FOX TERRIERS.

Some of Those Well Known in Los Angeles. California has so successfully proved its ability to raise fine horses that it is not to be wondered at that the State can also raise fine dogs, and the San Francisco Examiner draws attention to the gradual influx to America of that pet of the English sportsman, the fox terrier, and specially mentions that San Francisco has some fine specimens. Upon looking into the matter, it is found that Los Angeles can see San Francisco and go one better. There are also some fine terriers here, and, further, Los Angeles has the honor of being the first Califor-nian city to possess an English fox terrier nas the nonor of being the lines. Cantornian city to possess an English fox terrier at all.

In 1873 Mr. C. A. Sumner brought two from England; a short time afterwards Capt. Hutchinson imported one, and about the same date E. P. Tomkinson brought his famous Jock here, and from these some of the present dogs in Los Angeles trace their pedigree—notably Mrs. Murrieta's Jock, H. J. Stewart's dogs and the kennel of Mr. Young, of Dnarte.

The fox ferrier is such a complete multum in parvo, it is not to be wondered at that it is a favorite everywhere. For pluck, endurance, activity and sagacity, all wrapped up in a small compass, it has no equal, and some of the stories told of their doings are almost incredible.

For instance, Capt. Hutchinson's Tartar went to earth after a badger once and was lost underground for several days, and was supposed to be killed there. In spite of digging, no trace could be discovered, until one day a Chinaman heard some faint scratching at the root of a tree many feet away from the entrance to the hole. Captain Hutchinson hardly believing it could be his dog, nevertheless, set to work digging and was at last rewarded by coming upon his poor famished animal held fast and jammed under some roots, where he had been for five days. Only his pluck and was at last rewarded by coming upon his poor famished animal held fast and jammed under some roots, where he had been for five days. Only his pluck rescued him; a car would have died long before, but Tartar never gave in and lived for many a day after.

Captain Tomkinson, too, has a remarkable story about his dog Jock, which unfortunately refused to move when a reaper came by and so lost a hind leg. He got over his accident though, and used to come in from Green Meadows on his three legs as if none the worse, but he was always spoiling for a fight, until one day when he was cornered by two immense dogs, which were lying in wait for him. Poor Jock got a licking and was badly used up, but the worst part was that his off fore leg was so injured he could not put it on the ground. It being on the same side as the lost hind leg, the animal was completely used up and couldn't move. As Captain Tomkinson was riding a restive cole at the time, he was unable to carry his pet, so started off to fetch a wagon, when to his surprise up got Jock and bicycle-like followed on two legs, both on the same side. The poor dog had to lie down now and then, as his jumps would only last for a short distance at a time. He got home safe at last and was carefully nursed until he recovered. Nothing but the indomitable pluck peculiar to the breed would have carried him through such a journey.

However, space forbids further gossip.

have carried him through such a journey.

However, space forbids further gossip. Los Angeles had a very creditable class of fox terriers in the last bench show here, among the exhibitors being Miss Susie Patton, Mrs. E. Bowring, Mesers. Campbell-Johnston, Chadwick, Belton, Cawston, Holborough and Dr. Murray. Several of their dogs were the progeny of Mr. Malim's Finnette, which all took prizes, and one was descended from three-legged Jock. Among the owners of fox terriers near here, in addition to those already menti ned, are Mesers. Dan McFarland, L. J. Rose, Jr., Tom Rhodes, Waring, Cecil Sumner. Dr. Stewart and C. A. Sumner, the latter being the owner of a son of Lucifer and great-grand-on of Result, the dog for which $5,000 was refused. Lucifer is said to be the best dog in the world today, and certainly so far has never been beaten, having taken no less than forty-five first and special prizes in the States and England. Any one who knows the beaten, having taken no less than forty-five first and special prizes in the States and England. Any one who knows the breed must certainly acknowledge that the fox terrier is the best dog for town or country, sport or companionship, and alike the best burglar alarm and a playmate for the baby. Make him your friend, and he will not be found want-

Not Lost Yet.

Last evening's Express contained an article stating that the city had lost title to the Plaza engine house by reason of the failure of the city to appeal from the judgment rendered by Judge Hutton about a year ago, in which he decided that the city had no title to the property, and that H. W. Latham and Mrs. Bigeand that H. W. Latham and Mrs. Bigelow each owned one-half of the same, and that Mrs. Bigelow had notified the city to either quit the property or pay rent. The City Attorney states that H. W. Latham notified the City Attorney of the filing of a judgment in his favor, as required by law, and the City Attorney thereupon made a motion for a new trial, which was overruled, and from which an appeal has been perfected and is now pending in the Supreme Court; that the reason no appeal has been perfected as against Mrs. Bigelow is that she has never notified the city of the filing of the judgment in her favor, and that when the city is so notified, that it has ten days in which to make a motion for a new trial, and should the same be refused, an appeal from the order will be taken to the Supreme Court.

RECHARGE REVIEW.

NEW YORK, January 16.—Stocks today were less active than for the past few days, owing in part to the stoppage of the tickers of the Commercial Telegraph Company, which seriously interfered with the business of many brokers, and partly to the apathy of the traders, who are again the principal makers of quotations. The following at the opening was dullish, but pressure upon Union Pacific extended to other stocks, and the traders turned over to the bear side for a time, and there was a general decline consequently in the unlisted department. Sugar refineries were run up about 2 per cent. on the covering of snorts. Wisconsin Central was materially lower on continued liquidation, and Jersey Central late in the day dropped suddenly from 123 to 120%, but recovered a portion of its loss. Coal stocks were remarkably strong again and Reading, sided by the report that the Mayor of Philadelphia had signed the terminal bill, moved up. The market closed dull but heavy, and generally at the lowest prices of the day.

Government bonds were dull and steady. Petroleum opened steady at 104%, and after the first sales became strong and advanced to 106. A reaction '610wed on which the market closed steady at 105%.
