bill was ordered printed and recommitted. It provides for an aggregate appropriation of $27,431,-698, and is an increase of $743,898 over the appropriation of last year. The Chase-bas fi to Letter.

NEW YORK, March 13 -The Star publishes the following: It is stated in responsible quarters that the letter written to Chase by Garfield, touching Rosecrans, recently made public, was given out by Jacob W. Schucks. Schucks now lives in New York. At the time Chase was Secretary of the Treasury he (Schucks) lived in Ohio and was appointed from that State by Chase to a $1,600-clerkship. Subsequently he became Chase's private secretary. It is vertise the bearing on the removal of Rose-$40,000 Worth of Boots and Shoes Under One Roof, Ranging in Price from 20c. Upwards.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14—At the Oakland city election yester-day at the Republican candidates were elected by majorities ranging from 383 for Mayor to 1,629 for Superintendent of schools.

This is no exaggeration, but a fact that can be substantiated by a careful inspection of our establishment. Five years ago we broke the back of the ring that manipulated the prices of boots and shoes in this city, and from that day to this we have sustained our hard-earned reputation for cheapness and excellence.
